CHURCH UNION.

the Enterprise.)—The uniting of the calf."-Washington Star. churches is a significant movement in present day society. It is not a result of compulsion from any source Wants, For Sale, Etc. nor an invitation of other forms of world it is not due to a lack of strength for the Protestant churches were never so strong in their history. It is rather a spontaneous and concerted uprising of Christian people against a common foe and for the united effort in the business or labor against a common foe and for the common defense. It is the social wrongs of the age that are arousing the heart and conscience of the church. It is a modern crusade against social injustice and conscienceless greed which is sacrificing little children to machinery women to the burdens of industry, men to excessive toil and, men, women and children to the ravages of alcoholism, disease and poverty. What is the present duty of the church to the society which it seeks to redeem, what is the program of the modern church and what are the problems which Christian people in Oregon City can touch most helpfully and most efficiently? These are some of the questions which the pastor of the Congregational Church proposes to consider on the Sunday evenings of February. The topic on the first evening will be Order to Succeed in its Social Mis-GEORGE NELSON EDWARDS
