Baldheaded Row

Early Piety Not Always the Cause of Baldness. Inasmuch as it is an accepted fact that baldness, falling hair and dandruff are caused by a germ, doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to prevent such calamities is to kill the germs.

It is now sold by druggists all over America, and by Huntley Bros. Co. for 50 cents a large bottle. It is used extensively by women who desire luxuriant hair with a radiant luster.

HOW ONE WOMAN WON Her Health and Strength Back Again by The Use of Cardui.

Tampa, Fla.—In a letter from this city, Mrs. E. C. Corum writes: "I was all weakened and worn out with womanly troubles. My husband brought me some Cardui as a tonic, and, from the first day, it seemed to help. I had almost lost my reason, but, thanks to Cardui, I did not. Soon, I felt and looked like a new woman. I think the remedy is wonderful. I recommend it to my friends, for I have received great benefit from it."

TACOMA IS PRAISED BY REV. T. B. FORD

Returning from a ten-days visit in the Sound country, the Rev. T. B. Ford, pastor of the Methodist church, reached home Friday evening, and reports a most interesting trip. While away Dr. Ford spent most of his time in Tacoma, though before coming back to Oregon he visited friends in Olympia. In Tacoma he preached a number of times, and also delivered an address at the University of Puget Sound, the Methodist college in the Northwest.

"Tacoma is going ahead," said Dr. Ford, in speaking of his trip. "The city seems to have found itself, and is steadily building up. A great many fine structures are in course of construction. The 18-story Realty building is practically complete, and is a superb office building. They are also building a fine hotel, and everywhere one sees signs of prosperity and progress. The University of Puget Sound, one of the several educational institutions there, has a superb location, an excellent equipment, and a very superior class of pupils. The residence portion of the city has some of the finest lawns it has been my pleasure to see, and everywhere there are hard-surfaced streets and concrete walks. While I was there I was able to get some very fine views of Mount Tacoma, the greatest peak in the contiguous territory of the United States, and the mountain is certainly an inspiration to the city that lies at its base."

YOUTH'S HAND CAUGHT IN SAW AT REDLAND

While working on a saw in the Kilmier & Kinsel sawmill at Redland Thursday afternoon, Clyde Warren, 17 years old, got his left hand in some manner entangled in the machinery, and suffered the serious laceration of all the four fingers. The lad's screams called mill hands to his rescue, and he was hastily carried to Redland, where an automobile was procured, and the injured boy was rushed to Oregon City, where he was given surgical care by the Drs. Moun.

The funeral was held Wednesday, young men of her own age acting as pall bearers, and a number of Oregon City friends attending.

EXAMINATION PAPERS AFFORD WEIRD ANSWERS

County School Superintendent T. J. Gary and his assistants are these days working hard on the annual examination papers from the various schools. In a few days they hope to have all the papers marked, and will then announce the results. In the meantime life is one long grind, being only occasionally when some paper is reached in which the pupil, under the strain of examination, wrote down something that was not exactly what he or she meant to say. Some of these mishaps do much to add relief to the tedious task of correcting papers.

tending on Saturday gave a report of that day's doings. This conference brought up problems that are puzzling many people and in the resolutions, problems not only educational, but industrial and socially, if in any way they bore upon the health of the people were touched upon in the resolutions which were adopted. It was the studying of human lives for three days, and was devoted to the high class study of human values. GLAD TIDINGS.

John Cross and Roy Austin, in moving a four ton boiler from Marquam to Friedrichs Creamery at Meadville met with quite an accident in upsetting the wagon, it causing much extra work. They moved it with Cross's large engine. In front of the Shaver place they carried rails and corduroyed the road for perhaps 60 feet. We left them as they were ascending the next hill in good order, hoping they would reach their destination without further accident.

THURSDAY OF LAST WEEK

Thursday of last week while Richard Wright was at the school house giving the eighth grade examination his aged mother fell and broke her hip. She was in her bedroom and managed to drag herself to the bed and pulled the covers off and spread them over her and lay on the floor from 11 A. M. to 5 P. M., suffering intensely, when Mr. Wright came home he immediately summoned Dr. Dedman, who thought it unwise to set the broken limb as it was so badly swollen that he could not determine the extent of the injury, so the limb was not set until Monday evening and she was resting easy the last report, although her age is against her. She is nearly 90 years old. Her many friends hope for her recovery.
