An article in Saturday's Enterprise created no little comment ebcause it was thought by many that this paper had changed its policy with regards to hard surface. The Enterprise is still strongly in favor of permanent streets as ever. The Enterprise takes folly ti lay macadam streets which blow away in the summer time and wash away in the winter. The article in Saturday's paper was printed be-cause this paper wished to give both sides of the question, and It was the substance of the opposition of he several men who are fighting hard
