HOW TO MAKE IT all counties in GOOD COYOTES

The Northwest would follow the precedent set by the commissioners of Clearwater County, Idaho, in offering a bounty of $4 each on coyotes killed within the boundaries of the county, there might soon be a dearth of that pestiferous animal.

W. E. King took to Lewiston this week the carcass of a coyote which he had poisoned in a novel way. Mr. King says it is next to impossible to trap coyotes, so wary are they of traps. Mr. King's method, if not original, is at least so new that it has not become known among coyotes of this section, and it is so fatal that not one, so far as known, has lived to spread the alarm among his fellows. Mr. King said: "I take a fresh egg, make a small hole in the shell with a nail or other pointed instrument, insert the poison through the opening, and then glue a piece of paper over the hole. I then bury the egg for a scent. The coyotes grab the egg out of its snowy hiding place and swallow it with a relish, as coyotes like eggs that are worth 40 cents a dozen as well as people do. The poison in the egg soon makes a good coyote of him."

MAIN STREET SHOULD HAVE CLUSTER LIGHTS

The announcement made by Frank Busch to the council that he will place cluster lights in front of his place of business is encouraging. Mr. Busch has always worked hard for the advancement of the city. It is time that cluster lights should be placed along Main Street and if other merchants are as much alive to the interests of the city they will be. Cluster lights will make a lighter city at night. They will give the city a metropolitan appearance. Mr. Busch is a leader in a great movement. The other merchants must follow his example or admit that he is far ahead of them. As we understand it the installation of the lights will not cost much and their upkeep will be comparatively small. And, incidentally, we would like to ask, is Frank Busch the only live merchant in Oregon City? We do not think so. Hence Main Street soon will be lined with cluster lights. If it isn't we miss our guess.

MRS. BURKE GIVES RECITAL TONIGHT

The musicale-recital to be given at the Gladstone church Thursday evening, under the direction of Mrs. T. A. Burke, promises to be a most excellent entertainment. Mrs. Burke, who has been a pupil of Mrs. Nieta Barlow Lawrence of this city for the past two years, has been most fortunate in securing the assistance of that lady in several of the numbers on the program. The quartet arrangement of the famous "Sextette from Lucia" will be one of the featured numbers and will be sung by Mrs. T. A. Burke, soprano, Mrs. Lawrence, contralto, Mr. Burke, tenor and Mr. Sault, bass. Mrs. Burke will appear in several solo numbers. Mr. Garland Hollowell will be heard in two beautiful tenor solos, and Prof. Fletcher, of Oregon City, will render two violin numbers. All the vocalists are pupils of Mrs. Lawrence with the exception of Mr. Burke, who formerly was a pupil of Prof. I. M. Glen of Eugene, and for four years was a member of the State University Glee Club, which annually tours the state. During 1910 and 1911 Mr. Burke was chosen leader of that organization. Miss Sadye Ford, one of Oregon City's most talented musicians, will be the accompanist for the evening for both the instrumental and vocal numbers.

The program, as published below, will begin promptly at 8:15, or very soon after the arrival of the 9 o'clock car from Oregon City. Through the courtesy of the Wiley B. Allen Company a special piano will be used for the musicale. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged, the proceeds to go to the Sunday school of the Gladstone church. Seats may be secured at the Jones Drug Company. The program follows:

- 1. Tannhauser March Wagner Mrs. Flechtner. 2. Look Down Dear Eyes, Howard Fisher Mr. and Mrs. Burke. 3. For All Eternity Mascheroni Mr. Hollowell. 4. (a) Flower Song from "Faust" Gounod (b) O Mio Fernando Prof. "La Favoriet" Donizetti Mrs. Burke. 5. Passage-Birds Farewell Hildach Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Lawrence. 6. Cavatina J. R. Mr. Flechtner. 7. Sextette "Lucia" (quartet arrangement) Donizetti Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Lawrence, Mr. Gault, Mr. Burke. 8. Awake Pellissier Mr. Hollowell. 9. "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" from Sampson and Delilah, Saint Saens Mrs. Burke. 10. Marguerite Waltz (Faust) Gounod Mr. Flechtner. 11. Quartette "Good Night" Pinguete Mrs. Burke, Mrs. Lawrence, Mr. Gault, Mr. Burke.

MORGAN DENIES HE IS SERIOUSLY ILL

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Direct denial from J. P. Morgan of reports that he was critically ill at Cairo, Egypt, was received here today by H. P. Davison, a junior member of the banking firm of which Morgan is the head.

"We called Cairo," Davison said this afternoon, "when we heard the report, and have just received Mr. Morgan's answer. He said he had entirely recovered from an attack of indigestion, and had changed his plans to return to Italy. "Mr. Morgan will remain in Cairo at least until the steamer Adriatic arrives. This should set at rest all reports of his critical illness." Earlier cable reports of the serious illness of J. Pierpont Morgan were discredited by Mr. Davison. "The story," he said, "is exaggerated. I heard directly from Mr. Morgan yesterday. He said he had suffered a severe attack of indigestion, and considered the advisability of going to Rome, but had recovered rapidly and decided to remain in Cairo. I don't believe Mr. Morgan sailed on the Caronia." The stock market was dull and weak today, traders being inclined to await further reports on the condition of Mr. Morgan. United States Steel sold down to 60 7/8, a low record for the year.

VALENTINE PARTY IN GLADSTONE BIG SUCCESS

One of the most charming of the numerous affairs given in honor of St. Valentine was the dinner party by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Read Saturday evening at their attractive home in Gladstone. After a delicious dinner covers being laid for twelve, the evening was spent in games and valentines. The rooms were decorated with hearts and valentines. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Amuly, Miss Aida Hurlbut, Miss Amelia Mitchell, Miss Mina Mulkey, Miss Hilda Tooze, John Mulkey, John Slevers, Charles Slevers and John Cooper.

General Daniel E. Sickles Under Fire From Many Sides

Copyright by American Press Association.

GENERAL DANIEL E. SICKLES, the aged veteran of the civil war, was under fire at his own Waterloo recently when he was arrested on a charge of misappropriating $23,476 from the state of New York. He was alleged to have used this amount of the funds of the Gettysburg monument commission for his own use while chairman of that body. A bond of $30,000 was secured for General Sickles, and a popular movement was started to subscribe the amount of his shortage because of the part he had played in the war and particularly at Gettysburg, where he lost a leg. The case of trouble was particularly stormy for the aged general. His wife, who was separated from him, had helped him out financially before and offered to do so this time on conditions he would not meet.

TURK LEADER IS WOUNDED BY OWN MEN

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Turkish soldiers early today attempted to assassinate, and succeeding in badly wounding, Enver Bey, the young Turk leader.

A News Agency dispatch by wireless from Constantinople says that Enver Bey was stabbed severely several times but gives no further details. Enver Bey made a disastrous effort last week to pierce the flanks of the Bulgarian army on the shores of the Sea of Marmosa, with a forlorn hope of Ottoman troops, who were beaten back with terrible losses. He was one of the leaders in the recent revolt of the Young Turks, which led to a renewal of the war between Turkey and the Balkan States. Several threats against his life had been made among the dissatisfied soldiers, who were aroused by the assassination of Nazim Pasha, their beloved commander-in-chief. Enver was a prominent military leader in the war in Tripoli and was called by European experts "the best soldier in the Turkish army."

ROOTS' FREE CANAL PLAN IS DEFEATED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Senator Root's proposed amendment to the Panama Canal law to repeal the provision giving free passage to American coastwise ships was rejected today by the Senate committee on inter-oceanic canals. A motion to table it carried, seven to three, Senators Brandegee, Page and Percy opposing.

The decision of the committee, it is believed, will prevent action in the Senate at this session. No report will be made and there will be no opportunity for supporters of the Root amendment to put in a minor finding.

B. T. M'BAIN IS SUFFERER OF GRIP

B. T. M'Bain, mill manager of the Willamette Pulp & Paper Company, and president of the Oregon City Commercial Club, is seriously ill. Mr. M'Bain is confined to his home with the grip and the chances are he will not be able to attend to his duties at the mill for several days. In the meantime E. Kenneth Stanton is in charge of the work at the mill. Mr. M'Bain taxed his strength by attending several strenuous sessions of the Oregon Legislature.

bill, recommended that the Naval Militia be abolished; Senator Carson completely "whitewashed" it, recommending that it stand as it now is, and Joseph, in accordance with his bill, recommended that the Naval Militia be kept but be taken out of the hands of the officers of the Oregon National Guards. Dimick's fight was perhaps the hottest of all. He scored the institution as a useless and wasteful burden on the taxpayers, and made a hard but futile attempt to have his report substituted for the others. The final vote killed his report and adopted Carson's, twenty-one to nine. Joseph then moved to indefinitely postpone the Dimick bill to abolish the Naval Militia. This was done by a little larger vote, although Joseph's bill to take the Naval Militia out of the hands of the National Guard was also practically beaten by the same vote. Dimick said he would not retaliate by moving the indefinite postponement of that.

Efficient Publicity Is the Best Way to Cure Trust Evils

By HERBERT KNOX SMITH, Former United States Commissioner of Corporations

cause of the fear of prosecution, but was due to the fact that the railroads could not stand up against public opinion based upon authoritative facts. We recognized one fact—there is only one means of publicity, and that is the NEWSPAPERS. There was no use issuing volumes of statistics and figures which nobody was interested in and would not read. The facts, as in the case of the Standard Oil rebates, had to be boiled down from three hundred pages or more of manuscript to two thousand five hundred words of READABLE MATTER—about two columns in a newspaper. These were sent out for release on a certain day, and it is safe to say that five million people saw the headlines. That was what we called EFFICIENT PUBLICITY. We found that publicity, based on concrete facts coming before the people from an authoritative source, was the BEST AND SAFEST CURE FOR CERTAIN EVILS. That was the history of the Standard Oil rebates. Six months after our report had been given publicity through the newspapers every railroad concerned had CANCELED EVERY RATE THAT WE OBJECTED TO AS ILLEGAL. And that was not be-
