THE FALLACY

In considering the question of the sufficiency of wages for women we are apt to fall victims to the doctrine of averages. That insufficient wages create a condition which leads to lamentable results is conceded by all sides. Those results often come, we are only too well aware, when wages are insufficient for actual living, but not for much else in the way of amusement and neat or tasteful dressing. But it is the forced results of an actual insufficiency of wages to support life in decency and in the manner the nature of the employment demands which are being considered just now, and they can not be dealt with on the average principle. The wage of each girl stands by itself. It is the only one she can use. The girl drawing $5 a week may combine with the one drawing $20 statistically, but she can not do so actually. She must live on her own $5. Therefore, talk of the average wages paid in an establishment does not reach the heart of the matter.

The figures quoted in reports of the Chicago investigation go to show that $8 a week is an absolute minimum for mere existence of a girl living entirely upon her own income. They seem to make no provision for clothing, shoes and hats. Girls naturally desire to be neatly and becomingly dressed. It takes money to buy hats, suits, waists, shoes and the long list of things necessary in a girl's wardrobe. This can scarcely be done by those who receive anything below the average. Fortunately for most of these, they live at home and are not entirely dependent upon their own earnings for these things a woman must have which are not included in the schedule of necessary expenses. It is the unfortunate girl who does not have such a home to supplement her income who must be considered in determining the sufficiency of wages.

We believe that those who have not already cleaned up, will do so when they realize that the community as a whole expects them to act in accordance with a general desire to make our town one in which we can take honest pride. On the other hand, those who wilfully disregard the rights of their fellow-neighbors in neglecting to remedy conditions which menace our common interests will be dealt with strictly as city ordinances direct.

To express our good faith to the people in doing our duty as we recognize it, we intend to see that the recently organized garbage collection system is maintained and expanded as conditions warrant, and to push forward numerous other plans tending toward a permanent improvement of the sanitation and healthfulness of our city.

That this work may be speedily and thoroughly accomplished, we ask the hearty endorsement and cooperation of all right minded and progressive citizens in a united effort to give to Oregon City the position its natural advantages easily make possible—a beautiful city of well-kept, healthy homes.

JUSTICE OF PEACE SIEVERS OFFICIATES AT WEDDING

Justice of the Peace Sievers, successor of W. W. H. Samson, officiated his first wedding Saturday. Although a young man, Mr. Sievers was composed and acted as if he had been officiating at weddings for years.

Art an Aid to Business

By HARRISON S. MORRIS, U. S. Commissioner to the International Art Exposition at Rome In 1911

FOR THE MERE EQUIPMENT OF A BUSINESS LIFE ART IS NOT A BAD FOUNDATION. THE STUDENT LEARNS EXACTITUDE AND PATIENCE AND ADHERENCE TO FORMULAS AS THEY ARE REFLECTED IN NATURE. AND, MOREOVER, THE ABILITY OF HARD OUTLINES OF BUSINESS WITH THE SWEETER COLORS OF ART WILL BE FOUND NOT ONLY A MENTAL AND PHYSICAL BENEFIT AS YEARS BRING THEIR WEIGHT OF DUTY, BUT THE POWER THAT FLOWS FROM THE KNOWLEDGE OF ART AND ITS PRINCIPLES WILL BE OWNED BY ANY ONE WHO HAS HAD TO DEAL WITH MEN. "KNOWLEDGE IS POWER." A little knowledge is not a dangerous thing. It was a dangerous thing to tyrants and oppressors to those who wanted to monopolize rights that belonged to the ignorant. As long as the people could be kept ignorant, so long would usurped authority last. Thus the so called "ruling class" invented the motto, "A LITTLE KNOWLEDGE IS A DANGEROUS THING," because even a little knowledge frees the mind from dependence on others. We are free, just in the degree that we know. Art is really OUR PLAYMATE and handmaiden if we go cheerfully along with her.

STREIBIG ONLY LOCAL MAN AT HANGING

H. W. Streibig, the meat dealer of this city, was the only Oregon City man present at the hanging of George and Charles Humphrys, convicted of killing Mrs. Eliza Griffith, of Philomath, at Salem Saturday morning. Mr. Streibig several weeks ago asked Sheriff Mass to obtain for him permission to attend the execution. The authorities at Salem informed the sheriff that he would have to accompany the meat merchant to that city the day of the executions to identify him. Sheriff Mass accordingly went with Mr. Streibig to Salem Friday night. The sheriff did not attend the hanging. Mr. Streibig says the work was done expeditiously and as humanely as such work can be done.

WIFE SAYS HUSBAND TRIED TO KILL HER

Alleging that her husband threatened to kill her, Lydia Mills Saturday filed suit for a divorce from Laurence Miller. They were married in Albuquerque, New Mexico, October 17, 1906. The plaintiff says the defendant frequently struck her and finally she left him and went to Portland. She avers he followed her and a reconciliation was effected and they lived together from January 10, 1902, until March 4, 1904, when the defendant again threatened to kill her. Brownell & Stone represent the plaintiff. Morton H. Abbey asks a decree from Lulu E. Abbey. They were married October 21, 1911, at Newport, Or. The plaintiff says his wife deserted him March 10, 1912.

MARSHALL, BABCOCK AND BECKWITH TIPPED

SALEM, Or., March 22.—The prediction was made here today that Governor West will name W. A. Marshall and Harvey Beckwith, of Portland, and C. D. Babcock, of this city, as members of the Workmen's Compensation Commission. There is a possibility that the Governor may place either T. A. Rinehart, agent of the State Land Board, or R. A. Harris, state printing expert, on the commission.

Marshall was formerly editor of the Labor Press. Beckwith until recently was connected with the Wells-Fargo Express Company in Portland. Babcock is corporation clerk in the office of the Secretary of State, and was a candidate for Corporation Commission to which position the Governor elevated his private secretary, Ralph W. Watson.

Summons.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Clackamas. Elmer E. Armstrong, Plaintiff, vs. Cassa Armstrong, Defendant. To Cassa Armstrong, the above named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the Order for Publication of this summons, to-wit: on or before the 7th day of April, 1913, said day being the expiration of six weeks from the first publication of this notice; and if you fail to appear and answer, for want thereof the plaintiff herein will apply to the said court for the relief prayed for in the said complaint, to-wit: that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between yourself and plaintiff herein, be dissolved and forever annulled, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable.

This summons is published by the order of the Hon. J. U. Campbell, Judge of the Circuit Court for Clackamas County, Oregon, made February 20th, 1913. By said order it was directed that this summons be published in the Morning Enterprise once in each week, for six successive weeks and the date of the first publication thereof is February 22nd, 1913, the date named in said order for the said first publication. MARTIN WATROUS, Attorney for Plaintiff, 607 Yeon Bldg., Portland, Ore.
