WILSON IN DOUBT ON LEGISLATION

PRESIDENT-ELECT BEGINS WORK ON HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS

EXTRA SESSION TOPICS CONSIDERED

Governor Takes Long Walk in Chilly Air—Brother Who is Newspaper Man Visits Him

PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 6.—President-elect Wilson has not yet decided what legislation he will recommend to the extra session of Congress besides the tariff. This statement was made by Mr. Wilson when he was asked tonight concerning reports from Washington to the effect that he would urge the next Congress to take up currency reform.

It is known that Mr. Wilson considers the tariff, anti-trust legislation and currency reform as the three principal subjects upon which the platform pledges should be carried out as quickly as possible. He expects to learn from party leaders in Congress just what would be practical to take up at the extra session. Mr. Wilson said he would make no decisions until after he was inaugurated.

The Governor spent the day working on his inaugural address. He took a long walk in the chilly air and Joseph R. Wilson, of the Nashville Banner, called on him tonight, leaving at a late hour for Washington.

MEDFORD MAN SAYS THAT HE HAS COMPLETE RECORD OF ALL PECULATIONS

CONFESSION IS MADE BY PRISONER

Long List of Stolen Articles Looks Like Big Bill for Groceries—Oil Among Stolen Goods

MEDFORD, Or., Feb. 6.—A new wrinkle in criminal annals, in which a burglar systematically kept books on what he stole and what he expected to steal has been unearthed by the local police force in the capture of Frank Kelly, a young man of 23, who has resided here for some time on West Eleventh Street.

Kelly, after his capture, made a full confession and produced his "books." A list of all he has stolen together with the dates on which he broke into the places, was found. Opposite the list is the price of each. At his home at 710 West Eleventh Street, the officers found more than two wagon loads of loot.

Kelly's list of stolen articles is unique. It looks like a bill for groceries and is very complete. He has "accounts" with Warner, Wortman & Gore, B. & C. Cash Store, Public Library, where he stole oil, Big Pines Lumber Company and a number of orchard companies in the valley.

JUDGE BEATIE SENTENCES ALBERT McDONALD TO ONE YEAR IN JAIL

PRISONER SAYS HE MADE MISTAKE

Defendant has Worked Faithfully in One of Mills—Wife Keeps Self and Three Children

Albert McDonald, 45 years of age, a millworker, was Tuesday sentenced to serve one year in jail by County Judge Beatie, on a charge of non support preferred by his wife. Mrs. McDonald has been making a living for herself and three children for several years. McDonald said that he had not given his wife any money for three years.

"Then you plead guilty?" asked Judge Beatie.

"Yes, I am guilty, I have not contributed to her support for three years," said the prisoner.

"Then you must go to jail for one year," said Judge Beatie.

McDonald, who has been continuously employed, said after being sentenced that he did not understand court procedure, and if he had he would have made a defense. His is one of the few cases on record in this county in which a man has pleaded guilty to a non support charge. Judge Beatie said he would be willing to parole McDonald if he would promise to give a part of his wages to his wife and children. His youngest child has scarlet fever.

Beatie when he was ten years of age were used. Dr. Beatie and Mr. Cooke were present during the afternoon and enjoyed the fun as much as the women. Among those present were Mrs. Lenora E. Cooke, Mrs. Della Beatie, Mrs. Mary Caulfield, Mrs. Jennie B. Harris, Mrs. Laura E. Carter, Mrs. Caroline Beatie, Miss Margaret Dillman, Miss Beulah Stewart, Miss Marjorie Caulfield, Miss Lenora Beatie and Miss Margaret Beatie.

MOTHER STUDENT IN SCHOOL WITH SON

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—An unusual companionship between mother and son was ended last night when S. M. Collins, a freshman in the University of Illinois, died in his home here. The mother was also a student in the same classes with her boy. They were registered in the School of Agriculture.

When young Collins was preparing to go to the university last Fall, his mother said: "I'll go with you."

In Champaign they lived in the same house; had adjoining seats in the classrooms; studied together and attended university functions and theatres together.

The companionship attracted wide attention in the university where the two became known to the students as "the pals," and the boy as the "model son." Mrs. Collins will not return to her studies.

The horse which was purchased in this city Tuesday was left hitched to the owner at Eighth and Harrison that night and the next day. A report was made to Miss Anita McCarver, president of the Humane Society, and she at once made an investigation. It was found that the horse could not recover and Mr. Wilkinson was asked to kill it. The man who bought the animal is believed to have come to the conclusion he made a poor bargain and abandoned it.

Two ill men were cared for in the jail by Dr. Norris and one runaway boy was turned over to the juvenile court in Portland. ## C. HARTMAN GIVEN RING BY HOSE COMPANY

Fountain Hose Company No. 1 held its regular monthly meeting Thursday evening and a large and enthusiastic crowd, including visitors from every company in the city, was present.

C. Hartman, an ex-chief of the fire department, and the veteran treasurer of the company, was present, and was agreeably surprised by the presentation to him by the company, of an elegant gold ring as a testimonial of appreciation of his services to the company. Mr. Hartman replied in a well-timed speech, expressing his gratitude to the firemen.

The alteration and improvement of the rooms occupied by the Fountain and the Hook and Ladder Company was discussed. Joseph Lynch of the Columbia Hook and Ladder Company the chairman of the committee to interview the mayor and council in this line, announced that he had done before the council and succeeded in obtaining an appropriation of $411.75 for defraying the expense of remodeling and furnishing the new quarters to be used jointly by both companies and that the estimated cost would be $600, the members of the committee from both companies pledging in behalf of those whom they represented, to make up the balance, the work to start forthwith. F. B. Schoenborn was nominated for chief at the coming election, and Louis Nobel Jr., as commissioner. At the close of the meeting, all adjourned to the banquet hall where an elaborate spread of good solid and liquid refreshments was served.

Speeches were made, old songs were sung, and a five-piece orchestra rendered the latest music.

From the reports of the fighting to the north of the peninsula of Gallipoli it can be seen that one column of King Ferdinand's troops is marching straight for the city of Gallipoli. It has occupied already the villages of Charkeul, Kavak and Bulair, which are on the neck of the peninsula. It has not, however, come into contact with any large force of Turkish troops of which there are said to be 70,000 on the Gallipoli Peninsula. The guns of the Dardanelles forts also can be trained toward the land side.

TURKISH ARMY ROUTED BY ALLIES

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Feb. 6.—The Turkish army occupying the Peninsula of Gallipoli and defending the Dardanelles suffered a defeat at the hands of the Bulgarian troops to the south of the River Kavak Wednesday, according to a statement by the Bulgarian War Office.

The Ottoman troops are said to be retreating in disorder toward Bulair, a small town to the northeast of the city of Gallipoli, pursued by the Bulgarians.

The statement concludes that as the result of this success of the Bulgarian troops the whole coast of the Sea of Marmora as far as Bulair is now in the hands of the Balkan allies.

The main object of the Bulgarian armies, apart from the reduction of the fortress of Adrianople, was disclosed in dispatches given out by the War Office Thursday. The plan is to reach the Dardanelles Strait and clear them for the passage of the Greek fleet into the Sea of Marmora. Then the Greeks will attack Constantinople directly from the sea.
