

CORRESPONDENCE

EAGLE CREEK

Mrs. Roy Douglass visited with Mrs. R. B. Gibson Tuesday afternoon...

John Chornley of Portland, a nephew of Mrs. Huntington, his sister and husband, were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Huntington.

Last Wednesday evening a crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass and spent the evening with them.

Sunday being Mrs. Howlett's seventy-second birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodie are children, Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass and Mrs. R. B. Gibson took dinner with her and Mr. Howlett in honor of the occasion.

The farmers are getting some of the plowing done.

MACKSBURG.

Though the rainy season is still on and February has just opened, there is much to tell us that winter has loosened his grasp.

SHIL, the news of progress on the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railroad tells that we are not long to live in our present isolation and the regular sound of the mill whistles shows us there is no abatement of activity in those industries.

The Eby school opened on Wednesday, Jan. 29th. The children of that district are getting over the complaints that made it necessary to close the school.

The Marchburger children are showing decided improvement and no new cases of scarlatina have appeared.

The little daughter of Geo. Walsh, who have had whooping cough, are so far recovered that they are hoping to be back in school on Monday, Feb. 10th.

Sel Strubhar has improved so much in the last few days that he hopes to take the cream route again next week.

Frank Hilton and Will Roth are improving their places materially by putting up new wire fences.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilton, with their children, were guests of Mr. Hilton's father, at Needy on Sunday.

A. A. Baldwin was in Portland on business last Saturday.

Miss Margaret Zenger is still very ill in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kraxberger have gone to Pasadena, Cal., to spend the remainder of the winter.

Geo. Scramlin took in the Retail Grocers' Convention at Albany last week.

Billy Miller is taking the short course in agriculture at Corvallis.

Ed Kraxberger is working for his uncle, Ferdinand Kraxberger.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Baldwin took dinner with Mrs. Baldwin, Sr., on Sunday, at the Home ranch.

The Boesche children, also those of Rudolph Klaus, are recovering from the whooping cough.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hilton, who was alarmingly ill of pneumonia last week, is much better.

The dance at the Verein hall on the night of Feb. 1st, was largely attended and greatly enjoyed by the young people.

Mrs. Nass, with her children, left last week for New Orleans, to remain for the rest of the winter.

LOGAN.

Local signs say early spring. We hope so at least.

We are glad to learn that little Jack Costello, the 3 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Costello, of this place, who fell on or cut himself in the side with a knife very badly and near fatally will soon be able to leave the hospital and be brought home.

Mrs. Storm is very sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Niel Smith, being very old, her recovery is doubtful.

The tangles are about straightened out of the telephone lines again.

The Creamery building will be lighted with two large alcohol lamps soon.

Quite a fair appropriation was caused Monday by a terrific explosion that jarred houses as well as nerves, near the lower Logan school, for awhile it was thought a meteor had fallen, but was a heavy charge of dynamite set off by a fellow in the road.

"The New View of Education," is the subject on which Rev. C. C. Poling of Portland will lecture in the interest of the school at Harding Grange Hall Saturday, February 15 at 2 o'clock.

Miss Anna Bachman, principal of Lower Logan school is arranging a program which will be given by pupils of her school and also Upper Logan and Stone. Parents, pupils and everybody welcome. This is one of a series of lectures arranged by State Superintendent Alderman and the first one for this place.

M. H. Riehoff is preparing to launch forth in the mercantile business and is preparing to erect a suitable building for the purpose. We wish him success in his new venture.

Mrs. T. E. Anderson is having the grippe.

Saturday, February 1st, Harding Grange held its regular meeting, about forty were out. A resolution urging our legislators to aid in keeping independent telephone systems from the monopoly of the Bell Telephone Co., also one in regard to the Panama Fair appropriation. That meat inspection bill received a grilling also. If said measure became a law it would decrease the supply from the farmers and discourage the raising of animals for meat. Anyone with goggles on or off can see what interests lie behind that measure. The one that would control and set prices.

If you saw it in the Enterprise it's so.

Questions for Feb. 9

(Copyright, 1911, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)

God's Covenant with Noah. Gen. vii:1-3:17. Golden Text—1 do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth. Gen. ix:13

(1) Verses 1-3—What is the proof that God never forgets and that we may absolutely trust in his promises? (This may be one of the questions that may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(2) Does God control the winds and the waters in any direct way or other than by natural laws?

(3) Verses 4-5—Did the ark rest upon the mountains of Ararat by the steering of Noah or by the guidance of God? Why?

(4) Do the chief events in our lives come about by our own plans or through the providence of God? Give your reasons.

(5) Verses 6-12—Why did God not tell Noah in advance when the flood should cease, seeing he had told him to a day when it should commence?

(6) What reason is there to believe that a true Christian may depend that God will tell him in advance what it is necessary for him what it is better not to know till the events transpire?

(7) What means did Noah adopt to find out if the waters were drying up?

(8) Seeing God could reveal to us every item concerning our affairs, present and future, why does he so arrange that we have to find out for ourselves just as if there were no God?

(9) Verses 13-19—With what kind of feeling would Noah and his family likely to greet the dry land after seeing nothing but water for months?

(10) How long were Noah and his family in the ark?

(11) Verses 20-22—What would you say is the foundation of civilized society?

(12) What was it that Noah did which pleased God so much, and why is God pleased with us when we worship him and deny ourselves to help others?

(13) What was the covenant that God made with Noah?

(14) What is the covenant which God makes with all who trust him?

(15) What can we depend upon with greater certainty than day and night and the recurring seasons of the year?

(16) Chap. ix:1—What is the chief value of a large population?

(17) Which families, large or small, are generally better off and have the greater average amount of happiness?

(18) Verse 2—How do you account for it that man dominates the entire brute creation?

(19) Verses 3-5—If man, as it appears, had been a vegetarian for 1,656 years, why did God now arrange for him to be a meat eater?

(20) Verse 6—If Jesus were an earthly legislator would he vote to do away with capital punishment? Why?

(21) Verses 7-17—What sign did God appoint as the token of his covenant with Noah and what sign did Jesus set up as the sign of our covenant with God?

Lesson for Sunday, Feb. 16, 1913, The Call of Abram. Gen. xii:1-9.

FORUM OF THE PEOPLE

roe Street and adjoining another half block of his property clean from dirt he ignored the legal notice of the council and defied them to build a retaining wall along that side of the street where needed. And except for a narrow trough-like path through the dirt, which path has been made and kept clean by the city itself, this walk as well as the street itself would have been utterly impassible during this entire winter for men, women and children. But of course this does not affect him very much as he can ride to and from his office in the car in comfort from his Gladstone home while men who must leave their homes for the mills before daylight in the morning and return after dark at night are required to wade through mud or go around some other way as a result of his attitude.

Again, he tries to make it appear that his whole block is practically confiscated by street improvements, but let us see. He formerly asked $4,000 with no street improvements. He now asks $4,000 or $4,500 and pays no street improvements. (By the way we believe he is too high by several hundred dollars on the "approximate $4,000 cost of improvements" and is assessed less on Monroe Street lots than his neighbors who have corresponding but less desirable lots.)

Verily the undertaker of whom he so sympathetically speaks can still afford at the valuations above set by the owner himself, to furnish very respectable appointments and have a fair margin left. It will fall to his civic committee, it appears to us, to provide other condolences.

Again, he almost dramatically deplores the fact that the council did not listen to his advice, etc., etc. Aye, there's the rub! The progressive-wide-awake citizens of this naturally beautiful and noted city by the Willamette are no longer willing to listen to those whose policy toward improvements in Oregon City has left her a half century or more behind her sister cities in matters of civic growth and progress. Every member of the city council expresses his loyalty and love for Oregon City and his faith in her present and future by owning his own home and living in it in Oregon City and every one of which homes is kept in good condition and reflects credit upon the city. Every councilman is a taxpayer in this city also and contributes very liberally of his time and efforts to the civic welfare and progress of the city and community. X. Y. Z. The word "cab." The word "cab," which is a contraction of "cabriolet," was not used until 1823.

BROWNELL TO ADDRESS NEW CHURCH ORDER LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY TO BE OBSERVED. A new church brotherhood has been organized in Oregon City. It is under the auspices of the First Methodist Church. Charles F. Hageman is the president, and J. L. Swafford is the secretary. Other officers have been elected. This brotherhood will give its first regular monthly banquet Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. A program has been arranged which includes music, addresses and the social features. George C. Brownell will deliver the principal address. The banquet will be served by the Ladies Aid Society in the parlors of the church. If it happened it is in the Enterprise.

MISS STELLA CROSS DELIGHTFUL HOSTESS. Miss Stella Cross was the hostess at a pretty card party at the home of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Burke in Gladstone Friday evening. Miss Cross entertained the members of the Younger Set at 500 and was assisted by Mrs. Burke. The beautiful new Burke bungalow was artistically decorated. The honors of the evening were awarded to Miss Alice Moore, where the next meeting of the club will be held at her home. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were Misses Madge Brightbill, Florence Grace, Irene Hanny, Genevieve Cappen, Alice Moore, Mary Ross, Marian Pickens, Evelyn Harding, Francis Cross, Edna Holman and Stella Cross, Mrs. Burke.
