MAUDE ADAMS COMING IN "PETER PAN"
Favorite American Actress to be Seen at Hellig in Barrie's Fautasy

Considerable interest is being manifested in the coming of Maude Adams in Barrie's play, "Peter Pan," at the Hellig Theatre, 11th and Morrison streets for three nights, beginning next Thursday, May 22, with a matinee Saturday. This has been shown by the very large number of mail orders that have been received as well as by the inquiries which have been made at the theatre regarding the engagement. The regular sale of seats for the stay of the actress opens this morning and preparations have been made to handle a long line of people. Throughout her tour Miss Adams has been breaking all of her old records for large audiences and undoubtedly the success with which she has been meeting elsewhere she will find awaiting her here.

SCENE FROM "PILGRIM'S PROGRESS," SUPERB PHOTOPLAY AT THE HELLIG.

That there should be so much interest displayed in the coming of Miss Adams is not without reason for the young woman is recognized as the most popular actress on the American stage. She has probably through her personality and the things she has accomplished done more for the betterment of the stage in this country than has any other player now before the public. In bringing back "Peter Pan" the actress presents one of the most popular plays that the stage has had in many years. It is one that has had tremendous vogue and which has been enlogized in England and in this country as a classic that will live for many generations.

While "Peter Pan" is a fairy play and concerns children it was written by Barrie for grown-ups and it has never failed in making the man and woman who witness it to live again in the days of their childhood, when the boy dreamt of killing Indians or of some day being an engineer, and the little girl of being rescued by some gallant hero from an impending danger. The play is elaborately staged and has a numerous company of well known people. The advance seat sale opens Monday, May 19, at 10 a. m. Mail orders will be received from out of town. Address letters, make checks and money orders payable to W. T. Pangle, manager Hellig theatre inclose self-addressed and stamped envelope to help insure safe return.

"MARY JANE'S PA."

The Baker Players and Ida Adair to Appear in Famous Comedy Next Week

Having made arrangement with the popular leading woman, Ida Adair, to hear the Baker Players for a special season, Manager Baker announces that a few more weeks will be added which will be welcome news to the hundreds of Baker patrons who have been sincerely regretting the fact that the company was expected to close.

Next week beginning Sunday matinee, the offering will be the famous comedy, "Mary Jane's Pa." which Miss Adair as Portia Perkins, Robert Wayne as Hiram and little Mary Methos as Mary Jane and the entire company of popular players in the other familiar characters. "Mary Jane's Pa" is a story of a woman who years before was deserted by a shiftless husband and left to support herself and two small girls. He now returns and the girls are nine and sixteen years old. She scornfully offers him a job as servant in her household, and he calmly accepts, for he is some original character, this Hiram Perkins.

So he gets to work no one knows who he really is but Portia. The children, especially little Mary Jane, grow very fond of him, and many charming scenes take place between them. Portia runs a small newspaper and gets into a hot political fight. The presence of this man servant in her house starts the gossip and ends in a real purity riot, in which her enemies are routed by her sudden announcement that he is her husband.

Taken a complete reconciliation takes place and everything ends happily. The play is full of laughter and excitement with just a little heart throb now and then, and is one that never fails to score big. Matinee will be given as usual, Wednesday and Saturday and the popular Baker bargain night Monday.

"PILGRIM'S PROGRESS"—HELLIG

It is the unanimous opinion of all who have witnessed the Pilgrim's Progress in its tour throughout the United States that the production marks a new epoch in moving picture presentations. For it is certain that no subject has ever appeared that presents such difficulties in staging and dramatic presentation. It is one of the most difficult feats in cinematography ever attempted. Everything in connection with this production is in perfect harmony. The acting being particularly brilliant, the younger Salvini, now the most famous member of that most talented family, appears as Christian. The vocal numbers on the program are sung by that well-known soprano Ana Calveri, with Francis Phillips at the organ.

Dangerous Dandruff

Will Make America a Baldheaded Nation if Not Checked
M. Pasteur, the great French Physician of Paris, once said: "I believe we shall one day rid the world of all diseases caused by germs."

Dandruff is caused by germs, a fact accepted by all physicians. Dandruff is the root of all hair evils. If it were not for the little destructive germs working with a persistency worthy of a better cause, there would be no baldness.

Parlsian Sage will kill the dandruff germs and remove dandruff in two weeks or money back. Huntley Bros. Co., guarantee it. It will stop itching scalp, falling hair and make the hair grow thick and abundant.

It puts life and lustre into the hair and prevents it from turning gray. It is the hair dressing par excellence, daintily perfumed and free from grease and stickiness. It is the favorite with women of taste and culture who know the social value of fascinating hair.

A large bottle costs only 50 cents at leading druggists everywhere, and by Huntley Bros. Co. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

SALMON TRADERS HURT BY FLOODS

Though good prices are bid for salmon by Portland and canning interests, local fishermen are finding the water too high for successful gill-netting and but few fish are being caught. As a result the local market is drawing on Sacramento river sources for much of its supply. Prices are still at 12 cents a pound and better.

Butter is reported firm, with not enough state churning to supply the demand. Creameries are turning out all the butter they can, but are not meeting orders.

Eggs are still on the quiet side of the market, with prices in the neighborhood of 18 to 20 cents. Private trade is still getting the greater part of the local output.

Asparagus is holding firm in price. There is but little "grass" to be had in open market, and growers who have prime quality are not meeting any difficulty in getting one dollar a dozen bunches.

Efforts are being made to unload old potatoes in export trade to the south, but little profit is offered by this turn.

NEW LIBRARY TO BE OPEN MONDAY

Books in the public library will be moved into the rack-rooms of the new building on Sunday and Monday morning, and Monday afternoon the structure in the park block will be formally opened for the exchange of volumes. The formal opening of the building will be at a later, and as yet undetermined, date. It is the aim of the directors to move the books at such times and in such a way that there will be as little interruption of service as possible, and for this reason Sunday has been selected as the day on which most of the work will be done.

While the new structure is practically completed, there still remains considerable work to be done upon it and whether or not the reference room will be opened next week or not is still unsettled. On Monday the new building will be open during regular library hours for the return and taking out of volumes, but beyond this there will probably be no activity in the new building.

NOTED TEMPERANCE LECTURER COMING

Mrs. Cera Hartzell Wallace, a noted temperance worker from Kansas, will be in this city Sunday to deliver a series of lectures at three of the city churches. At 5 o'clock in the morning Mrs. Wallace will speak from the pulpit of the First Congregational church. At 3:00 o'clock mass meeting at the Baptist church she will speak again, while in the evening she will speak at the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Wallace is one of the most noted women temperance workers in the country, and has a great reputation as a public speaker of force and power. Her addresses always prove to be interesting, and it is said that she can say more in half an hour than the ordinary public speaker can in two hours. Her coming to this city will be looked forward to by all persons interested as she is one of the leaders in her class.

LADIES' AID ENTERTAINED

The Ladies' Aid society of the Congregational church of Parkplace, was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. George Washburn Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Washburn was assisted by Mrs. W. A. Holmes. The afternoon was spent socially, and a unique feature was the roll call to which the ladies present responded, each one answering with an appropriate quotation. A dainty luncheon was served. The following ladies enjoyed Mrs. Washburn's hospitality: Mesdames J. L. Jones, Coffey, Brown, Fraser, McCormack, Peckover, Brunner, F. Jones, Brayton, Rivers, Jolly, Sarris, Apperson, Fellows and Lucas. Misses Katie Brunner, Olga Hansen and Newkirk. Mrs. Wallace, of Lebanon, and mother of Mrs. Washburn, were also present.

E. K. HOWARD BURIED

The remains of the late E. K. Howard were laid at rest Tuesday at Logan beside the body of his mother. Services were held at his late home in Upper Redland before interment, and many friends and neighbors attended the body to the grave.

Since making Redland his home Mr. Howard was in the employ of J. H. Ripley, and was well liked by all with whom he came in contact. Mr. Howard is survived by his widow, and two daughters, Ethel and Winnie. Mrs. Howard was with her husband when death called him, and suffered a severe shock, as she, with others, believed him on the road to recovery from his last illness.

G. A. R. HOLDS MEET

Meade Post, Grand Army of the Republic, was entertained at their regular meeting Saturday by an interesting and highly instructive talk from Grant B. Dimick, who spoke of the great work the Grand Army has done in teaching the rising youth patriotism. He told of the example which had been set by them and of their influence upon the nation. His address was heartily applauded. The meeting was largely attended notwithstanding the fact of the weather being bad, which made it impossible for many comrades living outside of the city to get into town.

MISS MOORE HONOR GUEST

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Mulvey host and hostess at a delightful party given Thursday evening at their home on Madison street in honor of Miss Irene Moore, the fiancée of Ellis Poulterer, of Portland. Five Hundred were present during the evening and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Carl Joehake and Charles Parker. The house was artistically decorated in spring flowers, lalacs and Solomon's seal being used extensively. Mrs. Mulvey served delicious refreshments.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Joehake, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kenneth Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, Miss Cis Pratt, Miss Marjory Caulfield, Miss Wynne Hanney, Miss Irene Moore, Miss Alice Moore, Miss Elaine King, Miss Maud Anderson, Charles Parker, Lvy Stipp, Ellis Poulterer, of Portland, Mr. Howard Mr. Cruises and Dr. Guy Mount.
