UNCLEAN STABLES AND THE INFANTILE PARALYSIS. The peo- in Oregon City should not overlook the unclean stables, for there lurks a carrier of one of the most terrible of human afflictions. Experience and investigation have shown that the common stable fly is a carrier of infantile paralysis.

Says a writer in the Literary Digest, investigating the spread of this disease:

"The investigators turned, therefore, with some confidence to the theory of an insect carrier. Starting from a complete list of the biting, blood-sucking, and household insects which by their habits seemed suited to carry infection, their first step was to eliminate all those which did not satisfy these conditions. Such insects as fleas and bedbugs were ruled out because many cases of infantile paralysis occurred in households where these insects are unknown, and the scattering occurrence of the disease did not agree with the non-traveling habits of these insects. Others that cause painful bites were ruled out, since histories of such bites were not obtained in the majority of cases. By such reasoning it was possible tentatively to eliminate all insects except one, the common stable fly. This insect seemed to satisfy all the conditions made by the distribution of the disease, so that a strong probability was established that the stable fly is the means by which infantile paralysis is carried from one person to another.

"No principle, however, is regarded as scientifically established until it has been confirmed through repetition of the experiments by other observers. Accordingly at the request of Dr. Rosenau, Drs. Anderson and Frost, of the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service at Washington,

Make Opportunities on the Farm Equal Those of the City

By HENRY J. WATERS, President of the Kansas State Agricultural College

THE call of the city always has been answered by the brightest and best of the young men and women on the farms. The WEAKER ARE LEFT BEHIND as a general rule. Is there a stockman or farmer in the country who would expect to keep up the standard of his herds, flocks or crops if he persistently sold off the best he produced and kept as parents or seed the poorest or the most unfit?

TO RETAIN A FAIR SHARE OF THE BEST STOCK OF BOYS AND GIRLS ON THE FARM IT WILL BE NECESSARY TO EQUALIZE THE OPPORTUNITIES OF THE FARM AND CITY. WE MUST MAKE THE CHANCES FOR SUCCESS—CONSPICUOUS SUCCESS—AS LARGE IN ONE PLACE AS IN THE OTHER.

We must MAKE FARMING MORE PROFITABLE. The intelligence of the people on the farm in any country finally is directly related to the income derived from the business as compared with the income derived from other occupations.

PEOPLE WILL STAY ON THE FARMS IF THE OPPORTUNITIES ARE AS GOOD IN AGRICULTURE AS IN OTHER LINES. IF THEY ARE NOT, THE INTELLIGENT AND AMBITIOUS WILL LEAVE THE FARM

Mr. Dillman listed his property with DILLMAN & HOWLAND Friday and sold it yesterday. After selling his home in Oregon City Dillman purchased a 15 acre tract through Dillman & Howland in Mt. Pleasant and is going to raise strawberries, the kind that made Mt. Pleasant famous.

DILLMAN & HOWLAND

working on the basis of the facts attained at the Medical School, repeated the experiment and proved that the disease which developed in monkeys by infectious stable flies was infantile paralysis by injecting another set of monkeys with a culture from the monkeys bitten by the flies. Thus the proof that the fly carries the virus of the disease is complete.

It is not improbable that the bands at the inaugural will be playing the Mexican fandango.

PORTLAND LODGES ENTERTAIN RED MEN

More than 200 members of Washeno Tribe, Independent Order of Red Men, were guests Saturday night of the local lodge, which was held at the local lodge tent in Portland on a special car which left Harding's Drug store at 7:35 o'clock. George Chambers, Joseph Muench and Gill Thomas composed the local committee on arrangements. Grant B. Dimick made the principal address of Washeno Tribe returned to this city about 1 o'clock.

MICHAEL LONG URGED FOR FIRE CHIEF

Michael Long, member of Greenpoint Hose Company since 1901, is being urged for fire chief. Mr. Long has been one of the most faithful members of the Oregon City Fire Department and has been absent from only three meetings of the company. It is believed that he has an excellent chance to be elected chief.

FORD TO ADDRESS MEN.

A meeting for men will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Woodman Hall on Main Street between Sixth and Seventh Streets. Dr. Ford will speak on "Is it Worth While?" Good music will be supplied by men—solos, quartettes and choruses. Ushers will welcome all who come. All men are invited, and any man will receive a cordial welcome.

MIDDLE WEST IN BLIZZARD GRIP

graph and telephone wires, blocking elevated and other roads using the third rail electrical power and freezing interlocking switches, thus blockades to block all railway traffic and endanger passengers.

Fierce blizzards are prevailing tonight in Minnesota, Wisconsin and portions of Michigan, Nebraska, Illinois and Iowa. Northern Indiana also is a heavy sufferer from the storm. Over the territories West of the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers a heavy storm is raging, sufficient in some instances to block all railway traffic.

The unusually high wind is causing the snow to drift badly and the roads still have to send out snow plows and gangs of shoyelers to clear the tracks. It will be many hours before the snowfall ceases and there is no indication tonight of any cessation of the storm. The wind seems to be increasing and the temperature is falling rapidly, making the drifts down into a hard mass. Over Lakes Michigan, 50 miles an hour is raging. Grave fears are felt for the safety of parties of fishermen who ventured out following the unusually mild weather Friday and who have not been found. Friends hope they may have found shelter in caves along the shore remote from telegraph stations and will be heard from later.

Snow is falling tonight in Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Colorado and Canada, and rain is reported in New York, Massachusetts, Florida, Louisiana and Alabama.

The present storm appears to have originated in the Upper Lakes regions and is traveling Westward. There has been a drop of more than 30 degrees in the temperature in the affected district in as many hours.

There still remains plenty of cold weather in the West. Wyoming points tonight report from 4 to 12 degrees below zero, and Colorado 6 below at various stations, the same temperature prevailing over Western Canada, while North Dakota ranges from zero to 4 degrees below.

FIGHTERS DON'T LAST.

Present Day Pugilists Fall Off Early, Says Jim Corbett.

Jim Corbett says the fighters of today start in too early, and many fight experts declare he is right about it. Wolfst lost his championship at twenty-four; Abe Attell lost his at twenty-six; Matt Wells at twenty-five is all in, and so is Frankie Conley at twenty-three. Monte Attell is twenty-five, and he has gone to the post in an important bout for the last time.

In the old days fighters lasted much longer. Davies won the heavyweight title at twenty-four and was still champion at thirty. Corbett was twenty-nine when he lost to Fitzsimmons, and Fitz was thirty-four. Sullivan was the same age when Corbett defeated him. Corbett attributes the early fall to the fact that a boy's lungs and muscles develop too fast.

FANS OPEN UP ON TINKER.

Criticism New Manager of Reds For Signing Brown.

Cincinnati fans have already begun to direct criticism at Manager Joe Tinker for signing Mordecai Brown and for trying to get Johnny Kling. They say that Tinker ought to look around for some young players instead of signing a collection of bygone stars. They say Tinker is simply signing his old team mates as a matter of friendship and sentiment.

Like Tinker, Manager Frank Chance of the Yankees thinks that Brown has as good a pitching arm as he ever had, and the injury to his knee is only a temporary affair. As for Johnny Kling, it is not likely that he will ever play in the major leagues again.

Shotten of Browns a Speed Merchant.

Most of the players in the American league say that Shotten, the outfielder of the St. Louis club, can get down to first base faster than any player in the league. They also predict that he will be another American league star this season.

If you saw it in the Enterprise it's so.

Tame Lion Sleeps In Cage With Dog and Never Quarrels

EVERYBODY likes a pet of some kind. It is human nature. But not everybody would choose a lion. Mr. Pyrwitt-Drake, a well known Englishman did. He has a hobby for animals of all sorts. He raised the lion cub almost from its infancy, and now it not only sits willingly and friendly on a bench with him, as you see, but it sleeps in the same cage with one of its master's dogs, the same one seen in the picture. It is docile and tame at all times and never quarrels. Such a sight as you see in the illustration is unusual to say the least.
