

Ask Yourself: Why is the Reason?

Why are more Overland Cars sold in the United States than any other car of similar make?

Why are more Overland Cars sold in Clackamas County than any other car?

Why are there so few second-hand Overland Cars on the market? Why are all Overland Car owners so well satisfied? What is the reason for the phenomenal sales of the 1913 Overland Cars?

We have received twelve 1913 Overland Cars; we have delivered ten, sold two for future delivery.

The Portland distributor is short on Overland Cars already and this is very early in the season.

If you are contemplating purchasing a car it would be well for you to answer the above questions yourself and then call in and see the Clackamas County representative of the Overland Car as soon as possible. The sooner you order the sooner we can make delivery.

RAINEY'S AFRICAN HUNT PICTURES AT THE HELIG

PAUL J. RAINEY'S AFRICAN HUNT MOTION PICTURES AT HELIG THEATRE, WEEK MAY 11.

Motion pictures have furnished much in the way of interesting entertainment to the public in the course of the past few years, but seldom has the opportunity been offered to witness a more remarkable collection than those which were taken of Paul J. Rainey's African hunt, and which will return to the Helig theatre, 11th and Morrison streets, for seven afternoons and seven evenings, beginning Sunday afternoon, May 11th.

The wild beasts of the jungle—the lion, the elephant, the rhinoceros, the giraffe and other animals which make their home near the equator, seen only perhaps in captivity or in drawings—are shown in their native haunts.

Mr. Rainey's hunting trip to Africa, the exciting incidents which marked his search for the wild beasts of the jungle right to their haunts, and the trophies, including many large specimens of the denizens of the equator which he brought back, is a story that has already been given to the public. There is no nature-faking in the motion pictures of the Rainey expedition into the jungle, neither is there any posing. The lion is shown trailing to his lair by the American dogs which accompanied the party. The "king of the forest" is run to earth, and actually killed, by trained Mississippi hounds.

Among the most interesting views shown by the motion pictures are the animals of the water-hole. The water-hole, within ten degrees of the equator, furnishes water to the wild beasts, who make their way to it from as far as eighty miles. The pictures of the expedition, including a small army of natives which accompanied the party, the many thrilling escapes of the photographers in their quest for something out of the ordinary, are all shown in the films, which can safely be said to be an important addition to natural science.

The afternoon performances begin at 2:45, and the evening performances at 8:30.

EAST LYNNE AT THE BAKER

Baker Players to Close Season With Revival of Famous Emotional Play

The coming week will close the season of the Baker Players and for their farewell offering, Manager Baker has decided to give an elaborate revival offering of the world-famous emotional drama, "East Lynne." It will open Sunday matinee for the week and Alice Fleming, the popular leading woman will be seen in the role of Lady Isabel, Robert Wayne, one of the best liked players who ever appeared here in stock will play Archibald Garlyle, Mary Edgett will be seen as Barbara Hare and William Bernard will be ideal as the cruel, scheming Sir Francis.

The world-famous Paul J. Rainey, African hunt motion pictures will be at the attraction at The Helig Theatre, 11th and Morrison street, for seven afternoons at 3 o'clock and seven evenings at 8:30, beginning Sunday, May 11. Popular prices prevail. Reserved seats are now selling for each and every performance. This picture shows Mr. Rainey holding two Colutus monkeys.

ductions ever seen in connection with this play is promised. The story is a most familiar one to all the older generation of readers and playgoers, but to many of the younger generation it will be entirely new. It is the story of the beautiful Lady Isabel Vane, who permits her jealousy and suspicious to gain a scandalous over her better judgment for a moment and elopes with, evision, only to awaken to what she has done when it is too late. Her cruel treatment at the hands of the villain, her final turn to East Lynne, disguised as a nurse in order to be near her dying child, the marriage of Archibald to her old rival Barbara Hare, and the events that follow form material for one of the most rousing dramas of the ages and one that had been the vehicle for noted stars in days gone past.

"East Lynne" will continue at the Baker all week with matinee Wednesday and Saturday and the popular bargain night, Monday. It will be the last week of stock this season.

A BURIED BIBLE

As to how it got buried and how recovered, the story will be told at the Congregational church Sunday morning by Mr. Edwards, assisted by a number of boys and girls of the Sunday school. It will be a kind of a sermon, the kind that Jeremiah once preached by action, a story that he who comes may read. Children are reminded that it is their Sunday, but it is the day when the old folks go with them.

In the evening there will be the second address of "A Man's Helpers," the special theme being "Fellowship."

CLACKAMAS WOMAN DIES

Mrs. Cornelia Bryant, a pioneer of the Clackamas valley, died at her home at Clackamas Heights late Friday afternoon. Mrs. Bryant was 92 years of age, and came to the Oregon country from Ohio when a little girl. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been completed.

CANBY.

Death claimed one of our worthy citizens Thursday, Lawrence Bair. The call did not come unexpectedly, as Mr. Bair had been sick for over a year, and was gradually wasting away under that dreaded disease of consumption, but as most always is the case the patient himself had hopes of recovery up to the last. Mr. Bair was born in Needy and had he lived until next August he would have been thirty-four years of age; he is survived by his wife and a five-year-old son, to whom the people of Canby offer their heartfelt sympathy in this, their season of sorrow. The funeral was held Sunday at the Christian Church and the number present was so great that it was impossible for nearly all to find room in the building. The I. O. O. F. of the town, of which Mr. Bair was a loyal member turned out in full force and made quite a showing, as there must have been between seventy and one hundred in line. This order took its accustomed part in the ceremony, and the floral offerings of the order and the friends were extensive and elaborate, as the grave was literally covered with the choicest flowers of God's creation.

Mrs. C. F. Romig has been on the sick list for the past week, but is improving, so that she is expected to again be about in a few days.

Carlton & Rosencrans have moved into their new store building, and they certainly have things convenient to care for their trade. This building is certainly a credit to Canby as well as to these enterprising business people.

Huntley Bros. Co. are also located in the new Masonic Temple of this place and better able than ever to serve their customers. Drs. Dedman and Mason have comfortable and convenient office rooms in the rear of the Drug Store.

No one doubts the progressiveness of our little town after once visiting it.

SURVEYOR AWARDED $500

Full judgment was given Saturday in the verdict of the circuit court jury that heard the suit of Frank Bryant against the Canby Canal company before Judge Eakin. The sum of $500 was asked by the plaintiff for salary for work done upon land owned by the defendant, and payment of which had been refused on the ground that Bryant was incompetent. Evidence was introduced to show that Bryant had surveyed such lines and parcels of land as he had been instructed to cover, and the jury decided that his claim for salary was fully justified.
