The $100,000,000 M'Lean Baby And His Little Negro Valet

Of course you have heard about "the $100,000,000 baby" and his little negro playmate, now his valet. Equally, of course, you have formed your opinion about this idea of the little heir's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. McLean of Washington. "I don't want my son to grow up a snob," was the way Mr. McLean explained why he provided a little negro child for his son's companionship. This picture of the two children, one white and the heir to millions, and the other black and penniless, was taken on the exclusive boardwalk at Palm Beach, Fla., where the McLeans are spending the winter. From all accounts the two became the best of chums. How will the plan work? As Sir Roger de Coverly remarked, "There's much to be said on both sides of the question."

$19,000 WARRANTS OF CITY TO BE PAID

The money for $19,000 bonds was received Thursday by City Treasurer M. D. Latourette from Morris Bros., of Portland. The bonds will be used in paying off the present city warrants on Water Street, Monroe Street, Fourteenth Street, Washington Street and sewer district No. nine. The bonds carry $100 premium and $60.70 accrued interest. The city will not only be benefited by a lower rate of interest on these bonds, but it will be much simpler to carry the large bond issues than it is at the present time, of having several hundred city warrants.

A Muzzling Burglar. From continental Europe comes the story of a burglar who left the following note pinned to the pillow in a mansion he had ransacked: "In the Bible it says, 'Lead us not into temptation.' You and your show of wealth tempted me, and I fell, though an honest workman. Therefore you are the sinner, not I. Repent before it is too late."

Stock Exchange Is Not a Place For Safe Investments

By CHARLES G. DAWES, Banker, of Chicago

THE STOCK EXCHANGE IS NOT A PLACE FOR SAFE INVESTMENTS. The man who patronizes stockbrokers is buying goods from a public show window managed by SELLERS WHO HIDE IN THE DARK. He does not know the conditions which surround the investment he is asked to make. Take the stock of railroads for which manipulators desire a sale at a high price. They arrange with other large holders of stock to form a pool. Now, that is not a pool of money to buy something. But it is at first a pool to keep something from being sold. Why? Because they have got to do a little buying themselves to KEEP THE PUBLIC INTERESTED. They have got something to sell, but in order to get you interested in the uptrend of the stock they buy a little at first. Then come what are known as the "wash sales." One firm of brokers will bid the stock up and down by prearranged transactions with other brokers. UNDER THESE CONDITIONS WHAT CHANCE HAS THE ORDINARY MAN WHEN HE CAN HAVE NO CONFIDENCE IN THE RELIABILITY OR FAIRNESS OF THE CONDITIONS WHICH UNDERLIE STOCK EXCHANGE PRICES? YOU CANNOT BEAT THE GAME. If you have money to invest on which you wish to bring good interest the safest and best way is to INVEST IT WITH SOME SUCCESSFUL MAN YOU KNOW PERSONALLY and invest it in the business in which that man is successful.
