contractor's profit, etc. In closing his report Mr. Dieck told the council that the work could probably be done, it would be found, for from five to ten per cent less than his gross estimate.

Upon completion of the hearing of the report, the council ordered copies blue-printed, and will study the matter in detail at a later session. The work outlined is general in scope, and the plan will require about a year to carry out when work is once started.

COUNCILMEN ASK ELEVATOR PLANS

City Recorder and the special council committee having charge of the proposed elevator to be constructed on the face of the bluff, near the railroad depot, were Wednesday night ordered by the council to advertise for bids and specifications for the lift, so that the council might determine what make of apparatus it was best to adopt.

The proposal to construct an elevator for free public use was advanced some weeks ago, and since that time has been allowed to drop from sight. It was brought up at the council meeting through the inquiry of several people as to what the city proposed to do in the matter. The construction of the elevator, and its operation by the municipality, will be a great assistance to people in the residence district on the bluff, and will make unnecessary the present tedious climb up the inclines and stairs.

AUTO BANQUET'S FAME WILL LAST

The second annual banquet of the Clackamas County Automobile club, which was held in the club house of the Portland Automobile club, Wednesday evening, has set a mark that will be difficult for any future affair to surpass. About sixty-five local enthusiasts journeyed to the club house on the banks of the Sandy river, 22 miles from this city. At the club, the Clackamas county delegation was met by about ten members and representatives of the Portland Automobile club.

At 8 o'clock an elaborate banquet was served in the dining room. The tables, were arranged in the form of a huge letter A, and were beautifully decorated with flowering almond, dogwood and other spring flowers. A large round table formed the top of the letter A, and from the center of this flowers were arranged in the shape so as to represent spokes, the table forming a huge wheel.

After the twelve course dinner had been served, Dr. H. S. Mount, president of the club, and toast master, called upon the following to speak: E. C. Latourette, expressed his views upon married life as observed from one who was about to enter into wedded bliss. Captain J. A. Anderson, told of his delights and pleasures, which were derived from his car, compared to those of crossing the plains in an ox team, which the Captain did 65 years ago. Charles Risley, who acted as the delegate to the last automobile convention held during March in Washington D. C., also spoke.

J. C. Friendly, member of the house committee of the Portland Automobile club, welcomed the Clackamas delegation in behalf of the Portland club. George C. Knight, secretary of the club, voiced the same sentiments. H. S. Colter, member of the entertainment committee was another speaker. H. E. Seymour, W. Chambers and G. West were other speakers.

An informal dance was enjoyed after the banquet speeches and the party departed for home about 11:30.

The following are among those who made the trip: Mr. and Mrs. B. T. McBain, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Pickens, in the McBain car; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Brodie, Mrs. Nelva Barlow Lawrence, Miss Nelva Harding and Lee Harding, in the Brodie car; Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Latourette, Miss Ruth Stiewer, E. C. On the immediate family and one or two intimate friends of the bride were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Hillebrand. The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by Miss Teresa McMillan, of Portland. Mr. Busch was attended by his brother, Edward Busch. STOCK EXHIBITS WILL BE DIVIDED

So great has been the number of entries at the annual Stock Show that those in charge have found the Pioneer barn insufficient to house all the animals that will be brought in for the two-day display on Friday and Saturday. In order to accommodate the livestock, therefore, the exhibits have been divided, and horses and cattle will be shown at the display barn on Main street, between Third and Fourth, while sheep, hogs and other animals will be placed in pens under tents on the approach to the Eleventh street dock, between Busch's store and the Oregon Commission company.

Among the horses that will be exhibited is Hal B, with a record of 2:04 1/2, the greatest race horse and sire in Oregon. This horse has brought many trophies to the state, and will be put through his paces here for the entertainment of visitors. Other famous animals will also be on view.

WOMEN BEGS FARE TO OREGON CITY

PORTLAND, Or., April 23.—(Special)—Mrs. S. Buckwell, who says she is the wife of Dr. A. E. T. Buckwell, of Oregon City, and Arthur Bronken, her son by a former marriage, were arrested Wednesday night in Laurelhurst, where it is charged they had been begging from door to door. Laurelhurst is a suburb of this city largely occupied by millionaires and well-to-do people. Several residents of the district complained to the police that the woman and her companion were hanging around and soliciting alms, and that when they were refused they replied with oaths and vile language.

At the police station Mrs. Buckwell declared that she was only seeking carfare to get to her home in Oregon City. She and the man with her were booked on a vagrancy charge.

No woman by the above name is known as a resident of Oregon City at the present time.

MRS. MCGILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts in Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good.

One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more.

Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for ailments peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need. We urge you to try it.
