SUFFRAGE ARMY HAVING TROUBLE

INSURGENCY DEVELOPS AS "HIKERS" NEAR CAPITAL OF COUNTRY

MESSAGE MAY NOT BE DELIVERED

Women are Defended by Newspaper Men Who Put Students at Bladensburg to Rout

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—"General" Rosalie Jones and her army of "hikers" from New York are expected to be within striking distance of the capital tomorrow.

A message was received at Laurel, Md., by "General" Jones that the National Suffragette officers themselves desired to deliver to President Wilson the message the hikers were hearing to Washington. This situation caused consternation in the "army" but the protests of some of the "soldiers" were silenced by the pacific attitude of "General" Jones.

When the hikers reached Bladensburg they were met by Miss Alice Paul from the Washington headquarters and after a conference it was decided to leave the question open until after the capital headquarters is reached tomorrow.

Insurgency developed late tonight, and Miss Elizabeth Freeman, one of the "hikers," declared that if the members of the "army" were not permitted to deliver the message as originally intended she would desert and return to New York.

Newspaper correspondents walking with "General" Rosalie Jones and her "army" of hikers defended the suffragettes with their fists today in a fight with students at College Park, near Bladensburg, Md.

UNION LABOR MAN TO BE IN CABINET

REPRESENTATIVE WILSON WILL BE ONE OF PRESIDENT'S ADVISERS

BRANDEIS IS ALSO POSSIBILITY

Confirmation From Every Side That Bryan, McAdoo and Daniels Will Get Appointments

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The plea of union labor for representation in the President's Cabinet may be recognized in the selection of Representative William B. Wilson, of Pennsylvania, to be secretary of the newly-created Department of Labor. This information, along with other reliable advices, came to the political leaders at the Capitol today direct from Trenton. Representative Wilson has been endorsed by the American Federation of Labor, and was at one time secretary of the United Mine Workers of America.

From the same sources it was learned that William B. Redfield, of Brooklyn, might be made a member of the Cabinet. For what portfolio he is considered was not divulged, but it is known that the President-elect holds the highest regard for Redfield's views on the tariff, and has for some time hoped to have him as one of his close advisers.

About the future of three portfolios—Agriculture, Interior and War—little is known, and it is hinted that they will be filled by men whose names have not been generally mentioned heretofore.

WHO SAYS THE DAY OF HEROES IS GONE?

Senator Benjamin R. Tillman, of South Carolina. One of the Democratic leaders in the Senate.

MAN SUES WOMAN FOR MALIGNING HIM

Lucius E. Sealey makes unusual charges in a suit for $6,000 damages for defamation of character, filed Thursday against Mary Barnas. The plaintiff, through Attorneys Knowlton & Stone, avers that the defendant, in the presence of divers persons February 21, 1913, said to him, "I will arrest your brains out right here; you referring to the plaintiff herein) had been a convict and are a dirty, low-down man and you ought to be in the penitentiary." The plaintiff denies that the accusations are true and avers that they have greatly injured his reputation. Sealey lives near Mulloy on the farm of J. B. Sealey.

ERROR MAY MAKE VOID ASYLUM BILL

SALEM, Feb. 27.—Because of an error made by the engrossing clerk House bill 609, carrying an appropriation of more than $672,000 for the Oregon State Insane Asylum, may have been nullified. Attorney-General Crawford gives an off-hand opinion that the bill will hold good, but at the same time says that the authority given the State Board under it will be circumscribed by law. He is not sure of this, however, and when the Legislature reconvenes next Tuesday the bill will probably be returned to it for curative action.

When the bill was passed by the House it allowed an appropriation of more than $612,000 for the asylum for maintenance, improvements and other features. In the Senate it was amended to include an item of $60,000 for completion of the new wing. The House refused to concur in the amendment, the Senate receded from its position and the $60,000 was ordered stricken out. In the bill, as engrossed, the $60,000 item appears. It was signed in that form by the President and Speaker and presented to the Governor.

"In my opinion, as the records show that the $60,000 appropriation for the new wing was eliminated, the board cannot make use of that much more money and will be held down to $612,000 expenditures," said the Attorney-General. "This is an off-hand opinion, however, and I think it best that the Legislature correct the error when it reassembles."

SCHOOL HEAD'S PAY TO BE INCREASED

It is believed that the bill increasing the salary of the county superintendent of schools of Clackamas from $1,000 a year to $1,500 will become a law. It has passed the House and Senate, and been vetoed by Governor West. However, the vote in both houses for the measure was so large it is virtually assured that it will be passed over the Governor's veto. Senator Dimick, who returned to Oregon City Thursday night, explained why he voted against the measure. He said that he had offered an amendment fixing the salary of the superintendent at $1,200 a year. Senator Dimick is seriously ill of the grip and may not be able to return to Salem when the Legislature convenes.

SMALLPOX BROUGHT FROM OTHER TOWNS

Sharing the fate of other Northwestern cities, Oregon City has had four cases of small-pox during the past month. The source of most of the cases have been traced to Portland and other places where the disease is more prevalent. One case was diagnosed two days after the man moved to Oregon City. Two of the other cases are supposed to have developed in other places. Ellard Bailey, who was stricken some time ago by the disease, has been removed to the pest house in Portland for treatment.

Dr. J. W. Norris, city health officer, has instructed all persons who have been exposed to the disease to be vaccinated and also urges that persons who have not been vaccinated should be vaccinated at once. All cases have been quarantined and it is thought that no new cases will develop.

SCHNOERR IS PRAISED.
The Salem Statesman has the following to say of Gustav Schnoerr: "The smiling face of Representative Gustav Schnoerr was again to be seen around the house yesterday. Since Monday Mr. Schnoerr has been sick at home. Mr. Schnoerr bears a unique record for legislation. He has introduced only two bills in the house, and both have passed unanimously."

JUDGES ARE ACCUSED UNJUSTLY BY GRANGE

A resolution adopted by Warner Grange declaring that Circuit Judge Campbell and County Judge Beatie have refused the use of the court rooms in the county court house for public meetings, has caused much comment. Judge Campbell was not in the city Thursday, but Judge Beatie declared that the resolution was misleading. He said that the rooms had not been refused the granges and other bodies, but had been refused to what was considered business organizations. He said that it had been suggested that they obtain halls in the city or try to arrange to hold their meetings in the Commercial Club rooms. The courthouse, of course, was intended for the use of persons engaged in court work, but the officials are ready and willing to turn over the building when it can be done to societies working for a betterment of conditions. Warner Grange before scoring the judges should have made an investigation. There is no question that the members can get anything they ask in the way of accommodation within reason.

LOUIS NEMIC IS VICTIM OF TYPHOID

Louis Nemic, the 13-year-old son of Mrs. F. M. Nemic, of Stafford, died of typhoid fever at the Oregon City Hospital Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. He had been ill for six weeks and his death was caused by heart failure. He was born in Butler County, Neb., July 4, 1894, and moved to Oregon City with his mother soon after. He is survived by his mother and father, two sisters, Elizabeth and Anna, and a brother, Joe. The father has not lived with the family for a number of years. The funeral services will be held at St. John's Catholic Church Sunday at 12 o'clock, Father Hillebrand officiating.

CLUB SMOKER TO SET NEW RECORD

Preparations for the big smoker at the Commercial Club March 1 are progressing satisfactorily and there will certainly be a great entertainment. The inaugural address alone will be well worth hearing, even though the rest of the program should not be so fine. But the committee in charge promises big things and whenever M. D. Latourrette, who is chairman, makes a promise, it means something.

CHURCH CHOIR GIVES DELIGHTFUL PLAY

The operetta, Phyllis, the Farmer's Daughter, which was given under the auspices of the Presbyterian Church Choir, was declared to be a great success by the large and appreciative audience. The entertainment opened with an orchestra, followed by the opening chorus, which was led and coached by Mrs. Leon DesLarzes. The chorus was well drilled and sang in a pleasing manner. Victor Gault won much praise and created a great deal of favorable comment by the beautiful way in which he sang "The King of the Winds" and one other song between acts. Miss Kathleen Harrison, as Phyllis, played her part creditably and Arden Hickman, playing opposite her, as Douglass, her betrothed, won much praise. Mrs. W. C. Green, as Margaret, the adopted daughter, played her part with a great deal of expression, as did Harold Swafford. These four sang several times. Thursday, the city dandy, was acted by Mr. Harrison, Hugh Kennedy being ill. After the performance a supper was served to the principals and the chorus by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church.

CATHOLICS HONOR AGED CLERGYMAN

GOLDEN JUBILEE OF REV. FATHER BECK OBSERVED AT BABY HOME

SERMON PREACHED BY HILLEBRAND

Priests From All Parts of State Pay Homage to Venerable Chaplain—Purse Is Given to Him

The golden jubilee of Rev. Father F. S. Beck, Chaplain of St. Agnes' Baby Home at Parkplace, was observed at the home Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Father A. Hillebrand, pastor of St. John's Church, of Oregon City, in the absence of Archbishop A. Christie, who is ill, was in charge of the services. More than 40 priests were present. Rev. Father Hillebrand preached the jubilee sermon and sang high mass. Father Beck has been chaplain of the home for nine years, and through his endeavors it has become known as one of the finest charitable institutions in the state. He is 74 years of age, but is enjoying the best of health. The aged priest was presented a purse by the other clergymen present, and he made a feeling address of thanks.

Among the priests present were Rev. James Rauw, V. G. Monsignore, Bernard Richter, of Melrose, Minn., who is visiting Rev. Father Hillebrand, and Revs. Lane, O'Hara, Rodhaar, Daly, Benign, Smith, Conaty, Gregory, Abbott Placidus, of Mount Angel; Gallus, Heiser and Matuzewsky.

Rev. Mr. Hillebrand and Monsignore Richter were schoolmates at the University of Munster, Germany, and were members of the same fraternity. Monsignore Richter will be the guest of Father Hillebrand for several days, and later will make a tour of the West.

The celebration was arranged by the priests without the knowledge of Rev. Father Beck, and was a big surprise to him.

SHERIFF'S SON THREATENS GIRL

HOWARD MASS, EIGHT YEARS OF AGE, WRITES "BLACKHAND" NOTE

PARENTS MAKE AN INVESTIGATION

Little Velma Allen Told She Will be Visited by Robbers and Captured at Midnight

Howard Mass, the eight-year-old son of Sheriff Mass is a precocious lad. The boy, being in love with Velma Allen, a girl about his own age, and his love being unrequited, wrote her a "blackhand" letter February 7. The letter was placed in the hands of the police soon after its receipt, the girl's parents being greatly alarmed by it. It was traced to young Mass by his teacher in the Barclay school. The letter follows:

"Oregon City, Or., Feb. 7.—Velma Allen—There is going to be a bunch of robbers, and they are going to capture you at midnight February 28, 1913, and they have snakes with them.

"Yours truly,
"The Man With the Crooked Thumb."

Below the signature is a skull and crossbones cleverly drawn.

The letter was sealed with a Red Cross Stamp, young Mass explaining that the stamp was used because he wanted to impress upon the girl unless she did as dictated "The ambulance would get her."

Sheriff Mass exhibited the letter Thursday night which his son had written to the girl. The Sheriff said that the boy had been punished and he was certain he would not commit another offense of the same character.

"I think older boys put Howard up to it," said the Sheriff. "However, he will be watched and there is no chance of his writing any more letters of such a nature."

The parents of the girl at first regarded the letter as a joke, but the fact that they were unable to learn
