MADERO FORCED FROM PRESIDENCY

MAN WHO OVERTHREW DIAZ, FIRST, PLACED UNDER ARREST

CABINET ALSO UNDER RESTRAINT

Huerta Named Head of Mexican Government But There is Great Demand for Another Man

LARERO, Tex., Feb. 18.—When informed by a representative of the Associated Press that the Madero government had been overthrown and General Huerta named provisional president, Colonel Pascual Orozco, Sr., and Colonel Andras Garza Gallan, revolutionary leaders in the north of Mexico, declared the revolutionists in that section would not approve the selection of Huerta and would continue the rebellion unless another is chosen to manage the affairs of Mexico, preferably Senor de la Barra or General Geronimo Trevino.

Francisco I. Madero has been forced out of the presidency. He was arrested at the national palace shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon by General Blanquet. Subsequently he signed his resignation.

General Victoriano Huerta, commander of the federal troops, was proclaimed provisional president.

About the time Madero was seized by Blanquet, Gustavo Madero, his brother, the ex-minister of finance, was arrested by General Huerta, who was dining with him in a quiet restaurant.

All members of the cabinet promptly were placed under arrest with the exception of Ernesto Madero, the uncle of the president, who held the portfolio of finance. He was arrested at the intentions against the Madero government and made his escape.

The secret move against Madero was the result of a plot which had been brewing since yesterday.

From the first it had been known that General Blanquet was unwilling to fight. His men were of the same mind. He held complete command of them, and it was not doubted they would follow him in any adventure, which they did at the national palace this afternoon.

IMMIGRATION BILL PASSED OVER VETO

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Overriding President Taft's veto the Senate today passed by 72 to 18 the Dillingham-Burnett immigration bill containing a literacy test. Those who supported the President's veto were Clayton, Clarke of Arkansas, Curtis, Gronna, Dupont, O'Gorman, Oliver, Paynter, Shively, Stephenson, Stone and Warren.

The bill as passed provides that no person shall be eligible to enter the United States who cannot read and write his native language. It is expected to exclude hordes of coolies and other cheap labor.

CANEMAH PLANS NEW LIGHTING SYSTEM

If the plans of the Canemah Progressive League carried out, the little city above the falls will soon be transformed into one of the best lighted cities in the state. At a meeting of the league which was held Tuesday evening the question was explained by H. L. Young, Oregon City representative of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company. Lake A. May, R. C. Gannon and Charles C. Spencer were named as a committee by President S. L. Stevens to take up the matter. They will report at the next meeting.

HIGH SCHOOL TO HAVE SHOW AT THEATRE

The Senior Class of the Oregon City High School will give an entertainment at the Star Theatre for the Hesperian benefit on Friday evening, February 21. The program will be in connection with the regular vaudeville act and three reels of pictures. The High School Mandolin Club will render several selections and the High School Glee Club will sing. WAGE FIGHT IS WON BY THE MILLS

AMENDMENT ALLOWS THREE INSTEAD OF TWO HOURS OVERTIME

W. A. DIMICK MAKES GREAT FIGHT

Action Puts an End for at Least Year of Biggest Battle for Mill Workers

SALEM, Feb. 18.—(Special.)—In spite of vigorous protests of Senator Dimick, the Senate today amended the ten-hour bill so that it will allow three instead of two hours overtime a day, for which time and a half instead of double time must be paid. The bill passed the Senate in this condition and will go to the House for that body to concur in the amendment inasmuch as the supporters of the bill realize this is the best they could do there is little doubt but the House will concur. The bill will then go to the Governor for his signature and no opposition is expected from that source.

Strenuous lobby work by the paper mill men has been done since the Schuebel ten hour bill came out of the committee last week on three reports. At that time the report accepted was by Chairman Smith, of the Industries Committee recommending that two hours overtime be allowed each day for which double time should be paid. Failing to have the bill adopted in its original form Senator Dimick at that time supported the Smith amendment and was instrumental in having the report adopted with nineteen votes in its favor.

Today the bill came up for final passage. Joseph moved to go into committee of the whole for the purpose of amending the bill. Dimick declared this was only an attempt on the part of the Portland man to kill the measure, and strenuously opposed the motion. He was overrudden, however, and Joseph's motion to change from double time to time and a half, and from two to three hours was carried.

It was explained that this latter change would, in the case of the Oregon City paper mills, only have the effect of allowing an eleven and a thirteen hour shift instead of two shifts of twelve hours each, on the grounds that this was an arrangement between employer and employee.

On final roll call seventeen senators voted in favor of the bill as amended. Nineteen had favored it on the adoption of the Smith report but Carson switched to the other side and Perkins was absent, leaving seventeen in favor of the bill.

If signed by the Governor this act will take effect in May of this year. This practically marks an end for this season at least, of the ten-hour fight. For every session in the past eight years some bill of this sort have been before the Legislature, but in every instance have failed. The burden of the fighting this year has been in the Senate. No great opposition was offered in the House when the Schuebel bill was passed, and the amendments in the Senate are regarded as the best compromise obtainable.

The eight-hour bill of Dimick's has been defeated in the Senate and today's action probably marks an end of the matter for this session. Senator Dimick was today responsible for the defeat of a House bill creating the Board of Public Accountancy and providing for certified public accountants. This had been defeated in the House, reconsidered and passed. Dimick opposed it on the grounds that it was intended to form monopoly in the auditing business.

The expected break in the House organization came late Monday night when Eaton of Eugene flayed Olson and Upton, members of the organization, for "steam roller" work in connection with one of his resolutions, and was shown again this morning when the House, in spite of the recommendations of the Public Lands Committee, refused to indefinitely postpone Representative Gill's bill to repeal the Thompson swamp land act. This latter act was passed over the veto of the Governor early in the session. The Governor and Gill shortly afterward introduced a bill to repeal the law. Once before the Governor sent in a message "juggling" the memories of the members of the bill. Yesterday he sent in another when the committee report was read. By a vote of 29 to 28 the House refused to postpone the bill. The members stood practically the same as in the Eaton fight the night before. The entire Clackamas County delegation hung together against the "Machine."

The House went into its night session this evening with the intention of clearing its own calendar before adjournment. It will probably be in session until early in the morning. Sometime during the night session the fight over the state printer is scheduled to come up. The printing committee will report favorably on the Smith bill for a contract system of printing and report back without recommendation the Abbott bill for a revision of rates.

The printers' flat salary law passed in 1911, which would have taken effect in 1913, was repealed in the House today.

Smith to Preach.

Rev. E. A. Smith will preach at Willamette Wednesday evening. It is probable that his Russian friend, Mr. Myttoi will sing one number during the evening. EXPERT SAYS POETRY NOW IS DISTINCTIVE

"New Poetry" was the subject of an interesting address Tuesday evening by Dr. Coleman, professor of English literature at Reed College, at the banquet of the Congregational Brotherhood. Dr. Coleman declared that the poetry of the present day was of a distinctive type. He said that 500 years ago the poets wrote of women and 300 years ago of war, while 100 years ago the chief theme was nature. Now the theme of poets, he said, is men. The lecture was highly interesting, but the speaker was unable to prove that poetry is being better written than ever before. Rev. George Nelson Edwards, pastor of the church, spoke on "Current Events." E. F. Smith, of Parkplace, Rev. Jones, of Parkplace and H. E. Cross, of Gladstone, spoke. Mr. Cross spoke on "Pioneers and Their Sons" and declared that the sons did not achieve the great results that the pioneers had achieved. F. J. Tooz and Grant B. Dimick made short addresses.

FARMER HAS LIVELY MAIN STREET RACE

Frank Catho, a farmer living a few miles east of this city, was arrested Tuesday afternoon on a charge of disturbing the peace. Catho, who was in a partially intoxicated condition, got into his buggy on Main Street near Seventh and whipped his horse until it started down the street at a lively gallop. At Tenth Street he turned around and started up the street, but was stopped by Chief of Police Shaw and placed under arrest. After much pleading and a promise not to commit the offense again he was released.

MEADE POST PAYS TRIBUTE TO CHENEY

At a meeting in Willamette Hall Saturday Meade Post paid the following tribute to the late comrade Oran A. Cheney: "Another member of our most noble and patriotic organization has been summoned before the Great White Throne to render an account of his earthly stewardship. Oran B. Cheney, who died at the residence of his son in Portland, February 1, 1913, was for many years an honored member of this post, filling many positions of trust, and always faithfully and cheerfully discharging any duty assigned him. Comrade Cheney was a gallant soldier, and exemplary citizen, a faithful husband, a kind and indulgent father and was highly esteemed by all with whom he came in contact. He enlisted in the early part of the war in Company H, 12th Wisconsin infantry and served throughout the war with honor and distinction to himself and to the great state he represented until the close of the rebellion. At the close of the war he followed the profession of journalism, his ready and forceful pen being always wielded in the interest and welfare of the common people. During his residence in Oregon City he bore an honorable and unimpeachable reputation. Comrade Cheney lived a long and useful life, and his kindly face will ever be pleasantly remembered by all members of the post. To the surviving relatives and many friends of our deceased comrade, the post tenders its sincerest sympathies."

E. T. FIELDS DIES; SUFFERED LONG

STATION AGENT FOR SOUTHERN PACIFIC, BRIGHT'S DISEASE VICTIM

SERVED COMPANY FOR 20 YEARS

Deceased Survived by Wife, Daughter and Mother—Funeral to be Held Thursday Afternoon

E. T. Fields, one of Oregon City's most prominent men, died at his home at Twelfth and Main Streets Tuesday morning at 5 o'clock after a lingering illness of Bright's disease. He had been ill about a year and a half, but had been confined to his home only about two months. Last Spring he made a trip to California with the hope of improving his health, but only temporary relief was obtained and his condition was realized as being very critical soon after his return. Mr. Fields suffered a great deal during his illness. He was a member of the Southern Pacific Railroad for 20 years. He was born in Canemah in 1867, and had lived in or near Oregon City all his life and for many years he was connected with the Southern Pacific Railroad. For the past 23 years he was agent of the railroad at this place, and through his kindly and courteous treatment of the public he made a host of friends who will regret to hear of his death. He was prominent in many local enterprises, being a member of the Oregon City Lodge of Elks and the Knights of Pythias.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Josie Sinsheimer Fields, his daughter, Miss Clara Fields, both of this city, his mother, Mrs. Clara Fields, of Canemah and a brother, Clarence Fields, of Medford. Chief of Police Shaw and Mrs. C. D. Latourette are consins of the deceased. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday at the Elks' Club, Rev. C. W. Robinson officiating.

Owing to the death of Mr. Fields the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Knights of Pythias which was to have been held this evening in the Woodman Hall, will not be held and only the regular meeting will take place. This meeting was to have been an open one to members of the Knights of Pythias and their families, but instead only the closed meeting will be held.

FIRE COMPANY NO. 4 ELECTS OFFICERS

Members of Fire Company No. 4 held a regular meeting and annual election of officers at the home Monday evening. After the meeting there was a banquet and a general good time, at which members of the company as well as all other firemen of Oregon City were present. At the meeting the candidacy of C. Gottberg for chief of the department was advanced and members of his company stated that they believed that their company should have the chief of the department this year as they have not had it for 17 years. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Merle (Babe) Elliott, president; George Roberts, secretary; George Everhart, treasurer; and Harry Brady, foreman. The meeting was largely attended and a general good time was had by all.

LIVE WIRES URGE NAMING OF PARKS

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS OPENING OF PRIVATE SEWER INTO RIVER

PLANTING OF TREES ADVOCATED

Resolution of Sympathy to Family of E. T. Fields is Adopted—Civic Work is Advocated

The report of the Civic Committee of the Live Wires was received at the regular weekly luncheon Tuesday afternoon. The report is as follows: "Several sub-committees have been appointed, among which is one on sewers and parks. An incomplete sewer opening into the gulch at the head of Monroe Street has been complained of as being excessively malodorous and has been inspected by the committee. We understand that the council intends to have this sewer district completed as soon as the weather conditions permit, and we heartily endorse this action. The committee also recommends that a private sewer opening into the Willamette just north of the suspension bridge at least be constructed so as to open into the stream below the water level.

"Increased activity in regard to the parks is to be noted in the papers. The immediate future is considered a good time to plant the necessary ornamental trees in the undeveloped park near the High school at the corner of Jackson and Twelfth Streets, as these trees can get in several years' growth in anticipation of the time when this park will be more fully developed. It has been suggested that as the elevator will shortly be in operation, a fence of proper construction be erected along the upper edge of the bluff and that some sort of parking along this natural promenade and beauty spot be arranged.

"The committee in its weekly meetings is gradually maturing plans for increased activities and again asks the hearty cooperation of not only the Live Wires but of all progressive citizens who are interested in a clean and more beautiful Oregon City. The above report is a continuation of reports that have been made in the past to the Live Wires, and the details have been sent to the Health and Police Committees of the council and to the Woman's Club.

A resolution of sympathy was ordered sent to the family of the late E. T. Fields, who was a member of the Commercial Club. The sympathy of the Live Wires was also extended to B. T. McEain, who is ill.

T. W. Sullivan read a letter from Woodrow Wilson's secretary, in which he acknowledged the receipt of a letter from the Live Wires in which Judge Beattie was urged for United States Marshal.

The work of the Civic Committee was approved and the committee commended for its work. F. A. Olmstead, secretary of the Association of Chemists, stated that there would be a meeting of the chemists at the East Side Library in Portland in the near future in the interests of pure water and that the various committees on pure water in this city were cordially invited to attend.

BOWERMAN'S SON KILLED.

Sad are circumstances that surrounded it was the accident at the Knickerbocker, Portland, which resulted in the death of Tom Bowerman, son of Jay Bowerman. While his father was away at Salem and his mother paying a call, the lad was crushed between the elevator and the wall.
