ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS. (From noon today to noon tomorrow.) Sun sets 5:40, rises 6:48. Evening star, Venus. Morning stars: Jupiter, Mars.

GRANGE TO DISCUSS THE MAPLE IMPORTANT SUBJECT Lane Grange at its meeting next Saturday, will discuss a subject of vital importance to Oregon City. The subject will be, "Are the Farmers Under Moral Obligation to Patronize Home Merchants?" If the farmers, or the grangers, decide that they should not patronize home merchants, the merchants of Oregon City will be the sufferers. It therefore behooves the merchants of this city and other workers for the advancement of the municipality to be present and try to show the grangers that the Oregon City merchants should be given the preference. There are many reasons why this should be done. In the first place they give better values than the Portland merchants. They can do it for their expenses are less. In the second place the purchasing from them will aid the entire county. Surely patriotism is not a back number in the great county of Clackamas. In the third place, if better values were offered in Portland, the expense of going there would be too much. Farmers and grangers, we urge you to help those who help you! Help Portland if you want to, it is all right, but don't you think Oregon City should have your trade?

Some men are so sensitive about cause and effect that they don't want anybody to mention that fire will burn, water drown, or a misplaced switch make trouble.

Pocketbook of the Wife Our Most Serious Problem

By JAMES J. HILL, Railroad Builder of the Northwest

IN the growth of the American republic we have regarded the tariff as of serious importance. We have political questions which seriously disturb business situations.

BUT THERE IS NOTHING MORE IMPORTANT IN THIS NATION OR THE LIFE OF ANY OTHER NATION THAN THE POCKETBOOK OF THE WIFE.

We do not produce as much as we might, BECAUSE MEN AND WOMEN ARE LAZY WITH FARM LAND and do not take the best advantage of their opportunity. If they did beef would be cheaper, flour much lower in price and the green vegetable supply far greater than at the present time.

Yet there is another point to be considered, a point which I have considered for more than forty years in developing a railway system, and that is how wisely or how ignorantly the woman of the farm, the wife, HANDLES THE POCKETBOOK which is under her control.

The original question of social economics which we have to consider at the present time is not the tariff or the finances of one of the richest governments in the world, but THE POCKETBOOK OF THE WIFE. I emphatically state that I do not mean the pocketbook of the husband, the earning factor of the family, but the pocketbook of the wife, who has THE HOME AND THE CHILDREN UNDER HER CONTROL.

BOURNE WINS FIGHT FOR BIG POSTOFFICE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The subcommittee of the Senate Building Committee has agreed today to report favorably Senator Bourne's amendment to the public building bill appropriation of $1,000,000 for a postoffice building in Portland. Senator Bourne made a strong argument before the committee, explaining the great congestion in the postoffice, due to the rapid growth of Portland and the Northwest.

The committee finally said it was convinced an emergency existed, and accepted Bourne's amendment. It also agreed to report favorably Bourne's amendment increasing the appropriation for The Dalles of $24,000, and an amendment introduced by Chamberlain adding $10,000 to the appropriation for the Albany Building.

FOREST PLANS ARE TO BE OPPOSED

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 19.—The first attempt to place the Washington Legislature on record as opposed to the system of conducting the United States national forests will be made this week when a memorial, introduced in the Senate this morning asking the government to withdraw the national forests of Lewis and Clark, is brought up for passage. Behind this measure are the majority of the Representatives from the agricultural districts. The memorial, which is directed at Congress, sets forth that the forest reserves are a menace to the development of the agricultural territory of the West. Forest service officials are denounced bitterly.

A bill was introduced in the Senate this morning creating a State Highway Department to have control of all the highway work of the state. A bill was passed by the Senate creating a Bureau of Farm Development to conduct experiments along scientific lines in the various counties. The president of the State College is made director of the bureau.

Disappointed. Ethel—After you refused Jack, did he propose again? Maud—Yes, but it was to another girl.—Exchange.

CLERKS TO BE GIVEN PAY FOR FULL TIME

SALEM, Or., Feb. 19.—Despite the frequent announcements of various members that if there shall be an adjourned session of the Legislature to consider any bills which the Governor may veto, the corps of clerks and stenographers will be cut down and the expense reduced to a minimum, it is now apparent that the members of the special committee on mileage and per diem, at least, have changed their minds in this regard. It is not likely that the members will turn down a committee report allowing attaches extra pay in such a case. The report of the committee on mileage and per diem of Senators, the financial items of which are to be provided for in the big general appropriation bill, was made at noon today, immediately preceding recess. When asked as to the amounts to be paid attaches, members of the committee said this report is not ready, as "they will have to be paid for 150 days if we work them that long." The total amount to be paid to Senators, according to the committee report, as well as the expense bills to be footed, including mileage of members of junkets, is $524,435. The largest amount of mileage will be received by Thompson, whose home is at Lakeview, the round trip being 1198 miles. The amount he will receive is $179.70.

BODY OF WESTERN POET IS CREMATED

OAKLAND, Cal., Feb. 19.—The body of Joaquin Miller was reduced to ashes shortly before noon today. Prior to the public funeral ceremony at an Oakland crematory, a private service was held at the Heights, Miller's home in the Oakland foothills. There were present at the home Mrs. Abbie M. Miller, the widow, Miss Juanita Miller, the daughter, Colonel John P. Irish, a lifelong friend of the poet, and the Rev. William Day Simmonds, a Unitarian minister. The short poems by Miller were read by the pastor. A few words of tribute by Colonel Irish ended the ceremony. At the crematory the services were nearly as simple. Rev. Mrs. Simmonds officiating. Part of the ashes of the poet will be scattered to the wind at the Heights and the rest will be placed in a rock mausoleum built by the poet himself near his home.

MADERO, DEPOSED, HELD AS SLAYER

of Generals Huerta and Blanquet last night, is confined to a period of only three years. It is summarized chronologically as follows:

1910—March 2—Madero helped to organize a national convention to nominate a candidate to oppose Porfirio Diaz.

June 3—Madero was thrown into prison by Diaz on charges of sedition.

October 8—Madero escaped from prison disguised as a peon and fled to San Antonio, Texas.

November 10—Madero, accompanied by several men, recrossed the Rio Grande into Mexico and began recruiting troops to his standard.

1911—February 6—Joined by Generals Orozco and Blanco and the band chief "Pancho" Villa.

February 9—Abraham Gonzalez, governor of Chihuahua, joins Madero and gives financial aid.

February 15—Madero fights Diaz' troops near Chihuahua. Madero and his personal aide both seriously wounded near Casas Grandes.

May 5—Madero treats with Diaz at his request, but cannot reach a compromise. Breaks armistice.

May 8—Captures Juarez after three days' fight.

May 25—Porfirio Diaz resigned and De la Barra became provisional president of Mexico.

June 8—Madero enters Mexico City and receives an unprecedented demonstration. Hailed as "Savior of Mexico."

August 31—Nominated for the presidency by the Progressive party.

October 2—Elected president of the republic of Mexico.

1913—February 9—Confronted with revolution led by General Felix Diaz and General Bernardo Reyes. Personally leads federal troops against revolutionists.

February 18—Madero made prisoner by General Huerta, his principal assistant against Diaz, and Huerta becomes president.

The Harp's Origin.

Mary—I've just found out what was the origin of the harp. John (looking up from his newspaper)—Yes? Mary—It was in the garden of Eden. Eve ate the apple, and men have been harping about it ever since.—Judge.

Children of Royalty Seen In Happy Boyhood Playtime

Photos by American Press Association.

THESE interesting children of royalty can play as freely and boyishly as though they lived in a hovel and not a palace. The czarévitch, shown at top, is seen playing in the snow with his shovel. One can hardly think of the heir to the throne of Russia going about from door to door saying, "Please, mister, don't cha want yer walk shoveled?" But it's good to see he gets a chance at play anyway. Since his recent mysterious illness, however, he has been closely guarded even at playtime. The other two lads on the sled are Louis Ferdinand and Wilhelm, children of the crown prince of Germany. One of them may some day be emperor. They are having the time of their lives in the shadow of the palace at Berlin.

REFUNDS MONEY PAID LONG AGO FOR PAPER

If all men were as honest as the writer of the undersigned letter, which was received Wednesday morning by William Andresen, the police would soon find themselves hunting for jobs, and the jails would be torn down. W. H. Davies, the writer, was the head of a small private school that was operated in this city about 12 years ago and while he was conducting the school he also started a paper called the "Academy" in Oregon City, which was devoted to the interests of the school. Through adverse circumstances the publication was discontinued before all the subscriptions had expired. No thought was given to the matter and Mr. Davies left Oregon City and the school and the "Academy" were both forgotten, except by a few personal friends and former students of his school. The following is a copy of a letter that was received by Mr. Andresen: "Burnmeister & Andresen, Dear Sirs: A number of year sago I published a small paper "Academy" in Oregon City. It was discontinued and I find, as near as I can tell, a balance of 18 cents due you on your subscription, for which you never received the paper. Please return the inclosed card, give your address, and I will send you enough money to cover this amount, or a little more. "Supposing that you have forgotten this, and hoping that payment now of this small item, though long delayed, will be satisfactory. I remain yours truly, W. H. DAVIES, Albion, Wash.

MAYER ESTATE IS VALUED AT $8,610

The estate of Andreas Anton Mayer was filed for probate Wednesday. It is valued at $8,610. Mr. Mayer lived in Sellwood. His widow, Mrs. Emma Victoria Mayer, is named executrix, and she is sole beneficiary. The instrument was dated April 7, 1911. Mr. Mayer was one of the most prominent men of Milwaukie.

JAILED FOR RIDING IN ANOTHER'S BUGGY

George Armstrong, of West Oregon City, was arrested Wednesday by Constable Frost on a charge of being intoxicated. He soon after was given his freedom by Chief of Police Shaw to whom Frost turned over his prisoner. Armstrong did a funny stunt. He climbed into a buggy in front of the Bank of Oregon City and rode down Main Street. The owner of the buggy complained to Constable Frost who soon recovered the buggy and team. Armstrong declared that he thought the horse and buggy were his.

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles.

Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint.

I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did."

Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women.

It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs.

Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.

N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chatterbox Medicine Co., Cincinnati, Tenn., for instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

CALKINS ROAD BILL IS AGAIN BEATEN

SALEM, Or., Feb. 19.—Senate bill 217, by Calkins, which was reconsidered after being lost several days ago, and laid on the table, was again defeated today, after being attacked by several members, who said "it would in certain circumstances permit grave injustice to be done. The bill empowered counties to improve roads by special assessment on adjacent property. It developed that persons with large tracts that would be benefited could not be taxed if their land did not lie directly on the roads.

A FOOLISH QUESTION.

The editor of the woman's page was on his vacation and the sporting editor had jumped into the breach, says the "Editor and Publisher." "Well, what do you think of this," he snorted, as he held up a perfumed communication. "Here's a fool woman wants to know how to make a lemon tart; just as though a lemon wasn't tart enough." Especially if it's a California lemon, which the importers say is better than anything they can buy. But then America leads in everything, and especially in fruit.
