

Suggestive in Questions
Sunday School Lessons

(41) A pastor in a leading Presbyterian Church in writing to the author of the Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson says: "You are a stranger to me but I have to say I admire your Suggestive Questions, as published in the Morning Enterprise very much. They will greatly increase interest in Bible study. Calling the attention of the first teacher I met to them I found she had used them and intended calling the attention of her class to them—a class of high school girls. This is the way all students of these Questions feel concerning them."

POTATO MARKET HAS WORSE SLUMP

Potato markets along the coast are showing further declines in price and the outlook is worse than before, if such a condition is possible.

At San Francisco, Oregon Burbanks have dropped down to 6. c per cental for best offerings, and little of the business is available even at this figure. River stock is selling there down to 35c per cental, the lowest price ever known for similar quality.

At Puget Sound points the market has become so clogged with offerings that it is impossible to sell more than a small per cent of the arrivals even at 55 and 56c per cental. Locally the situation is even worse than at other points along the coast owing to the entire absence of an outlet. California does not want Oregon supplies because there are more holdings there than the trade can take care of. Arizona and Texas are able to buy potatoes closer at home at lower prices than Pacific northwest stock can be landed there, therefore, none of this business is offering. This is the first year known that no business has been possible with the southwest.

EGGS ARE UP.
Eggs have had a sharp rise in the local market within the last few days. This is due, according to local authorities, to the fact that one of the large Portland commission houses contracted to ship six carloads of them. They did not have this immense quantity and have been forced to buy all over the Northwest, with the result that the price has risen accordingly. It is thought that they will fall in a week or two.

Prevailing Oregon City prices are as follows:
HIDES—(Buying) Green salted, 7c to 8c; sheep pelts 75c to $1.50 each.

OATS—$24.00 to $26.50; wheat 93; oil meal selling $38.00; Shay Brook dairy feed $1.30 per hundred pounds. Whole corn $29.00.

Livestock, Meats.
BEEF—(Live weight) steers 7 and 8c; cows 6 and 7 c, bulls 4 to 6c.
MUTTON—Sheep 5 to 6 1-2; lambs 6 to 6 1-2c.

VESSELS CRUSHED BY ICE; CREWS ESCAPE

NOME, Alaska, March 21.—Sam Gatschalk, a sailor from the whaling schooner Moras, reached here last night after a four months' trip over the broken ice of Bering strait, bringing word of the loss of his ship and the schooner Kittiwack, both of which were crushed by the ice floes north of the Diomed Islands.

In spite of the terrible storms and the lack of food, all hands reached Alaska safely, except Captain Whiting of the Moras, who refused to risk the trip across the straits, saying that it was sure death. He started south for Plover Bay, Siberia, and whether he reached it or not is not known.

After the schooners were wrecked the crews, including Captain Koren of the Kittiwack, making rescues in the Arctic, set out for the Seward Peninsula in the only remaining whale boat. Heavy seas smashed the boat as they were nearing big Diomed Islands. For three months the party subsisted on walrus, living in huts built of stones and ice, before they were able to attempt the passage of the 100 miles of broken ice to the mainland. Gatschalk reports that the other men are safe in an Eskimo settlement.

The Kittiwack was formerly the gasoline schooner Alva and is one of the smallest boats which ever ventured into the Arctic seas.
