The New Cowl Dash Car

ONE of the most popular 1913 models is our COWL DASH touring car. This is one of the season's "six best sellers." Wherever it has been shown it has met with immediate approval. The graceful cowl adds a touch of completeness and finish to the body, which distinguishes and separates it from the average run of touring cars.

This model is a great favorite abroad---particularly in the big European metropolitan centers, where the demand is always for something more unique without loss of practicability.

The chasses of this five-passenger car is the same as our famous Model 69 ---the brief specifications and equipment are given below.

Our allotment of cowl dash touring cars is very limited. We would advise you to have an immediate demonstration so that if you do not want your car at once, you can book your order for delivery when you are ready for it.

This, like all Overland Cars, costs you 30 per cent less than any other similar car manufactured. If we built less than 40,000 cars a year, this model would cost you just that much more.

CITY OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER

THE ANNUAL This is the time of JUERY AGAIN the year when the average man goes into the family wardrobe, pulls everything off the top shelf, musses up the fur coats that his wife has carefully wrapped in newspapers to keep the moths away, and finally, from under his eldest daughter's dancing pumps, in the back corner drags forth the straw hat that he wore the season before, and regards it carefully and with much meditation. He scrapes a bit at the band with his penknife, and determines that he will have to get his helpmate to put a new ribbon on in its place. Then he discovers that there is a large brown stain on the rim that somewhat spoils the appearance of the hat, but decides that a little lemon juice will take that out because he has decided to save money this year so that his youngest boy can have a vacation at the seashore, he surreptitiously delves into the pantry, obtains three lemons, cuts them up in the bathroom, and proceeds to attack the brown stain on the rim.

Perhaps further detailing of the process is unnecessary. Eventually the hat is in reasonably presentable shape, and interfamilias decides that by the effort put forth he has saved practically three dollars, and will wear the refurbished hat for another season. With a happy smile he goes forth to the office, pride rising in his heart as he mentally forecasts the sensation he will make next week when he blossoms forth as a summer man. But alas, for pride. At the office his partner casually remarks to him that "unless you have a real Panama you'll have to get a new hat this year, Bill. The brims are going to be entirely different, and you can't possibly make an old one do."

Thereupon, the average man grits his teeth, bites his tongue in the process, uses Scriptural language in a profane sense, and spoils the first two bills he started to make out. All of which goes to emphasize the time-honored truth that is impossible to make a straw hat do service for two consecutive seasons, no matter how economically inclined a man may be. A woman can revamp her hat for four consecutive years, and still be in style, but poor man must either wear a felt at all the time, or invest a fortune in a Panama. Else he must pay a tax to fashion each year.
