JAS. BLAKELY, ONE OF BROWNSVILLE'S FOUNDERS, PASSES

DECEASED CROSSED PLAINS IN 1848

Veteran of Indian Wars in Rogue River Valley, Member of Legislature and Helped Organize Soldiers.

BROWNSVILLE, Or., Jan. 29.—In the death of Captain James Blakely, 100 years and two months old, here tonight at 6:45 o'clock Oregon lost an historic pioneer. Captain Blakely has long been considered the oldest pioneer in the state. His span of life stretched from the close of the second war with England in 1812.

Captain Blakely's death came after an illness of several months, although for a time his recovery seemed so promising that November 26 he sat at the head of the family table and took part in a celebration in honor of his 100th birthday. Five generations, including himself, were present at the dinner and in the evening Brownsville citizens gave a celebration in the tabernacle in his honor.

Captain Blakely was born in Lynes County, Tennessee, November 26, 1812, and received his education there. In 1838 he moved with his family to Missouri, where he lived until April 4, 1846. In that year he started for Oregon, arriving at the place which is now Brownsville October 9 of that year. With his uncle, Hugh L. Brown, after whom Brownsville later was named, he took up a donation claim and started Brownsville in 1855. He became with his uncle a member of one of the leading mercantile establishments of that section.

To Captain Blakely fell honors in war, as in statesmanship and local affairs. He assisted in organizing Company E, Oregon Volunteers, in March, 1856, and was elected Captain. He organized his neighbors later for a three month's war with the Rogue River Indians and returned home July 4 with the "Declaration of Independence from Indian Troubles." As a member from Linn County to the Oregon Legislature during the session in which Senator Michell was elected to the United States the first time, Captain Blakely distinguished himself. He had been a lifelong Democrat and was always active in state affairs and in local undertakings. He had been a member of the First Presbyterian Church here since its organization.

SUFFRAGETTES TO MAKE GREAT FIGHT

WOMEN, GIVEN JAIL SENTENCES, DECLARE THAT THEY WILL NOT EAT

MISS PANKHURST IS BEING HUNTED

Lloyd-George is Excoriated for not Receiving Delegation—Fight to be to Its Finish

LONDON, Jan. 29.—"Not one cent of tribute will I pay to a man's government." This was the stand taken today by Mrs. Flora Drummond, militant suffragette, when convicted of disorderly conduct and malicious destruction of property and fined $10 in Bow Street police court here. Other suffragettes awaiting arraignment on similar charges announced today they would take the same stand.

When ordered to jail for 14 days Mrs. Drummond declared she would institute a hunger strike, even if it resulted in her death. Other suffragettes concurred in this plan unless they were classed as political prisoners.

Suffragettes last night continued demonstrations throughout London. Acid was poured on a score of letter boxes. All windows in Oxford and Regent Streets were boarded up today, the shopkeepers anticipating another window-smashing tonight.

After the conviction of Mrs. Drummond 20 other suffragettes were arraigned for malicious destruction of property. Each was given the alternative of paying a $10 fine or spending two weeks in jail. All preferred jail. As the women left the court each declared she would not eat a morsel of food during the incarceration.

Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, daughter of Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst, the suffragette leader, did not appear in Bow Street court today. She was arrested with Mrs. Drummond last night, but later was released on her own recognizance and under promise of good behavior.

Scotland Yard detectives are seeking Miss Christobel Pankhurst, another of Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst's daughters.

Yesterday the militant suffragettes asked Lloyd-George to receive a delegation of women. He offered to let his private secretary receive them tomorrow. Mrs. Drummond pledged there would be no disturbance if the chancellor would receive the women. He refused.

When the suffragette leaders tried to force an entrance to the building they were arrested, and a riot followed. Windows in the treasury and other buildings were stoned. Wholesale arrests failed to check the attack, although the police were stationed three deep about the parliament buildings.

The police barely held their own, but the reserves were held back, the authorities fearing that the attack on the parliament buildings was only a blind intended to cover extensive raids elsewhere.

A gang of youths jostled the women and attempted to duck them in Trafalgar Square fountain, but were dispersed by police.

'ANTI WORRY' MEETING TO BE HELD TONIGHT

An "anti-worry meeting" will be held tonight at the First Congregational Church. Rev. George Nelson Edwards, the pastor, announced that the subject for consideration at the midweek service would be "Antidotes for Worry." The announcement has created much interest, in view of the program, which will be in the nature of a spiritual clinic. Mr. Edwards proposes to give a general lecture on the subject of "modern worries." Following his remarks the meeting will be thrown open to those present. Speakers will be asked in advance to specify something that has worried them, its cause and its effect. The cure tried by experience will also be given. The pastor will close the "clinic" by giving valuable hints bearing directly on the various worries as they come up during the prayer meeting. Others will be asked to suggest specific cures.

Mr. Edwards, in speaking of his unique prayer meeting said: "I want the general public to come and bring their worries along with them. We promise to do them good. I am coming to believe that the prayer meeting can be more serviceable if the subjects are of a practical kind, bearing directly on the spiritual and the social life. There is nothing sensational about tonight's service, but it will be intensely practical. Optimism will prevail, and we hope to show those who are worried especially about anything, how it can prevail as it should. The songs will be bright, joyous, calculated to drive worry from the mind. Everything said and done will be of the same nature. It will be a straight out and out 'anti-worry meeting.'"

If it happened it is in the Enterprise.

TEN-HOUR BILL FACES DEFEAT

SCHUEBEL'S MEASURE CERTAIN TO HAVE GREAT OPPOSITION IN SENATE

WORKERS FAVOR SYSTEM IN VOGUE

Men Would be Allowed to Work Only Five Days Under Bill—Others Would be Employed

The bill of Representative Schuebel, passed by the House by a vote of 45 to 19, if passed by the Senate, will make a big change in the shifts in the Oregon City mills. The bill provides that it shall be the public policy of the state that ten hours a day and 60 hours a week are the maximum of hours of labor for men in mill's, factories and manufacturing establishments. The bill provides that men shall not be employed for longer hours than these hours except in case of watches, making necessary repairs or of emergency where life or property is in imminent peril. Employees may work overtime two hours a day but must not work more than 60 hours in one week. Employers who shall allow violations of the law are to be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be fined not less than $50 nor more than $500.

A superintendent of one of the paper mills here said Wednesday if the bill became a law it would result in shift men working only five days a week. He said that other men would have to be employed. The mills will not close because the work starting would be too great, and consequently other men must be employed to take the place of those laid off under the provisions of the law. The men do not favor the measure because they are paid by the hour and desire to get in as many hours as possible. It is not believed that the bill will be passed by the Senate.

MEN WHO INTERFERE WITH DANCE FINED

Percy Smith, Frank Smith and Carl Hogg, arrested by Constable Frost on a charge of causing a disturbance at a dance at the home of Frank Ferguson Saturday night, were fined $7.50 each by Justice of the Peace Samson Tuesday. HOME RULE BILL WINS IN SENATE

MALARKEY SPRINGS BIG SURPRISE ON MEASURE LONG CONTESTED

DIMICK SWITCHES TO ITS SUPPORT

Senator Explains That Proposition is Wrong, But He Believes It is Best at Present

SALEM, Jan. 29., (Special).—President Malarkey, of the Senate, by whose vote the resolution to put on the ballot at the next general election an amendment repealing the home rule bill was defeated Tuesday, sprung a surprise today when he moved to reconsider the resolution.

The motion was carried and on second vote the resolution which was lost Tuesday was adopted today and sent into the House where it will be the center of warfare.

Senator Dimick of Clackamas voted against the bill Tuesday, but was the one Senator who switched and voted in favor of it and assisted in its passage. In explaining his position he stated that he still believed the proposition wrong for the Legislature to attempt to tinker with the people's laws by sending a measure to the ballot for a side which has once been defeated by the people's vote.

But he stated, after consideration, he had reached the conclusion that by voting for the resolution it would only mean that the expense of initiating a petition would be obviated and for that reason he decided to vote for it. The other Senator added to the affirmative vote was Hollis, of Washington, who was in Portland Wednesday. The Clackamas delegation was quiet today on both sides of the Legislature and but little transpired of interest in either house.

LEGISLATURE PROBES TELEPHONE COMBINE

SALEM, Or., Jan. 29.—Unless the Legislature passes an anti-trust law with an emergency clause attached, which will meet the situation, the state will be powerless to prevent the Pacific States Telephone Company from gobbling up the Northwestern Long Distance Telephone Company, its only competitor, according to a report by Attorney General C. J. Winston, and which will likely be submitted to the Legislature tomorrow afternoon.

By a joint resolution of the Legislature, the Attorney General was sent to Portland to investigate the reported attempt of the Bell Company to get control of the Home Company. He states that he found the Bell Company had bought up the bonds of its competitor for the evident purpose of putting it out of business, and that it was now attempting to foreclose on the bonds.

He said he found that if the Home Company is put out of business, in addition to throttling this competition, it will be a severe blow to nearly all of the local and farmers' lines in the state, as the Bell Company refuses to permit these local lines to connect with its line, while the Home Company does permit them to connect.

Senator Smith of Coos has introduced an anti-trust bill, being Senate bill No. 156, that meets the exigencies of the case if the bill becomes a law without delay, according to the Attorney General. An effort was made Monday to have the rules in the Senate suspended so the bill could be rushed, but the Senate refused to rush it.

"Under present laws, the state is powerless to interfere," declares the Attorney General.

ECONOMY IS PLAN OF LEGISLATURE

SALEM, Or., Jan. 29.—From a good many indications, with especial reference to the attitude of members of the house ways and means committee, this is likely to prove a pretty lean year in appropriation.

It is said that members of the committee have practically reached an agreement to prune appropriations right and left. In fact, it is asserted that there will be a great many disappointed appropriation hunters before the session ends.

Even the state institutions, including the penitentiary, feeble minded schools, and so forth, and the state educational institutions will feel the effects of the policy of rigid economy the committee is expected to pursue. Proposals have already been made to slash to the very limit some of these appropriations which are declared by officials of the institutions to be already as low as efficiency will permit. Members of the committee, it is said, have determined to carry economy so far that there will be no opportunity for Governor West to put his threatened "deadline" vetoes in effect.

As yet the committee has not considered any large appropriations, but at a meeting last night some minor ones were taken up. Speaker McArthur's bill to appropriate $10,000 to fight bubonic plague and one by Jay Upton to reimburse Richard Williams and others who advanced $1285 to buy the site of the Champoug monument, were killed.
