AS OTHERS SEE Says the Establisment. OREGON CITY, cada Progress: "Regardless of the outcome of the investigations, one thing is certain, Oregon City merchants and business men are being benefited by those occasional squalls as the 500 men who gathered here last Saturday would leave several dollars each there. It is a mighty good advertising scheme if nothing else and will draw more people to their town than any bargain counter sale."

PITCHER DAHLGREN A UNION MAN. This big Dahlgren, whose home is in Minneapolis, who returned to the Cincinnati Reds this spring after a year's absence, is a character good enough for loads of fun if he only lasts with the club. He has his own ideas all the time, and Waldell's story no funnier. "They tell a story that two years ago Dahlgren was pitching a strenuous game, and the score was 0 to 0 in the ninth. As his team started for the field to begin the tenth Dahlgren suddenly dropped the ball and started for the bench. "Hey, Dahlgren, what's the matter?" cried his manager. "Dahlgren held up a large brown hand for attention and then made oratory. "Meester Manager," Dahlgren is reported as saying, "Ay ban guide hard vorker. Ay ban villing out Ay skal peech-das ten emines. But fen Ay ban ask that Ay skal go das overtime Ay ban made kick. Ay ban guide union mans, an' Ay not vork overtime unless Ay skal get overtime pay!"

NEW BELL THEATRE OPENS NEXT WEEK

Announcement has been made by A. J. Bell, proprietor of the new Bell theatre, that this theatre will open Wednesday. Mr. Bell has spent much money and considerable time in having the Electric theatre torn out, and in its place has built the Bell theatre. The front of the building has been replaced with an arched lobby with mirrors on either side, and white globes enclosing electric lights on the ceiling and archway. The ticket booth is in the center. The inside has been made 20 feet longer, and has been redecorated throughout and repapered. The ceiling is cream white, and the walls red with green panels. The room is lighted by the indirect lighting system by which the light is cast upon the ceiling and reflected below. Green burlap forms the lower border of the walls. A bal-

Divorce Evil Must Be Dealt With Severely

By Circuit Judge JOHN P. M'GOORTY of Illinois

THE ONLY REAL REFORM FOR THE DIVORCE EVIL IS TO PREVENT THE POSSIBILITY OF ITS OCCURRENCE. IT MUST BE DEALT WITH RIGIDLY. AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION IS WORTH ANY AMOUNT OF CURE.

Marriage is the most important act in the life of a man and woman, and they should not be permitted to RUSH INTO IT UNTHINKINGLY. They are not the only interested parties. Society has an even greater interest.

Applicants for a marriage license should be required to FILE THEIR APPLICATION AT LEAST FIFTEEN DAYS BEFORE the license is issued. In connection with the filing of the application a complete history of both parties should be filed with it.

Kaiser's Newest Grandchild And the Tot's Fond Parents

Photo by American Press Association. MOTHERS will be especially interested in this picture. It shows Prince August Wilhelm, third son of Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany, and his wife bending in love and pride over their new baby, now four months old. He's a cute little mite of humanity, and it is said he is in a roundabout way responsible for healing the breach between the Kaiser and the crown prince. The Emperor's heart was said to be greatly softened by the arrival of his new grandson.

ROD AND GUN MEN MAY START PROBE

The dismissal of E. C. Greenman, superintendent of the Bonneville state hatchery, by Master Game Warden Clinton will be one of the chief topics of discussion at the regular meeting of the Clackamas County Rod & Gun club next Tuesday night. There are several phases of the dismissal and the subsequent results at the hatchery that local Nimrods believe will be worth probing.

ELKS UNANIMOUSLY CONFIRM ELECTION

Oregon City Lodge No. 1189, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, held its annual election of officers Friday night and chose the same officers a few weeks ago. Because of reported technical irregularities in holding the election, Grand Exalted Ruler Mills ordered another election which was held under the direction of Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Daniels, of Medford. Every officer elected Friday night was the unanimous choice of the lodge. The newly elected members are: Henry O'Malley, exalted ruler; William R. Logus, Esteemed leading knight; Tom P. Randall, Esteemed loyal knight; E. C. Warren, Esteemed lecturing knight; E. J. Noble, secretary; W. B. Howell, treasurer; H. W. Striebig, Tyler; William Sheahan, trustee for three years; Henry O'Malley, delegate to grand lodge; Clyde Mount, alternate to grand lodge.

SUGAR JOINS DULL CHEAPER STAPLES

With the canning season yet far away, and with housewives not particularly interested in changes in price of such commodities as sugar, the announcement Friday that a reduction of 20 cents a hundred pounds had been ordered by Pacific Coast refiners as a result of tariff changes created but little interest in local circles. However, wholesale sugar is cheaper, and quite likely the drop will be reflected in a change in retail prices.
