MR. BRYAN Secretary of State IS WISE Bryan, with the approval of President Wilson of course, announces that First Assistant Secretary Huntington Wilson will retain his post "indefinitely." Mr. Wilson regards the engagement as sufficiently definite to cancel his plans for a foreign tour.

It was understood that Mr. Bryan was to be provided with a highly expert assistant in the person of Professor John Bassett Moore of Columbia, who has apparently declined the post.

In Mr. Huntington Wilson—no relation of the President—Mr. Bryan is provided with an expert assistant of sixteen years' experience. Mr. Wilson has been in the diplomatic service since 1897. He was six years secretary of the legation and charge d'affaires at Tokio, where he improved his time by becoming the most expert Japanese scholar in the service. Since 1902 he has been one of the assistant secretaries at Washington.

Twice he has been gazetted minister to foreign countries, first to Roumania and Bulgaria and then to Argentina. Before he could reach

And then Oregon City will come into its own.

Just think, and there is all this in store for the expenditure of such a small sum. Can we afford to wait?

FORUM OF THE PEOPLE

BRYAN DEFENDED.

OREGON CITY, Or., March 19.—(To the Editor of the Enterprise.)—It seems that our Secretary of State has been charged with indiscretion by the British press in telling our Irish American citizens that Ireland had done right in securing home rule for Ireland when he delivered his St. Patrick's day speech. It seems to be the old trouble with the English, of overlooking something, when the English women asked for suffrage they sought to ignore them, hence the militant suffragettes. God bless them. They are martyrs and their cause must prevail. In the case of Bryan they overlooked the fact that Irish blood flows in his veins; that he has the right to congratulate his fellow countrymen on the great victory of their cousins across the seas. What's the matter with Bryan in the eyes of the English and also in the eyes of some citizens of this country is that he is the same Bryan in office that he has been the last 16 years, seeking office which fact to some, is an unpardonable offense. CHAS. M. MOFFITT.

SUFFRAGETTES WELCOMED.

OREGON CITY, Or., March 19.—(Editor of the Enterprise.)—According to the Associated Press this A. M., Mr. Smith, M. P. of Great Britain, advocated as a solution of the suffragette problems the deportation of the militant suffragettes as America has always been a home for the oppressed and persecuted ever since the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth, why not have Washington and Oregon extend an invitation to these patriotic women, whose presence is not appreciated at home and also to the women of other states that have seen fit to put the ban on woman's suffrage to come and make their home with us. We will greet them here with the right hand of fellowship and citizenship too and with as much warmth as the Englishmen bid them depart. CHAS. M. MOFFITT.

First "Votes For Women" Grocery Store, Its Cart and Backers

SELLING groceries, eggs and poultry, all labeled "Votes For Women," and delivering them in a yellow cart, wrapped in yellow paper and tied with yellow cord is a whole lot better than smashing windows, damaging letter box mail or burning down the homes of hated government officials. Besides, it's a heap safer. They're doing it in New York, the suffragists are. There they started the first "Votes For Women" store in the country. The picture shows the suffragist delivery cart in front of the store, with Miss Alice Hutchinson on the left and Mrs. Sarah Mayer on the right. They are officials of the company which started the enterprise. Others interested are Mrs. Sofia Kremer and Mrs. Alice S. Burke. They tend the store themselves and talk suffrage to every purchaser. They're selling stuff because they sell cheap. Whether they're advancing their cause or not is another question, but they claim they are.

Powerful American Navy For World's Peace

By Senator HENRY CABOT LODGE of Massachusetts

FOR THE PEACE OF THE COUNTRY, AND THEREFORE THE PEACE OF THE WORLD, A POWERFUL AMERICAN NAVY IN THE PRESENT CONDITION OF HUMAN AFFAIRS IS ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL.

The United States seeks no territory and desires no conquests. There is no nation on earth with which we do not wish to maintain the most friendly relations. A powerful navy is a GUARANTEE OF PEACE AND NOTHING ELSE. If we abandon it within five years—certainly within ten years—aggressions would be made upon us which the American people WOULD NOT TOLERATE for a moment.

No extravagance which can be committed will equal that of economizing by reducing the navy.

A few years ago England undertook to economize in her navy. As a consequence she is now, for the first time in two hundred years, to take a backward step in the Mediterranean and withdraw her fleet to Gibraltar, and at this moment she is striving with feverish haste to make up by LAVISH APPROPRIATION FOR THE TIME SO UNWISLY LOST.

THAT THE UNITED STATES SHOULD BE AT PEACE WITH ALL NATIONS AND SHOULD EXERT ITS GREAT INFLUENCE FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF THE WORLD'S PEACE IS ABOVE ALL THINGS TO BE DESIRED, BUT THE PRIMARY CONDITION OF OUR PEACE RESTS UPON THE NAVY OF THE UNITED STATES. WHILE WE HAVE A POWERFUL NAVY NO ONE WILL ATTACK US AND WE SHALL BE ABLE TO USE OUR INFLUENCE IN THE CAUSE OF PEACE EVERYWHERE.
