FORUM OF THE PEOPLE

Oregon City, March 14 .- To the Editor of Enterprise-I see that the matter of a Public Dock is again being discussed and let me say that in my judgment after a life entirely spent at Oregon City, there is today no one thing that would help more to build up the business interests of Oregon City than a public dock.

All petty personalities should be set aside. The business men should realize that the time has come in the history of Oregon City when the business can not all be done on one or two blocks as of yore, but must branch population which has been pouring in out and what will benefit one section

E are going through a time of great religious uncertainty and intense social unrest. Man in large measure seems to have lost the satisfactions that come from within himself.

He has LOST HOLD ON GREAT PURPOSES IN LIFE. He has lost his sense of proportion between the eternal values and the temporal comforts and social arrangements.

Modern Preachers Are

Becoming More Like

Politicians

By the Rev. Dr. SAMUEL SCHULMAN of New York

Because of this we witness the peculiar phenomena of confusion which are manifested by some representatives of the two kinds of important leadership among men. The preacher, whose main business it should be to lift up men in spiritual freedom, tends, because of the lack of interest in his special work, to outside activities.

M M M HE CEASES TO BE THE PRIEST AT THE ALTAR AND BECOMES THE POLITICIAN, THE SOCIAL AGITATOR. ON THE OTHER HAND, THE STATESMAN AND THE POLITICIAN SEEK TO DRAW ATTEN-TION FROM THEIR INCOMPETENCE IN THEIR OWN PROVINCE AND TAKE THE LINE OF LEAST RESISTANCE.

The preacher MUST ATTRACT ATTENTION. He has a message on every political situation, and he has a dogmatic word ready for every industrial contest, although he may not have examined the case, and he is glib in committing himself to social programs. He BECOMES A POLITICIAN.

When he becomes a politician he KILLS WHAT IS LEFT OF THE RELIGIOUS SENTIMENT which he is supposed to stimulate. He may be talked of and become notorious, but he is a failure as the revealer of the divine spirit of men.
