BEATIE EXONERATED BY HIGHER COURT

Circuit Judge Campbell has dismissed the contempt proceedings against County Judge Beatie in the suit involving the estate of a man whose body was found near Springbrook Schoolhouse, near Oswego, five years ago. About $650 was found upon the corpse. Mrs. Effie B. Robinson said that the man was her father, F. A. Williamson, and she was appointed administratrix by County Judge Dimick. Judge Dimick later became convinced that Mrs. Robinson was not a daughter of the man and removed her as administratrix. Bernard Haist led, through Attorney Frank C. Hesse, that the dead man was his brother, Christian Haist. Bernard Haist died soon after and Attorney Hesse was appointed by the Governor to institute escheat proceedings. Judge Beatie, soon after being elected to office, approved the report of Mrs. Robinson as administratrix, and Mr. Hesse asked that he be punished for contempt of court. Judge Beatie appointed W. W. Myers administratrix de bonis non.

FOL DE ROL CLUB GIVES DANCE TONIGHT

Plans have been completed for the Fol de Rol dance which will be given in this city this evening. Most of the club members will be kept busy today decorating Busch's Hall, in which a Japanese scene will be used. A large number of Japanese lanterns will be used and the whole room will be made to resemble a bit of Japan. Olson's orchestra will play only the latest and most modern music. The music at the last dance created much favorable comment.

A unique feature of the evening will be several distinct and original ideas that will probably be used in connection with the moonlight dances. A small spot light will be operated in the balcony and will play upon the floor during these dances. If the weather permits the beautiful balcony overlooking the river will be used as a promenade. Punch will be served. The patronesses will be Mrs. L. L. Pickens, Mrs. John Lewthwaite, Jr., Mrs. J. W. Cole and Mrs. M. D. Latourette.

Attractive programs as well as invitations have been prepared. The committee in charge of the dance is composed of Joe Hedges, Allie E. Levitt, Lorain Ostrom, Raymond Caulfield, Lloyd Harding, Alfred Cook, Kent Moody, Kent Wilson and Arthur Parr.

FORUM OF THE PEOPLE

THE LIBRARIAN'S DEPARTURE.

OREGON CITY, April 3.—(Editor of the Enterprise.)—I was glad to see in your editorial column, Saturday, reference made to the departure of Miss Holmes, librarian, and rather liked the way you talked of the same. That the community has sustained a distinct loss in the departure of one so specially qualified for the work is admitted by all. Certain it is that the library committee can easily get what was considered at one time a "librarian," that is a person to hand out books, and check them.

But to get a librarian in the true sense of the word is a different proposition. So much depends on the advice given, especially to the young, on what books to read and what not to read.

I think the people of Oregon City should demand the exact cause of Miss Holmes' departure. Hoping the library committee will do this.

FARMERS PUT UP MONEY.

OREGON CITY, April 2.—(Editor of the Enterprise.)—Just a few words I hope you may print. "Our O. A. C. entertains in fine style our manufacturers association, and who pays for it?" The farmers pay for it. The O. A. C. entertains the State Grange which the editor of the Courier Equity News knows is a farmers' organization, and which has many times the number of members the Manufacturers' Association has. Who pays for it? The farmers pay part of it.

"Twenty-two O. A. C. students are ducked by a committee of upper classmen. We farmers might stop a good deal of lobbying and save the state several hundreds of dollars by going down there and join in the game." I suggest that the Courier's Equity editor make the trip at once. If he wishes I will go along and help him. The sooner he takes the plunge the sooner will some of his muddied colored ideas be washed away.

"Our state appropriates large sums to our O. A. C. to have the streets of Corvallis paved." The Courier editor might also absorb a little information along this line after he had his bath. In fact he could find many things the girls and also the boys have done to help things along.

"Our O. A. C. wants all our money to entertain the Manufacturers' Association and then make fun of us for not having automobiles." Just above these lines the Courier's editor styles himself the haysed editor. The name surely fits, for who else would have such a wonderfully brilliant idea. The ducking might also brighten this point a bit.

The Editor has the right idea about the accounts he should keep of the hogs, berries and the number of spuds it takes to educate a boy at the O. A. C. I have seen it tried and it works fine. The Courier's Equity Editor can do no better by himself, his boy, or humanity than to count out the spuds at once and start his boy to college before he absorbs too much from his father.

If the Courier is too fine a paper to carry the college advertisement why does it stoop so low as to throw mud at the same. "Space in the Courier is too valuable for such nonsense as that."

I suppose the article, "Just Nonsense," belongs to the Equity Editor also. Surely he spent a great deal of time to think of that. His only mistake was in not placing it at the head of those two columns. His views and comments would be well classified then.

In the above mentioned article, why limit the number of hours to four or six a day Mr. Editor? Wouldn't it be better to make it twelve or fourteen as the farmer does who knows more than the "dressed up teachers?" Why put the days at five? Your man in overalls and jumpers puts in seven as a rule. Why not try out your plan on your own boy and girl, if you are so blessed, so the world may judge the wonderful results. "If you don't agree to a proposition of this kind it is proof" that you are standing in the way of the working man's progress.

Brother Harris, if the Courier's Equity Editor wishes to know; used a fine brand of liniment for four years and has never given it up since. I have seen it work on many others and although the Equity Editor's case may be rather doubtful I know it can be highly recommended.

If the Courier's Equity Editor wishes to visit the institution at Corvallis I will be glad to furnish half of the car fare and go with him on his tour of inspection.

Yours truly,
D. S. YOUNG.

CLUB DECIDES TO BUILD SIDEWALK

The Mount Pleasant Civic Improvement Club Tuesday night decided to build a sidewalk on the east side of the road as far as the material on hand would go, providing the residents would agree to build the walk to the cut-off. It was decided that the sidewalk committee should investigate the planting of telephone poles, digging of ditches, etc. A meeting was called for April 8 for the committee to make a report. P. W. Meredith resigned as a member of the sidewalk committee, declaring that he was too busy to give his attention to the work. T. E. McLain, president of the club, was elected chairman of the committee. The entertainment committee reported that an entertainment would be held the latter part of April. Mrs. A. C. Warner, Mrs. J. M. Warnock and Mrs. T. E. McLain were appointed a committee to arrange for the juvenile fair. Mrs. Warner was appointed a committee of one to attend a meeting of the Oregon City Woman's Club April 10.

BOOSTING GREAT THING, DECLARES O. D. EBY

O. D. Eby was the principal speaker at a big meeting of the West Side Improvement Club in the schoolhouse at Bolton Thursday night. The house was crowded and Mr. Eby's address on "Boosting" was interesting and thoroughly appreciated. The speaker called attention to what had been accomplished by the Oregon City Commercial Club and said the West Side Club could do as well proportionately.

C. A. Miller spoke on "Everybody an Optimist." He declared if everyone would only be happy and take an optimistic view of conditions all would be successful. John Draper, the rose grower of Bolton, delivered an interesting address on "Boosting." He suggested that the people keep their yards clean, declaring that success, like charity, began at home. Misses Dorothy and Irene Doyle entertained with recitations. The county court was complimented upon the work done on the roads on the West Side.

KRAPP, IN FORM, TO TWIRL TODAY

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Portland and San Francisco were scheduled to play the third game of the opening Coast League series this afternoon on the new Oakland diamond, but rain caused a postponement. Eugene Krapp had been chosen to fling for Portland, opposing Flame Delhi, the former Angel, who has asked to pitch every game for the Seals this year, both at Oakland and at Venice. Therefore, these two ex-big league gunners will likely be the opposing cracksmen tomorrow.

Krapp says his arm is as good as ever in his career. McCredie is grooming Rip Hagerman to battle the Chicago spitballer, Douglass, and as Douglass arrived this morning to join the Seals these two big fellows may be the attraction on Saturday. Or yet again, they may be saved for one of the two games Sunday. The morning matinee will dedicate the Oak stadium.

Madero on taking office began recruiting volunteer troops with the ex-insurrecto corps as a basis. In the meantime the regular army was not recruited to normal strength. The desertion to the opposing side of the majority of the volunteer troops has left the actual government forces far below
