AS IT SEEMS Portland's struggles

TO OBSERVERS to assume the commission form of government, and to assure herself of having an initial group of competent commissioners, are interesting to note from afar. The same problem has been faced to a lesser degree in every city except Galveston that has adopted commission rule; and probably Galveston would have had similar difficulties had she not changed her form of government in time of stress and disaster, when all political and other lines were wiped out by the common need.

Portland's problem is complicated by Portland politics, which are of a breed and kind peculiar to that city alone. Other communities may play the political poker game with skill and acumen, but in Portland it is a sort of super-poker that is played throughout the year, and which reaches feverish pitch at times of balloting. Portland politics are "politics supreme," and they are as involved as they are elaborate. Here-

He's Going Away From Here

This man is evidently in a hurry. He is going away from here.

You never can get some men into action without a powerful stimulus. You can hardly say this man is having a bully time, although the bull may be it is all in the point of view.

Anyway, the man is going some, and THAT IS GOOD FOR HIM, or is it if he goes fast enough. He has developed a burst of speed for once in his life.

It is good to get into action.

It is good for the individual and even better for the community.

THIS TOWN WANTS TO GET INTO ACTION. That means we as individuals want to get into action for the town. We want to get a move on.

The census shows that this country is increasing in population at the rate of nearly 2,000,000 per year.

These people have to settle somewhere.

WHY NOT HERE?

We may not be able to get the whole 2,000,000, but even a fraction will help.

Why not go after them?

We believe this is a good town else we would not live here.

Why not tell others and let them SHARE ITS BLESSINGS?

stand the political whirlwinds that will be raised when their fellows face the will of the people. But that Portland will start off her commission rule with a thoroughly ideal board of commissioners is not to be expected—and least of all should Portland citizens, long familiar with Portland politics, expect such a thing. It is devoutly to be wished, but hardly possible.

Portland's struggles with the commission government will probably be enlightening. They will go a long way to prove whether the Galveston and Des Moines plans, modified, are suitable for the handling of the affairs of a really great city. Most people do not think that the plan will be thoroughly acceptable. Portland, therefore, is an excellent laboratory in which the experiment can be worked out; and the rest of the state and a fair proportion of the country, will watch the proceedings with interest.

Probably, as in most experiments, there will be some boiling over, and quite a little precipitation; but it is to be hoped that this will not frighten the stalwart hearts of the Portland game.

Penal Institutions Are Schools of Crime

Do Not Hold Man, Not Deed, Wrongdoing Is the Offender

By Professor GEORGE W. KIRCHWEY, Former Dean of Columbia Law School

OUR REFORMATORIES, ASYLUMS, WORKHOUSES, JAILS AND PENITENTIARIES ARE SCHOOLS OF CRIME. I CAN SEE NO PLACE FOR PUNISHMENT IN THE PROTECTION OF SOCIETY FROM CRIME. THE IDEA THAT IT WILL DETER CRIME IS OLD AND WIDESPREAD BUT IT IS NOT NECESSARILY SOUND IN FACT, IT IS PROBABLY AN ILLUSION.

The old idea of personal vengeance still dominates our courts, and the survival of the death penalty is due to the old idea that the PUNISHMENT SHOULD FIT THE CRIME.

In criminal treatment we should pay very little attention to the crime and GREATER ATTENTION TO THE CRIMINAL.

If a man proves himself unfit for the privileges of freedom then he should be FORCED INTO RETIREMENT UNTIL HE BECOMES FIT.

Penal institutions should be SCHOOLS OF MANLINESS where the mentally and morally undeveloped will have stimulating and beneficial interests and activities.

It is absolutely futile to deal with vice and crime in the way which is employed in this country. Take, for instance, the social evil. It is a hideous social sore.

If asked if I would have a wide open town I would answer:

"It is better to have a wide open town with the cloak of hypocrisy stripped off."

Let society have the kind of conditions it desires and will foster. The CURE MUST BE DEEPER THAN MERE LEGISLATION.
