EGGS BEING BOUGHT FOR STORAGE MOSTLY

Business in the egg market is confined almost exclusively to the purchase of speculative and storage interests so far as the Portland trade is concerned.

Many retailers, in fact most of them, are getting all their egg needs from the country and the only need they have for the street in this line is to inquire regarding the price so that they can return country shippers as little as possible. This seems to be their entire aim in the market at the present time.

Better returns are being made by front street than are received by those that ship direct to retailers.

This is due to the fact that the latter are in no position to handle all the supplies when the market is well filled, therefore they are compelled to shade value below the wholesale market in order to unload them to some other dealer.

This being the case they are unable to make as good returns as front street which has a wider market.

Egg prices ruled on front street from 18 to 18 1/2 for case count Saturday but the higher price was seldom realized. Some were selling cased stock at 18 1/2c, but most interests were asking 19c.

A further advance is showing in the price of eggs at other centers along the coast, indicating that the local improvement is reflected elsewhere.

With eggs remaining stationary, the principle change in the Oregon City market is the drop in the price of feedstuffs. Oats and other feed have taken a rather sharp drop the latter part of the week, no doubt due to growth of grass and the coming of Spring weather.

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows: HIDES—(Buying) Green salted, 7c to 8c; sheep pelts 75c to $1.50 each.

FEED—(Selling) Shorts $25; bran $24; process barley $27 to $29 per ton. FLOUR—$4.50 to $5.

OATS—$22.00 to $26.50; wheat 93; oil meal selling $38.00; Shay Brook dairy feed $1.30 per hundred pounds. Whole corn $29.00.

Livestock, Meats. BEEF—(Live weight) steers 7 and 8c; cows 6 and 7 c, bulls 4 to 6c. MUTTON—Sheep 5 to 6 1/2; lambs 6 to 6 1/2c.

PORK—9 1/2 and 10c. VEAL—Calves 12c to 13c dressed, according to grade.

WEININGS—15c lb; sausage, 15c lb. POULTRY—(Buying)—Hens 10 1/2 to 12 1/2c; stags slow at 10c; old roosters 7c; broilers 19c.

FROM THE MANGER TO THE CROSS

Coming to the Heilig Theatre—Kalem's Biblical Masterpiece—Pronounced Wonderful

From the Manger to the Cross, a reverent motion picture life story of Jesus of Nazareth, produced at a tremendous expense in authentic locations in Palestine and Egypt will be exhibited here for one week commencing Sunday matinee, March 16th.

The tremendous undertaking entered upon by the producers of this great film, containing about eighty thousand photographs, has required eight months of artistic industry, forty actors, hundreds of superannaries, droves of sheep and a caravan of camels—a kaleidoscopic procession—no effort nor expenditure has been spared to achieve the realization of a high ideal.

All of the many authorities upon the subject were consulted, and the works of the late Dr. Schick and Picot, the great French painter, who spent twelve years in the Holy Land, when he was painting his remarkable series of religious pictures, were found most helpful. The furniture used in the various scenes was especially made to resemble, as far as possible, that used at the start of the Christian era, while the apparel of the various actors was designed by and made under the direction of a tailor of Carico, who is the greatest expert on ancient eastern dress, and used especially to Palestine to cooperate with the producers.

LHEVINNE

This afternoon Josef Lhevinne, the Russian pianist, will be heard in Portland, giving one recital under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn Coman at the Bungalow, 12th and Morrison, at three o'clock.

Everyone who was so fortunate as to hear Lhevinne a generation ago, will remember to his last hour the wonderful excitement that spread through the audience as from the most delicate pianissimo, clear as a bell, fairylike in its magical beauty, he rose in grand crescendo, filling the vast auditorium with the surging music of orchestral effects never before produced upon a piano, until the wildest enthusiasm and emotional agitation was created in the mind of the listener.

In the same way, Lhevinne by the inspiration of his genius, reaches the climax of impassioned dramatic intensity upon the ivory keyboard, swaying his audiences at will by his magnetic touch, and strange mingling of tenderness and melancholy.

As the critic of the Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin says: "While there was but one Rubinstein, there is today but one Lhevinne. His performance includes the best qualities of the greatest pianists that have been heard here. As he understands Beethoven and Chopin, so does he understand Liszt; pre-eminent in each, he impresses one as being equally great in every school."

The following program will be rendered: Mozart.....Sonata C major No. 3 (Peters edition) Mendelssohn-Liszt...On the Wings of Song Schumann-Tausig...El Contrabandista Schumann.....Carnaval "Preambule, Pierrot, Arlequin, Valse noble, Florestan, Coquette, Replique, Lettres d'ansantes, Chiarina, Chopin, Estrella, Reconnaissance, Fantaisie, et Colombine, Valse allemande, Paganini, Aven, Promenade, Pausse, Marche des 'Davidsbundler' contre les Philistins." Chopin.....Barcarolle, Mazurka, Op. 51, B major Etude, Op. 25, B minor.

Rubinstein.....Nocturne, Op. 109, Etude C major. Balakireff.....Islamey (Orientale Fantaisie)
