A GOOD TIME The latter part of ors. FOR BOOSTING this week Oregon City is going to be running over with people, quite a fair percentage of whom will be absolute strangers to the city and but slightly acquainted with the locality. Most of the strangers will be here in attendance at the State Sunday School convention. Those who come in for the Booster Day celebration and Annual Stock Show will be more or less familiar with the community.

Therefore this is a good time to boost the town, and to do it earnestly and sincerely.

Oregon City's famed hospitality will speak for itself, but there is more than nospitality needed. There should be everywhere apparent an air of optimism. Every visitor to the city should be impressed with the happiness of residents of Oregon City, and prices, though there is a difference in they should be made to feel that this happiness is based on a true and eggs are quoted at 20 and 22 cents a steadfast confidence in the town and dozen, while in Portland the prevailits resources and future.
