Suggestive in Questions Sunday School Lessons

(41) A pastor in a leading Presbyterian Church in writing to the author of the Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson says: "You are a stranger to me but I have to say I admire your Suggestive Questions, as published in the Morning Enterprise very much. They will greatly increase interest in Bible study. Calling the attention of the first teacher I met to them I found she had used them and intended calling the attention of her class to them—a class of high school girls." This is the way all students of these Questions feel concerning them.

Questions for March 23

(Copyright, 1911, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)

Isaac and Rebekah. Gen. xxiv. Golden Text—In all thy ways acknowledge him and he will direct thy paths. Prov. III:6.

(1) Verse 1—Should a good old man be a straight promise to bind the conscience of an intelligent man?

(2) Verse 2—What would you say in value of a faithful workman or foreman or an absolutely trustworthy confidential secretary to an employer?

(3) What, if any, value is an oath over a straight promise to bind the conscience of an intelligent man?

(4) Isaac was thirty-six years old when Abraham, his father, sent his servant to seek him a wife. Would you say that every man should marry and if so, at what age?

(5) If a son is not interested to get a wife, ought his parents put a pressure on him to do so?

(6) What importance should be attached to nationality, family and religion, as compared with personality in choosing a wife or accepting a husband?

(7) How much does God do in the selection of the wife of a truly good man?

(8) Would you say or not, and why, that all true marriages are made in heaven?

(9) Verses 10-20—If an industrious man in an honorable calling constantly seeks help from God, may he with safety quiet his heart from all anxiety and be assured of success? Why?

(10) How much consideration ought a woman, when her hand is sought in marriage, give to her suitor's worldly possessions?

(11) If two salesmen, both Christians of equal ability, start out to sell goods, and one prays for success with every prospect, while the other does not, what would be the difference if any, in their degrees of success?

(12) Whether a man is rich or poor, which woman would make him the better wife, other things being equal, one who knows how to work, or one who has been raised in luxury without work? Why?

(13) Verses 21-28—What is the difference in the restful assurance produced by faith and that which comes from faith being actually realized through fact?

(14) Verses 29-42—Who was Laban and what part does he play in Bible history?

(15) Why is it that presents form such an important part in courtship and marriage?

(16) Why is it unwise in these days for cousins to marry?

Verses 43-49—Of two young women, the one frank, cheerful, communicative and obliging; the other timid, reserved and self contained, which is the one more likely to get a good husband? (This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing by members of the club.)

(18) Verses 50-53—Why would you say or not that all the goods things which we get come from the Lord?

(19) What effect does a devout recognition of God's benefits have upon our generosity?

(20) Verses 54-61—What can you say in favor of the man who is in a hurry to get home as soon he has finished his business.

(21) Verses 62-67—When you know a man meditates in the fields at nights how would you estimate his general character?

(22) What great historic significance is there in the marriage of Isaac and Rebekah?

Pat's Remedy. Irish wit is a well head that has never been known to run dry. Pat Maguire had been misbehaving and appeared before his commanding officer charged for the third time with drunkenness.

Pat stated his side of the case with all the eloquence at his command, but the colonel was unmoved.

"Eight days in the guardhouse," he said sternly.

But in writing the "S" on Pat's defaulter sheet the pen spluttered. Pat noticed this and leaped forward.

"Thy if 'twill make a 'T anny alsier, sorr," he suggested in a persuasive whisper.

NEEDY

Miss RRachel Spencer who has been on the sick list is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mitts and son, Erman, of Albany, visited the former parents the latter part of the week returning home Friday.

L. L. Lantz and son, Cecil, went to Canby Saturday.

The sale at Mrs. B. F. Smith's Friday was a great success. Everything sold high. About a hundred teams were present.

Carl Casady who has been working for J. E. Mitts returned to his home at Carcus Monday.
