

The Professional Shopper

There are in New York and other large cities smart, up-and-doing women who are known as professional shoppers.

They know where the best values may be found in every conceivable article of apparel or adornment for man, woman and child.

The one great source of their information is the daily advertising news contained in THE ENTERPRISE and other papers of quality.

These professional shoppers are employed by people who have not the time or ability to do their own shopping.

But we know it to be a fact that hundreds of women do their own shopping with equal skill and far greater satisfaction—simply because they are bright enough and energetic enough to do what the professional shopper does: Keep posted.

FIELD DAY CUP WILL STAY HERE

Gladstone and Oak Grove was a revelation. The Gladstone lassies put it all over their rivals, winning by a score of 20 to 9. The Gladstoniennes stood up stiffly to the game, showed no fear of the ball, and put over many trick plays. They played a snappy game of excellent form throughout, and never for a moment was the result in doubt. They have been practicing faithfully for the contest for the past several weeks, and showed an amount of team work and understanding of the fine points of the game that would be a credit to any nine.

Results of the main events are as follows:

50-yard dash, (grammar grade)—Won by Stinger of Molalla. Settlement of Eastham, second, Moody of Barclay third. High school event taken by Nelson, Oregon City.

220-yard dash, (grammar)—Won by Stroneman of Eastham, Heseay and Pinecan of Barclay following. High school event won by Oregon City.

440-yard dash, (grammar)—Won by Cross of Barclay. High school even won by Oregon City.

Pole vault (grammar)—Won by Cross of Gladstone, Brand of Eastham 2nd, Tucker of Barclay 3rd. H. S. even won by O. C.

In the high school broad jump Dumbar was blished a mark of 18 feet 2 inches.

In the grammar school division the teams finished in the following order: Barclay, Eastham, Molalla, Estacada. In the minor events other schools were represented. The girls' relay was won easily by Gladstone.

Members of the graduating class at the Oregon City high school will give a farce based on Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice," at Shively's opera house on the evening of May 31. The production promises to be more interesting than the usual school play, and some clever local hits have been worked into the lines.

Under the able management of Mrs. H. B. Cartledge, who coached the seniors in their play last year, the cast is developing much skill and proficiency. Considerable excitement will be introduced into the last act of the play by the appearance on the stage of the Oregon City high school football team in all its regalia and "harness."

The cast as arranged for this production is unique, and is as follows:

Members of the team were present and were the "hons" of the evening, and everybody wished them success in their season.

The White Socks will journey to Peninsula park, Portland, Sunday, to play the Piedmont Maroons. An exciting game is expected, and it is eagerly looked forward to, as it will give local fans the first good chance to "size up" the playing strength and ability of the Commercial club team.

BANKRUPTCY SETTLEMENT

Ninety-nine out of 147 creditors of J. Leavitt and M. Barde have accepted the bankrupt's offer of settlement at 45 per cent on the dollar, and as those 99 creditors represent $35,000 out of $155,000 liabilities, Referee B. N. Final action by the court is expected next week.

Arthur Pelkey was arrested tonight on the charge of manslaughter by the Northwest mounted police, and later released on bail.

GANONG'S RANCH SEES HAPPY DAY

Friends and neighbors gathered at Ganong's ranch at Canemah, Friday, to celebrate Mrs. E. B. Ganong's 72nd birthday. The party was in the nature of a surprise, and followed a custom that has become historic in Canemah for every year there is one of these pleasant gatherings for Mrs. Ganong.

Those who attended brought roses, carnations and ferns, and decorated the rooms of the much-liked woman until they resembled a series of bowers. Luncheon was served at noon, and the guests spent the balance of the day in a real neighborhood visit. At six in the evening a most excellent dinner was served, and then the many pretty and useful remembrances which were a part of the surprise were presented to the guest of honor.

Among those who helped make the day a pleasant one were: Mrs. Ganong were: Mesdames G. W. Newell and Mrs. J. Sally, Miss Anna Sally, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ganong, Miss Leorna Ganong, Holt and Arthur Ganong, all of Portland; Master John Spencer Larson, of LaGrande, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ganong, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Mount, Hugh Mount, Jr., Mrs. A. E. Howard and Belden Ganong, of this city.

The foremen and office force of the Willamette Paper Company, together with their wives and small hearts, had an informal dance in the new office of the company on the west side near the locks Friday. WASH DRESS.

It Has a Gracefully Cut Tunic Drapery.

NEW SPONGE GOWN.

Tunics are used in a great many wash dresses, in both heavy and lightweight materials. They are becoming to most people and give an opportunity for originality in design and trimming. With the tunic it is possible also to have a frock which seems to be rather elaborate, yet can be done up by the average laundress.

The dress seen in the cut is of tan sponge combined with plain linen. The only trimming used is large white pearl buttons. The chicness of the costume is attained in the very unusual way in which the two materials are combined.

VALLEY'S BERRIES APPEAR IN MARKET

A crate and a half of lower Willamette valley strawberries appeared in the Portland market Saturday, and sold at the rate of $3.50 per crate. The fruit was of prime quality, and as a forerunner of the berries to come assures an excellent line of berries from this section. A large shipment of California berries also made its appearance, as did many boxes of the summer fruit from Eastern Oregon and Washington. State fruit received the preference in all deals.

Asparagus offerings were more plentiful Saturday, though prices remained about the same. Oregon City buyers are still more fortunate than Portland people and are getting "crabs" about five cents under the market.

New onions are somewhat easier than formerly, Bermuda stock being quoted at $1.25 a crate, and silvers at $1.75.

Prophecied changes in the egg trade have not yet materialized, and Portland commission houses are still paying 21 cents. Better prices are being paid locally for the best stock. Poultry men, who have been selling direct to consumers during the recent slump, are still continuing to raise prices, and probably will do so until the market rises sharply.
