MORNING ENTERPRISE TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1913.

tation of foodstuffs.

harbor.

the pre-eminent position that we did kept upon it continuously. The the domestic market have grown condition of Main Street. Main Street greater with our increase in popula- should be kept clean.

tion, but we are still supplying the world with a large portion of its food.

again that the high prices for articles of food which prevail at the present time are not primarily due to domestic causes, but to a world condition, and although palliatives for this condition may be found and remedied in apparent-that they are not wholly sufficient.

This fact should have influence with the tariff tinkers. Free trade fire and water, and tariff for revenue do not consti-

Work and Play Are the

By WILLIAM LOWE BRYAN, President of Indiana University

HE TWO MOST VALUABLE MEANS OF LEADING THE MIND WORK AND PLAY.

SHALL NOT BE THE VICTIMS OF FIVE MINUTES OF WRONG HEARTED FEELINGS. This life is full of danger, and it seems to be just a choice of dangers every day. But one of the greatest dangers before us all along the course of life is that in some sudden, unlooked for five minutes we shall wrong ourselves for life.

PLAY IS MOST NECESSARY FOR THOSE WHO ARE NO LONGER CHILDREN. IT IS ESSENTIAL FOR THE HEALTH OF THE SOUL THAT WE SHOULD KEEP ON CARING TO PLAY, WHEN YOU HAVE REACHED THE POINT WHERE YOU DO NOT WANT TO PLAY IT IS A SIGN OF OLD AGE.

The fundamental distraction from evil is WORK. Work is by all means the best thing. I do not quite see why it was ever thought of as a curse. It is the greatest blessing there is for children. Children and savages are naturally lazy.

The most important thing the civilized children have to do is to LEARN TO WORK whether they feel like it or not. It is true that work is the great saver of the feelings and dispositions of those who are no longer young. It is ONE OF THE COMPENSATIONS OF POVERTY, and poverty is not an easy thing nor a light thing nor an unimportant thing. It is a terrible thing. But it is one of the compensations of poverty that you HAVE TO WORK and that you cannot brood too much on your sorrows.

power to resurrect. Of what use would it be anyway? The members of the church advertise it. They do this in various ways, but they ought to go out and tell of its work and its sources of power and its means of Cards, handbills, framed announcements, bulletins, all bring success. Perhaps the most efficient means of advertising today is through the "press.". Newspapers and newspaper men are kindly toward the church

In this city, for instance, the newsare valuable allies of the papers church, interested with them in that which goes to make life nobler and better and larger. The church should show its appreciation of this great service. "But can we afford it?" says some one. If you have "goods" on the shelves, advertise, If you have "goods" in the pulpit, advertise. If you have "goods" in the church, let the story be known. If you have not anything worth while, keep very quiet or make a very thorough investigation of the stock. Take an inventory preparatory to putting in a new stock.

Of course advertising in any line ought to be legitimate. Any man phy, south, range 4 east: $500.

M. J. Lee, agent and M. J. Lee and wife to Portland Eugene & Eastern Railway Company, right of way through lot 49, Canby Gardens; $10. Ormel R. Mack and wife to Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway Company, right of way through lot 39. Canby Gardens: $10.

James McNeil and wife to Portland Eugene & Eastern Rallway Company part of lot A, tract 61 Willamette Tracts; $10.

R. E. Bundy to Richard Sleight land section 1, township 2 south, range 3 east; $1.

M. J. Lee, agent and M. J. Lee and Railway Company, right of way through lots 28, 37 and 36, Canby Gardens; $10.

Maggie Frederici to Martin Denny and wife, land section 19, township 2 south, range 1 east: $3,000 Matilda L. Boyey to Everett Pollock, land beginning at north-west corner of tract sold to Jmes Larkins recorded pages 506 and 507 Book No 30; $10.

SAWING A SPECIALTY. Phone your orders. Pacific 1371, Home

HABIT There is nothing quite so powerful as habit. It is the unconscious instrument of our action. To get into the habit of saving is the important step-Do not merely resolve to save-Act on the resolution. THE BANK OF OREGON CITY OLDEST BANK IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY

SARAH LEWELLEN. Committee,

HUNTLEY BROTHERS CO. BY

FOR SALE AND RECOMMENDED

U. S. A.

Wants, For Sale, Etc.

Notices under these classified headings will be inserted at one cent a word, first insertion, haif a cent additional inser-tions. One inch card, $2 per month; half inch card, (4 lines), $1 per month. Cash must accompany order unless one has an open account with the paper. No financial responsibility for errors: where

M. J. Lee, agent and M. J. Lee and wife to Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway Company, right of way printed for patron. Minimum charge 15c.

HELP WANTED-MALE

Enterprise.

WANTED-Work by Middle aged woman with little girl, any kind of