SEVENTH STREET SHOULD BE HARD-SURFACED

The City Council again has the improvement of Seventh Street under consideration and may decide this evening as to what kind of improvement will be authorized. The City Engineer has given the Council plans, specifications and estimates for two methods of improvements, macadam and hard surface. The macadam improvement is estimated to cost $23,000. The hard surface improvement calls for an improvement such as that on lower Main street.

A number of years ago the city and property owners went to a heavy expense in improving the street and since that time there has been a heavy maintenance expense. The improvement never has given a neat appearance and after 20 years of heavy wear, the pavement is worthless and it must be improved at a cost about equal to the original cost. If Seventh Street is improved with macadam how soon will it be before it is necessary for the city and property owners to go to another big ex-

SOUTHERN R. R. AIDED BY BUSINESS MEN

The committee of six business men who volunteered to operate a campaign for $20,000 for the Clackamas Southern Railway, received much encouragement on the first day of its work. All persons visited, realizing the importance of the work, gave financial aid. Thursday at 4 p. m. the second passenger car will be run over the road and 75 Oregon City residents, many of them women, will have a chance to view the work already accomplished.

Handsome Dogs Are Good Dogs.

In the most characteristic of English dogs, with the English bulldog as an unfortunate exception of a glaring sort, common sense principles in the canon of judging are distinctly marked. In the case of hounds any good eye can pick out the best animals. This was curiously illustrated not long since in private when an artist taken over one of the bigger kennels of foxhounds picked out the prize and pedigree dogs one after the other. He went purely by his own sense of what was strong and comely, of "strength and beauty not together," as Shelley says in a very different connection. - London Outlook.

U. S. QUILTS AS COLLECTION AGENCY

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The United States government, as long as President Wilson remains as its active head will not act as collection agent in South and Central American republics for big business, or guarantee any Wall Street loans to any foreign power.

Although official announcement to this effect may not be forthcoming for several days, it was learned from a private source here this afternoon that President Wilson is determined that his administration shall adopt this course from the outset. President Wilson and his cabinet this afternoon discussed a request by J. P. Morgan & Co., Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and other financiers participating in the Six Power loan proposed to be made to China. They wanted the state department to sanction the loan so as the security may be unquestioned and the return of the loan guaranteed by Chinese custom collections.

President Wilson, however, is determined, it is learned from an authoritative source, that this government shall not collect private debts or guarantee any loans and it is understood Secretary of State Bryan strongly favors such an attitude. Immediately after Wilson's inauguration, representatives of certain financiers tried to secure Bryan's endorsement of the loan plan, saying it was favored by former Secretary of State Knox. Bryan gave these emissaries no satisfaction. It is understood the cabinet discussed the advisability of recognizing the new Chinese republic headed by President Yuan Shi Kai.

Alpha and Omega In Dogs, Or the Long and Short of It

HERE'S the long and the short of it in dogs, the alpha and omega in canines. The unabridged big fellow is White Star Barry, a champion St. Bernard; the pocket sized edition is Beautiful Lady, also a champion in her diminutive class. They were the two most notable extremes at the recent national dog show of the Westminster Kennel Club in New York City. Sir Levinthal gave a visit to a bay like the last despairing cry of a broken hearted bassoon. Miss Midget emitted a snarl like a disappointed baby freeracker on the fifth of July. Their owners each thought his "dawg" was about the last thing in hairy sublimity, or words to that effect.

We Need Those Captains of Industry Who Are Honest

By THOMAS A. EDISON, the famous inventor

WE all know that wealth is an illusion. I don't mean by this that money—enough of it for comfort—is an illusion. But great WEALTH is. What can Rockefeller do with his money? Do you think he is as happy as I am? Invested in industries, it belongs to the people. And what is the joy of a tin box full of photo-plate certificates showing a lot of figures? You can't take them with you when you die, and when you come to die you find you have been CHASING A FOOLISH ILLUSION AND LOST TRUE HAPPINESS ON THE WAY.

ON THE OTHER HAND, WE NEED THE CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY. IT IS A GOOD THING FOR THE HUMAN RACE THAT THEY HAVE THESE GREAT MINDS ARE ALL WORKING FOR THE CAUSE OF HUMAN PROGRESS, HOWEVER ROUNDABOUT IT MAY SEEM TO US NOW, AND ALL THE WHILE THEY THINK THEY ARE WORKING FOR SOMETHING THEY WANT AND COULDN'T GET ANY FUN OUT OF IF THEY HAD IT. There isn't any cause for alarm in that direction if we only WATCH THE CROOKS. Let a man make all he can honestly and he will do MORE FOR US THAN FOR HIMSELF. I agree with Governor Wilson on that, but I don't see how he is going to codify this principle and make it the law of the land. This must be done by EDUCATION, through the schools and the newspapers. The newspapers are doing their share, but OUR SCHOOLS ARE NOT. There is too much theory in our schools—too much old fashioned, impractical stuff. Academic, I believe they call it. Analyze it down and EDUCATION IS KEEPING A LONG WAY BEHIND THE TIMES.
