BRICK IS URGED FOR MAIN STREET

PROPERTY OWNERS DECLARE THAT STREET SHOULD BE IMPROVED

REPORT TO BE MADE TO COUNCIL

Resolution Providing for Lowering of Sewer and Water Pipes to be Considered at Meeting Tonight

Owners of property on Main Street, at a meeting Tuesday evening, decided that the street between Moss and the Southern limits should be improved as soon as possible. The meeting was held in the store of William Andrews and was attended by E. A. Chapman, representing Multnomah Lodge, No. 1, A. F. and A. M.; William H. Howell, representing Stevens & Howell; Frank Jagger, one of the largest property owners in the city; George Harding, who was property owner of Main Street; T. Adams, representing the Congregational Church; William Andrews; T. L. Charman, representing the Charman estate; W. R. Logus, representing the Logus estate; C. W. Pope, representing the Pope estate; C. H. Dye, representing the Congregational Church; E. G. Canfield and Mrs. Knapp. Mr. Harding was elected chairman of the meeting.

A resolution providing that the sewer and water pipes on Main Street should be placed at a proper depth was adopted in view of the proposed permanent improvement of the street. Several of those present favored improving the street with vitrified brick it being the consensus of opinion that the present brick would not last more than one year. A resolution, declaring that it was the opinion of those present that the street should be permanently improved at the earliest possible time, was adopted. William H. Howell, Frank Jagger and E. A. Canfield were appointed a committee to report the result of the meeting at the meeting of the city council tonight.

A plan to improve Main Street from Moss to the Southern limits with asphalt or bituminous bids will be asked and it is probable that the smooth surface may be laid on the present brick. However, it would be necessary before this were done to rearrange the sewer and water pipes. A mass meeting has been called tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the city council chamber, when all owners of property on Main Street will be heard regarding the proposed improvement. Immediately after the meeting the city council will act upon the proposed improvement. All owners of property on Main Street are urged to attend, because it is a question of great importance to them. John Rieley, who urges that the county erect a bridge across the Clackamas near its mouth, was in the city Tuesday. His plan is to have eventually a hard-surface pavement between this city and Portland.

H. E. CROSS CONDUCTS FUNERAL SERVICE

Edward A. Revenue, a farmer living one and a half miles northeast of Sandy, was buried Sunday in the family cemetery on his farm. The funeral services were conducted by Harvey E. Cross, of Oregon City. Mr. Revenue was born on the same farm where he was buried, July 15, 1864. He had lived in various parts of Oregon and Idaho, but returned to his father's farm 18 years ago. His father, the late Francis Revenue, who died July 1, 1909, deeded the farm to his son, who had resided there ever since. On October 13, 1895, Mr. Revenue married Miss Myra Flynn. He is survived by the widow, a daughter, Alice Ruth, who is in the city, two sisters, Mrs. Roberts, of California, and Mrs. Webster, of Portland, and two brothers, John, of Sandy, and Theodore, of Port Klamath.

"THIN-SKINNED," IS SPEAKER'S CHARGE

McARTHUR HITS SCHUEBEL AND EATON FOR STAND ON MEASURE

CLACKAMAS MAN MAKES DEFENSE

Gill, Wearing Bull Moose Badge, Thinking of Becoming Party's Candidate for Governor

SALEM, Feb. 25.—(Special).—The bill giving the Governor the power to appoint special local county and municipal officials to enforce the laws was twice near death on reconsideration in the House today, and at the end of the last and hardest battle in the evening Speaker McArthur took the floor and charged some of the Republican members, specifically Eaton of Lane, and Schuebel, with being "thin-skinned" in letting "The most damnable piece of legislation ever enacted" get by them.

The bill was passed Monday afternoon, reconsidered later, and made a special order of business for this morning. In the afternoon the House tried to reconsider the bill. Reames, a Democrat, rose to a point of order, declaring that a measure could not be reconsidered twice unless it had been amended on first reconsideration. A peculiar parliamentary situation developed, a call of the House was demanded and the House remained idle under this head for half an hour, excited whispered consultations going on all the time. Speaker McArthur would have to rule on Reames' point of order. Bell of Clatsop, was missing and the minority wanted him. Schuebel, in speaking for Reames' point of order, charged that he had been approached by members of the organization, who threatened to kill some of his bills unless he "kissed" with them. When he charged that favoritism had been shown, Speaker McArthur interrupted him.

"Mr. Schuebel," said the speaker, "You are making a direct personal charge against the speaker, and I will not tolerate it." Schuebel assured him that nothing personal was meant, but continued his attack on the organization. Speaker McArthur charged that it was the "thin-skinned" Republicans who had let the bill get through. It was apparent that he specifically meant Eaton and Schuebel. The afternoon of bitterness was ended with adjournment after nearly two hours of this discussion.

Governor West limped into his office this morning after being absent since Friday afternoon, and regarded it as a joke that the legislators had been so anxious as to his whereabouts as to break into his office and leave a bunch of bills on his desk under heavy guard. Furthermore he slipped one over on the Legislature, when he gave the House and Senate guards receipts for the bills. The receipts were dated today. The situation between the Legislature and the chief executive, however, has completely changed. A Republican caucus held at midnight last night reported in favor of adjourning tomorrow, if the Senate completed its work, and meet again some time next week to consider the vetoes the Governor is expected to have to offer.

Leaders of the Republican organization announced that forty-three members had promised to return within five days and consider the vetoes. From the tone of the minority side of the House, however, it is considered doubtful if the necessary forty can be obtained. One notable announcement by the organization leaders was that Gill of Clackamas had been excluded from the caucus because he had announced that he had turned Progressive. Mr. Gill is wearing a large brass Bull Moose badge and says he is seriously considering being a candidate of that party for Governor at the next election.

Governor West said that he did not return to the office on Monday because it was a matter of hurrying his horse or of disappointing the Legislature, and he chose to do the latter. Since Saturday he has been on his ranch at Cannon Beach, taking a rest. Monday morning he started to ride to Seaside, but his horse cast a shoe and he was delayed. He explained his noticeable limp by saying that while wandering over his ranch he had fallen down an embankment and turned his knee. The Governor seemed in the best of spirits.

The general appropriation bill, carrying $1,230,000 was vetoed by the Governor, and shortly thereafter passed over his veto by both houses, with the Clackamas County delegations in both houses voting against its passage. Seventy-four items were included in the bill. Governor West gave as his reason for vetoing it that he did not approve the manner of putting the miscellaneous appropriations in one bill, so he would have to kill them all or accept them. Some of the items contained in the bill, he said, were of questionable merit. In the House, both Schuebel and Gill voted to sustain the veto of the Governor. In the Senate, Dimick strongly opposed the passage of the bill over the veto. "Here you have big appropriations for the so-called horse doctor, the alleged forest protection, and the naval militia, all blanketed in one bill," he said. "Your Ways and Means Committees have done this just because the Governor cannot veto specific items. I, for one, am willing to stay here and help get out of the hole the Ways and Means Committees have put us in."

On the floor of the House the naval militia, and the forest service appropriations were the ones chiefly objected to. The Governor's political allies, however, put up no strong

BRYAN TO HEAD WILSON CABINET

NEBRASKAN, REPORT SAYS, WILL BE NEW SECRETARY OF STATE

GOETHALS TO FILL WAR PORTFOLIO

Burleson, of Texas, is Decided Upon for Postmaster-General—McAdoo Secretary of Treasury

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—It was said positively tonight in high congressional circles closely identified with the incoming administration of President Wilson that the following cabinet appointments had been determined upon definitely:

Secretary of State, William J. Bryan, of Nebraska.

Secretary of the Treasury, William G. McAdoo, of New York.

Postmaster-General, Albert S. Burleson, of Texas.

Secretary of the Navy, Josephus Daniels, of North Carolina.

The foregoing names and positions are said to have advanced entirely beyond the stage of conjecture or gossip and become finalities in the forthcoming Cabinet list. Other places in the Cabinet are said to be reasonably settled, with the exception of War and Agriculture.

The inauguration of President Wilson is said to have advanced entirely beyond the stage of conjecture or gossip and become finalities in the forthcoming Cabinet list. Other places in the Cabinet are said to be reasonably settled, with the exception of War and Agriculture.

Other names which have been prominently mentioned for the Attorney-Generalship, but which are now eliminated from this or other Cabinet portfolios, are Chancellor Walker, of New Jersey, and Representative Henry of Texas. Chancellor Walker was highly regarded, and it is probably due to his own wishes that his name no longer is considered. The election of Representative Burleson of Texas for the Postmaster-Generalship had the narrow effect of eliminating Mr. Henry's name from further consideration, he being also from Texas.

Information from other sources gave assurances that Colonel George W. Goethals, chief engineer and chairman of the Panama Canal Commission is under consideration for the Secretary of War. Some close friends of the incoming administration have felt that a lawyer should be chosen as head of the War Department in view of the legal questions involved relating to the Panama Canal, the Philippines and other important matters.

MRS. MARTIN NEW HEAD OF REBAKAS

At a district convention of the Rebekahs held in Gladstone Tuesday Mrs. Martin, of Milwaukie, was elected chairman. Mrs. A. F. Parker, of Gladstone, vice-chairman and Miss May Waldron, of Oregon City, secretary. Miss May Howell, former chairman, called the meeting to order and presided. It was decided to hold the next meeting in Milwaukie. Mrs. May Grover, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, delivered an interesting address. Representatives of lodges in Estacada, Milwaukie, Clackamas, Oregon City and Gladstone, were present. The degree work was under the supervision of the Oregon team. Dinner and supper were served and in the evening a delightful program was given. Among those participating were Victor Gault, Pansy Oswald, Garland Holwell, Arlie and Marjorie Reed, Mildred Hall, Mrs. T. A. Burke and the Gladstone Quartette.

If you saw it in the Enterprise it's so.

COMMERCIAL CLUB TO HAVE MASK BALL

The annual dance of the Commercial Club will be held on the evening of March 25 at Busch's Hall. The special committee appointed to arrange for the dance held an enthusiastic meeting in the parlors of the club Tuesday evening. It was decided to have a mask ball and invitations will be extended to members of the club and their friends. All applications for invitations from non-members must come through members of the club. The ball will be the biggest and best, it is predicted, ever held in the city. It will be held just two days after Easter when the young folk will be eager for a good time. It is planned to start dancing at 8:30 and the grand march will start at 10 o'clock, after which all present will unmask. Special prizes will be given and delicious refreshments will be served. M. D. Latourrette was named chairman of the committee on refreshments. Dr. Clyde Mount, chairman of the committee on music and B. T. McBain chairman of the committee on decorations and special features.

George Nelson Edwards, pastor of the Congregational church will preach and Dr. Ford will have charge of the after meeting. All are invited to these services and will receive a cordial welcome. The Ladies Aid Society of the church meets today and Dr. Ford will speak to the women and congregation and any others who may wish to attend, at 2 o'clock.

CLUB TO 'INAUGURATE' PRESIDENT WILSON

The Reception and Entertainment Committee of the Commercial Club Tuesday evening made arrangements for the annual smoker to be given on the evening of March 4. It will be a great affair. The committee is composed of M. D. Latourrette, B. T. McBain, Dr. Clyde Mount and F. A. Olmsted. A unique feature of the entertainment will be "The Inauguration of President Wilson." The member of the club who looks most like the professor-statesman will be the chief actor. Guess who he is? There will be other special stunts, including vaudeville. Music will be furnished by an orchestra and there will be several solos. Invitations will be issued to each member of the club who will be entitled to bring one outsider to the smoker. It is believed that the non members will be so pleased with the show that they will make application for membership at once. A big dinner will be served in the banquet hall.

FIREMEN'S ELECTION TO BE EXCITING

What will be the most hotly contested election in this city will be held next Monday. There are four candidates for the office, and the friends of each declare that their choice will win. Fred W. Humphrys, of Columbia Hook & Ladder Company, was one of the first to announce. Mr. Humphrys has a fine record as a fireman.

The other candidates, who are as follows, also have fine records: Michael Long, Greenpoint Hose Company; Charles Gotberg, Mountain View Company and Frank Schoenborn, of Fountain Hose Company. Joseph Meyers, of Company No. 3, is a candidate for assistant chief. The following are candidates for fire commissioners: Ben Baxter, Greenpoint Hose Company; Dr. A. L. Beatie, Columbia Hook & Ladder Company, and L. Nobel, Jr., Fountain Hose Company. The election will be held at Fountain Hose Company's house from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 7 in the evening. Instead of from 10 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon as heretofore.

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS MEETING TOMORROW

The Woman's Club will hold an important meeting at the Commercial Club at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The program, in charge of Mrs. M. Charman and Mrs. Louise Money, will start at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Charman's subject will be "Our State Constitution," and Mrs. Money's will be "Property Rights of Women in Our State." Mrs. David Canfield, president of the club, requests all members to be present.

WIRES FIGHT FOR CITY BEAUTIFUL

CIVIC COMMITTEE REPORTS THAT IT IS MAKING FINE PROGRESS

CLUSTER LIGHTS URGED BY PRICE

Willamette Pulp & Paper Company, Through Manager, Mak's Proposition to Keep Suspension Bridge Clean

With a determination to ultimately have a clean city, the civic improvement committee of the Live Wires will this week make a further inspection of the ground covered in the first trip made several weeks ago. This announcement was made in the following report submitted at Tuesday's luncheon:

"The committee wishes to report that during the latter part of this week a re-inspection of the ground covered in the first trip will be made. Again special attention is called to the altogether too prevalent presence of disease breeding manure piles. At a time when the rapid approach of warm weather makes these nuisances especially dangerous, it is earnestly recommended that every effort be made to wipe out this health menace. The committee also wishes to report that negotiations are under way to secure a weekly cleaning of the suspension bridge. The Willamette Pulp & Paper Company, through the efforts of Mr. McRath, has agreed to furnish the necessary men for the purpose of hosing down the bridge. The necessary hose and a suitable place for storing it remains to be applied and the committee is at present in favorable communication with the county court regarding this of the proposition."

The Live Wires adopted a resolution recommending to the city council that that body install cluster lights on Main Street from Third to Twelfth and on Seventh Street from Center to J. Q. Adams. This action was taken at the instance of A. A. Price, chairman of the cluster light committee, seconded by George Randall, who succeeded in having a portion of Seventh Street included in the resolution for cluster lighting. The cost to the city, it was stated by Mr. Price, would be about $5,500, and the motion carried with the understanding that the cost maintenance would be born by the business men and property owners. It is planned to place six lights on each block, three on each side of the street. Mr. Price intimated that he had assurances from several of the members of the city council that they would support an ordinance directing the installation of the lights.

B. T. McBain reported that he had been informed that a meeting is being arranged between the Pure Water Committee of the city council and a similar-purpose committee of the physicians association and the Live Wires. During the interval between luncheon and adjournment the statement was made by Grant Dimick that the revenue from the sale of wool and mohair and from thoroughbred sheep and goats shipped out of Polk County last year was sufficient to pay the taxes of the entire county and to construct 100 miles of macadamized road.

A. L. Flude, of Chicago, representing a Chautauqua Bureau, made an entertaining talk along the lines of his work.

3 DECREES GRANTED.

Decrees of divorce were granted by Circuit Judge Campbell in the following cases: Effa M. Shields against T. Edward Shields; Marie Chatfield against Chester W. Chatfield, and Anna Mitchell against Jacob L. Mitchell.

HEDGES URGED FOR COUNTY ATTORNEY

IF BILL BECOMES LAW HE IS LOGICAL MAN FOR PLACE

GOVERNOR WOULD HELP FRIENDS

Salary of Clackamas County Official Would be $2,100 Year—Increase in State $2,000

Gilbert L. Hedges, it is thought, will be appointed county attorney of Clackamas, if the bill passed by the House and amended in the Senate, which provides for the abolition of district attorneys, becomes a law. The bill goes back to the House, and, if passed as amended, goes to the Governor for approval. Under its provisions the present district attorneys would become county attorneys, and the Governor would be empowered to appoint other county attorneys. If it becomes a law District Attorney Tngup will become the county attorney of Washington County and other men must be appointed to serve as county attorneys in the other counties in this district.

Reports from Salem are that the House will appoint Mr. Hedges as amended by the Senate. It is not probable that Governor West will approve the bill. It will give him an opportunity to give offices to several Democratic friends.

In case the bill becomes a law, the Enterprise thinks that the Governor will appoint Mr. Hedges County Attorney for Clackamas. He has provided his qualifications for the office, having served as district attorney as an appointee of the Governor. Despite the overwhelming Republican majority in the district he made a good race against Mr. Tongue at the last election, although Mr. Tongue is regarded as one of the greatest prosecutors in the Northwest. Mr. Hedges carried his home county by a good majority, which proves that his fellow citizens have the greatest faith in his ability.

It was stated on the Senate floor that this proposed increase of the cost for prosecuting attorneys for the entire state by about $2,000. Its advocates declare that the plan will centralize responsibility in every county and avoid the chance of a district attorney shifting his burden to his deputies. The amended bill provides
