STAMP OUT DISEASE there are several cases of smallpox in Oregon City and that one or two Oregon City residents who have contracted the disease are seriously ill, but if the residents will observe the ordinary rules of health and prudence there is no danger of an epidemic. It has been proved by the city health officer and the doctors that the disease was brought into Oregon City from other towns. There may be one or two persons who have contracted the disease in Oregon City by having come in contact with persons that were afflicted, and if all people who have not been vaccinnated, or vaccinnated recently, are so treated at once there will be no further fear of the disease and Oregon City will be saved from an epidemic for which the city is not

MESDAMES MILLER AND BURKE HOSTESSES

Mrs. C. G. Miller and Mrs. Thomas Burke were the hostesses of the Derthic Club Friday afternoon at the Miller home on Seventh Street. The afternoon's entertainment was given by Mrs. Burke and Mirs. Anna Hays. Mrs. Lurke sang an aria from the opera "La Favorita Bonizetti," which was much appreciated, her beautiful voice proving to be entirely capable of the difficult song. She was delightfully accompanied by Miss Sadye Evelyn Ford. Miss Anna Hays read the story of the opera. Current events were told by Miss Marjory Caufield. Dainty refreshments were served after the program. The guests were: Mesdames Clark Ganong, S. O. Dillman, Nieta Barlow Lawrence, Walter Dimick, John Clark, H. E. Cross, C. O. T. Williams, J. P. Moffatt, L. L. Porter, H. T. Straight, John Loder, Leon DesLarzes, Louis Adams, Lydia Ford, and Miss Mariory Caufield.

can't break into them all at once. It would disturb industry too much. Of course there is a minimum below which a girl cannot live decently if she is entirely self supporting. In Chicago I believe that minimum lies between eight and ten dollars. But we can't check up industry popully, so we must go

Establish Minimum Wage

For the Working Women

of the Country

Of course conditions vary widely in every city, and the individual boards must fix conditions for each place. But there are certain general truths, and one is that girls cannot live decently under a certain merchandise or on unsecured personminimum wage. That wage should be GUARANTERD TO THEM FOR THE SAKE OF SOCIETY as well as for their own sakes. After that the increases must come according to the individual ability,

A minimum wage does not at all lessen or affect the individual's chance to do good work and to gain recognitions for individual excellence.
