POTATO MARKET IS STILL AT LOW EBB

The market for potatoes is showing no signs of improvement. California mail advices indicate that the trade there is still over-supplied with spuds and no changes are shown in the price. The extreme quotation for Oregon potatoes in the San Francisco market is $1 per cental and this is obtained only for branded sacks—and very few even of that class went above 95c. The general run of stock went a nickle below this.

The absence of a demand for seed stock is causing much disappointment to the local trade, as well as to California interests that had speculated in this stock earlier in the season. While the planting of potatoes in the south has been quite liberal to date this season, outside seed requirements were nominal because of the heavy purchases of Oregon stock last season.

A small amount of business in potatoes will be passing with Arizona and Texas, but the volume is considerably smaller than usual at this time of the season. Very liberal shipments are being made to California at this time, but all of the business was closed some time ago. No sales are being made by dealers for that account at the present time and therefore there is little buying in the country.

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows:
HIDES—(Buying) Green salted, 7c to 8c; sheep pelts 75c to $1.50 each.
FEED—(Selling) Shorts $25; bran $24; process barley $27 to $28 per ton.
FLOUR—$4.50 to $5.
HAY—(Buying) Clover at $9 and $10; oat hay at $11 and $12; mixed $10 to $12; alfalfa $15 to $18.50; Idaho timothy $22 and $23.
OATS—$25.00 to $26.00; wheat $5; oil meal selling $42.00; Shay Brook dairy feed $1.30 per hundred pounds. Whole corn $30.
LIVESTOCK, MEATS.
BEEF—(Live weight) steers 7 and 8c; caws 6 and 7c bulls 4 to 12c.
MUTTON—Sheep 4c to 5c; lambs 6 to 6 1/2c.
PORK—9 1/2 and 10c.
VEAL—Calves 12c to 13c dressed, according to grade.
WENES—15 lb; sausage, 15c lb.
POULTRY—(Buying)—Hens 11c; stags 11c and old roosters 8c.

SCHUEBEL'S WATER POWER BILL LOST

STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Or., Feb. 5.—Although Representative Schuebel, of Clackamas County, thundered volleys of charges and insinuations against "certain members" of the House, declared the "Portland Railway, Light & Power is an offspring of the Standard Oil Company," etc., his bill to regulate the rates to be paid the state for water power per horse power met with defeat in the House upon rollcall today.

Mr. Schuebel especially attacked the power company, saying it had "expended more money in lobbying to defeat his bill than it would cost it to carry the measure to the Supreme Court, if it passed, and have it declared unconstitutional, as certain gentlemen on this floor have already said it is."

The bill, according to Mr. Schuebel would not affect irrigation, and when it was referred to the committee on irrigation, the other day, he charged it was for delay. Today he said that the lobbyists of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company were the only ones to appear before that committee to be heard.

The bill sought to establish a graduated scale of rates for water power rights. Opposing members declared it would cripple the irrigation projects of the state and injure the farmers. While not all of them were opposed to it as to its application to the big power companies, they said they would not support it on the ground that it would work an injury to the others concerned.

ZIMMERMAN WOULD LIKE TO HAVE EVERS' BRAINS.

Joe Tinker tells a bit of inside baseball about a Brooklyn game. Nap Rucker was pitching against the Cubs and had nothing except speed; otherwise he was deficient, but he was shooting them over so fast the Cubs were looking for life insurance agents before going to the plate. Among those present was Johnny Evers, known as one of the craftiest exponents of the higher baseball.

Another prominent figure was Heinie Zimmerman, whose principal weakness is that he has arm trouble which prevents him from batting more than 400. Mr. Zimmerman, however, has no reputation whatsoever as a star at inside baseball. Evers barely dodged a high inside shot from Rucker that would have brained the earnest second baseman.

Frank Chance was sitting on the bench and gasped out: "Gee! Nap nearly scattered Evers' brains over the whole infield!" "I wish he had," remarked Zim. "I'd tear out there and get a hand full for future emergencies!"

Which would indicate that Zim agrees with his critics and does not think he knows it all.

At the Portland Theatres

LAST CAR LEAVES FOR OREGON CITY AT MIDNIGHT

Edith Luckett, Marie Taylor and Grace Morrison in "Broadway" Jones at the Heilig Theatre, Portland.

HEILIG THEATRE.
"Broadway" Jones, George M. Cohan's latest and smartest play is to the attraction at the Heilig Theatre for three nights and a Saturday matinee, beginning Thursday night, February 6th.

Messrs. Cohan and Harris, the producers have sent "Broadway" Jones to the Pacific Coast almost direct from the Atlantic side, and in the routing of the play to Portland, but few stop-overs were made, these at Denver, Salt Lake City, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

"Broadway" Jones proved a sensation in New York where it enjoyed a long run and also the approval of each and every dramatic critic of that city. It has been conceded the best play George Cohan has ever written and it is doubtful if a better play has been seen on Broadway. The young author has put a touch of nature into his latest work that lives long in the memory of his audience, the comedy is clean and will appeal to everyone. The plot is woven around characters chosen from the walks of every day life. It tells a true story of a young Connecticut youth who has squandered a fortune in an endeavor to "burn up Broadway." Just as he thinks he has it properly incanted, there comes the inevitable smash and his money is all gone. Not only this, but he is heavily in debt. In despair he consents to marry an heiress old enough to be his mother. This is the predicament one finds "Broadway" Jones in, when the curtain rises on the beginning of the play. The rapid fire dialogue of the play is said to be wonderful, the audience catches the enthusiasm with which Mr. Cohan has imbued his play, and the applause is constant and inspiring.

An Irish gentleman was once attended by an eminent London physician, who, pausing and looking at him with an inquiring glance, said:
"I should like to know, sir, if your family have been long lived?"
"Long lived, is it?" responded the patient thoughtfully. "Well, doctor, I'll just tell you how it is. Our family is a west of Ireland family, and the age of my ancestors depended entirely on the judge and jury who tried them."—Strand Magazine.

ANNEXATION BILL PASSED BY SENATE

bring the mill properties across the river from Oregon City into the city limits to compel them to pay city taxes. "Robbery," "thievery," "mean and hoggish," were some of the epithets which Dimick hurled at the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company when arguing in favor of his bill. The measure provides for annexation by a city without the consent of the territory annexed.

Representative Gill introduced a bill in the House today which would prohibit advertising or soliciting the sale of cigarettes. Tomorrow is the last day which is allowed under a joint resolution to introduce bills and while the number of bills which has been received extend beyond anything ever before seen in an Oregon Legislative Assembly it is probable that there will be an avalanche of them tomorrow. After that date none can be introduced without the consent of at least three-fourths of the body in which they are introduced.

Road lobbyists came in for a grilling in the Senate today when members declared that had it not been for
