CLACKAMAS COUNTY CANBY, OR. T. 24, 25, 26, 27.

WEEKLY ENTERPRISE ESTABLISHED 1866.

VOL. V.-No. 129.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4, 1913.

PER WEEK, TEN CENTS.

AINSBERRY OUT OF CELL AGAIN

CHARGES GAINS FREEDOM ON HABEAS CORPUS

REFUSES EXTRADITION VALUABLE AREA STAKE IN CONFLICT

ifornia Spirited Out of County as Shades of Evening Cover Landscape

J. C. Ainsberry ,penitentiary break-

first arrested for shooting Fred Ream on the west side of the river. of Willamette in a riot at Oswego, was arrested the last time as a fugitive from justice from the Wyoming penitentiary at Rawlings, Wyo. He McBain was in the chair, acting for was arrested on telegraphic advices Ira Lytsell, and J. Nichols was electthat a warrant for his apprehension had been issued on the grounds of cussion, in which Mr. Wilson, of Wilburglary and penitentiary escape, and upon the further information that trying to do any more than protect its

The Wyoming officers arrived Sat-Tuesday afternoon Attorney J. E. should be as follows: Ainsberry's release, on the ground that since Governor West had refuscitly line to the county road, thence city line to the county road to the Wildson

Ainsberry, immediately upon his re-

was one of a party of Home Telemixed in a melee with striking linemen. In the fracas Ainsberry was made the target for a peavie and sundry other missles, and took a chance shot into the crowd, striking Fred the county court during the preliminary hearing he was released ation. on $1,000 cash bail. At this hearing plied that they would send for him. While negotiations were pending, Willamette. The final touch of irony Ainsberry was habeas corpused out was given to Willamette's ambitions of iail, and returned to his home under the $1,000 cash bail. A few days the town of Willamette fail in annexlater he was "made" by Archie Leon- ing the property north of it, which is the O.-W. R. & N. Co., as a box-car west side succeeded in including the robber who had been sentenced to same district within its boundaries, the penitentiary in Wyoming and who the west side would invite the present had broken out of his cell 45 days city of Willamette to become a part after being incarcerated. Leondard of the proposed west side incorpora arrested him and lodged him in the county jail at Portland, Ainsberry was then brought here for preliminary hearing, and on the same day was released following habeas corpus proceedings in Portland from the Wyoming charge.

Five minutes later Sheriff Mass reafrested him on telegraphic request from the governor of Wyoming. Last Saturday an effort was made to gain his liberty on habeas corpus proceed ings, but as Gov. West had not then ruled on the extradition matter, the application was denied. Interest in the cast was never allowed to wane by the California authorities, either, who periodically telegraphed Sheriff Mass that they would send for the man, and seek extradition, if the assault case were dropped.

Wanted! Girls and Women

To operate sewing machines

In garment factory.

OREGON CITY WOOLEN MILL

5'ACRES $130 Down

All level and in high state of cultivation; fine soil; lays 11/2 miles south of Oregon City on the Pacific Highway, good side-walks right to the land. Why pay rent on a house and lot when you can buy a 5-acre tract fer $1,350 where you can raise all of your living. $130 down and $10 a month

E. P. ELLIOTT & SON

BATTLE ROYAL

PRISONER HELD ON VARIETY OF WILLAMETTE'S COUP TO GAIN MILL PROPERTY MET BY NEW INCORPORATORS

Man Wanted By Wyoming and in Cal- Older River City Also Invited to Annex Itself to New Town if Ambitions of Extension Fail

Something closely approaching a er from Wyoming, parole breaker battle royal is to be waged between from San Quentin penitentiary, Cal- the city of Willamette and the uninifornia, ex-convict from Nevada ac- corporated region lying netween Bolcording to his own admission, and at it on and Willamette's present borders, if plans perfected at a meeting of 65 present bound over to the grand jury residents of the district, held in the of this county in $1,000 cash bail on green room of the Oregon City Comthe charge of assault with a danger- mercial club Tuesday night, are carous weapon, was Tuesday released ried out. Last week Willamette from custody upon a writ of habeas boosters endeavored to steal a march corpus, and spirited out of town in an on the territory soon to be incorporated by calling a special annexation Ainsberry, who has been in an out election for June 28, by means of of the county jail here with dazzling which Wilamette hoped to annex frequency since May 19, when he was some two-fifths of the mill property

At Tuesday evening's meeting plans to neatly block the Willamette scheme were laid and adopted. B. T. Wyoming officers were en route here school district, and in which he took the stand that the west side should not take from Willamette that part urday, failed to get their man from of its school district that includes the Sheriff E. T. Mass, and Monday applans at the falls; and in which T. J. Sheriff E. T. Mass, and Monday applied to Governor West to have their Gary expressed his views on the extradition papers honored. The ter, it was voted with only four dissenting that the boundary lines of security refused to allow senting that the boundary lines of Oregon executive refused to allow senting that the boundary lines of Wyoming's claim to the man, and the proposed west side incorporation ed to honor the extradition, the sher-iff had no further grounds for hold-life had no further grounds for holding the prisoner on that charge, Judge Beatle acquiesed, and Ainsberry was turned out of jail. Security for his appearance before the grand jury on the assault consists of $1,000 cash beil but up by the Home Telephone state over that portion that may be state or the state of the county road to the windsom tract; thence wsterly to John Cragen's and Parker's addition; thence northerly following the westerly line of Windsor to Shennon their put up by the Home Telephone state over that portion that may be bail put up by the Home Telephone claim except that portion that may be company, of which company he was Ira Lytsell and John Chambers thence northerly along the east line lease, was hurried out of the county of the Wagner plat to a point on the This was done, friends brow of the hill; thence westerly to of his asserted, so that Wyoming of-ficers could not kidnap him and take place; thence north to the northwest him back to Wyoming on the charge. corner of J. Graw's place; thence The precaution was also taken to easterly to the river so as to elim prevent his arrest upon complaint inate Magone park, and thence along from San Quentin penitentiary, from the meanders of the Willamette river whence the man broke his parole last taking in all the power plants and paper mills to the place of beginning. It was further voted to retain Judge atrikingly exciting. On May 19 he Livy Stipp as attorney for the incorporators of the new corporation, and phone employees at Oswego who were that the committee of 11 secure the services of a capable surveyor to prepare plats for the attorney's use.

It was also voted that the attorney arrange to present a petition before same day at his home in Lents, and a subscription on all residents of the brought him to Oregon City. After proposed district who favor incorporelected to return to jail voluntarily.

a part of the older city or shall cast their fortunes with the new city soon to be formed on the west bank of the when it was also decided that should assistant special agent of to be voted upon June 28, and if the tion through annexation. Mr. McBain's offer of a five dollar prize for the best suggested name for the new incorporation will be left open until June 18, when all compet ing names must be in the secretary's hands. The next meeting of the incorporators wil be held on that date, and the judges will at that time consider the names submitted. The judges are Hon. J. U. Campbell, Hon. G. B. Dimick and the Rev. C. W.

CANADA PRESBYTERIANS GATHER IN ASSEMBLY

TORONTO, Ont., June 2.-A large proportion of the several thousand the months that followed the horse delegates and visitors to the fortieth and the minister had many a session full attendance of the ministerial stood him well, and the beastie becommissioners, and the arrivals late came tractable. tonight and early tomorrow morning are expected to make up the comple-ment. The representation of elders told a fellow trader that he guessed is also large, and includes many dis- he'd "stuck" himself by unloading tinguished men prominent in former that horse on the Rev. Fourthly, for assemblies. Western Canada, in parthe critter seems as tractable as a assembly programme will be the selection of a moderator. The name most prominently mentioned in conmost prominently mentioned in con with the honor is that of the Rev. Dr. Murdoch MacKenzie, for many years foreign missionary to bid, until finally his figure topped Nonon, China. The General assembly that which the divine had originally has not had a foreign missionary for moderator since 1894.

Austin Flood Trials. WELLSBORO, Pa., June 2.—The criminal charges of involuntary manslaughter growing out of the breaking of the dam at Austin, Pa., September 30, 1911, which resulted in a loss of eighty lives and practically obliterated Austin, a village of three thousand persons, were moved for trial here

Coney Island, Famous Playground of the People, Welcomes Its Loyal Thousands as Summer Comes.

Photo by American Press Association.

One of the most famous "people's playgrounds" in the world is Coney Island, just a few minutes by ferry or trolley car from the nation's largest metropolis, New York. There are few Americans who do not know of Coney. either through having visited it or having read of it or heard of it through story and song, for Coney has added local color to many a modern work of fiction, while writers of popular songs have for years found inspiration there. Coney, with its great array of amusement devices and excellent bathing beaches, is now in full flower again after having welcomed the return of summer with the usual opening merrymaking. This illustration shows an early summer crowd bathing at Coney Island

Un to three o'clock Wednesday morning Jim Arkins, who lives at the this fact, coupled with other circumstances led local police officers to believe that he was drowned in the Willamette river, either through accident or as the result of suicidal intent. Arkins' hat was found on the rocks on the west side of the river, between the base of the suspension bridge pier Ream, of Willamette. Deputies of term, and that an assessment of not and the water's edge, about midnight, Sheriff Mass located him later the less than $2 be made in the form of when searchers made their way down when searchers made their way down to the stream following the report that late pedestrains had heard a This action, aside from perfecting splash in the water as of a falling he was recognized as a former inmate of San Quentin by George Mayer, himself an ex-convict, who informed the local officers. Ainsberry thereupon to decide whether they shall become to decide whether they shall become utes before.

Investigation where his hat was ound showed that water had been splashed on the rocks, as if from some falling body. The missing man came to this city some years ago, and at that time was well supplied with Search for him is being

MINISTER PROVES EXPERT AT TRADE

This is a little story of two horseraders and a minister. Also it is the story of a balky horse. being its own reward.

Some years ago a certain horsedealer in Oregon City sold to a minister a horse, warranted sound, gentle and a willing worker. The good minister took the steed to his home, and en route discovered that the animal while excellent in appearance, some what belied his looks, and balked. In general assembly of the Presbyterian that was painful to them both, but in church in Canada have already ar the long run the minister found that rived in town. These is practically a his faith and power of exhortation

Some time after this the horse ticular, promises to be unusually well lamb, and is doing great work." The represented at the sessions this year. The firt important business on the mind, and in due time met the min-

> The minister did not appear to want to sell. The trader raised his paid, and the deal was completed. The trader drove away happy, the minister was happy, and apparently the horse was happy.

This was last week. Tuesday the telephone rang in the minister's house, and a voice over the wire said: "Hello, Rev. Fourthly? This is Blank, the horse trader who bough that blankety-dash black brute of you last week. I got him out on the road man I was going to sell him to, and he's balked and won't move.

he takes root this way?" "You bought the horse, didn't you,"

the minister is reported to have re-plied. "Well, I bought him once too. Now find out what I did.'

To Have a Brilliant Wedding. NEW YORK, June 2 .- The white and gold ballroom of the St. will be the scene of an unusually bril-liant wedding tomorrow night, when Miss Blanche Lazo, the daughter of will become the bride of John F. Steinman, of Lancaster, Pa. The bridesmaids will be Misses Caroline and Elizabeth Steinman, sisters of the Lancaster, Miss Jean Stewart of New and Miss Gabrielle McQuaide, of Plainfield, N. J.

A Drama of the War Department AND Government Service

any patrons that we have been Limited Engagement, SELIG'S

A CHANGE OF Administration IN TWO REELS

> Drama of Political and Social Intrigue at the National Capitol, Depicting, in a Daring Fashion, the Dangers tending the distribution of "Political Patronage." 11 11 11 11 11

Be Sure to See This Timely Motion Picture

Next Friday

PORTLAND, Ore., June 3 .- (Special) -According to J. B. Middleton, vided the council will hold the elevatsecretary and manager of the Home or matter in abeyance for a week or Telephone company, J. C. Ainsberry, so, before making final decision, they who today was released from the county jail of Clackamas county on good faith, it is said they will be ternoon, except in cast of emergency bridegroom, Miss Caroline Franklin of freedom largely to the impression he made upon Governor West. Mr. Middleton said he took Ainsberry to the governor, and that before the state executive the man told of his past record, but said that since his marriage to a girl from The Dalles special committee having this imhe had reformed. Governor and Middleton bothe believed this too, and Middleton said the Home Telephone company was "standing be hind Ainsberry" because they felt he was trying to do right, and because he had, on one occasion, done the com-Following his release in Oregon pany a material service. City, Ainsberry was taken to Portland in an automobile by Sheriff Mass and turned over to Home Telephone

LIVE WIRES HEAR EXCURSION PLANS

"Not even standing room left" was the Live Wires of the Commercial your money with some of the leading club at their weekly luncheon Tuesday by the special committee having charge of the excursion to Portland of the Commercial club and their easy this is. families will go on the Lang, while Don't forge 50 will be cared for on the Ruth.

vill depart from and land at the dock hey are bables in arms or grown up The steamers will leave at nine o'clock promptly, and it is expected hat the return will be about one or wo in the afternoon.

Following this report Chairman F. J. Tooze, of the special water commit- day by defeating the Price Brothers tee of the council, gave the Live team of Oregon City 11 to 6 in a Wires a talk upon the water situal loosely played game, and by trim the drillers to tap a flow of water on the Ladd tract at Mt. Pleasant, and saying that while failure had so far met the committee, efforts to obtain Pitcher Burdon allowed but 4 hits. an adequate supply of pure water would be continued until the problem was solved.

C. Schuebel, chairman of the spe cial play-grounds committee, reported that the Live Wires, acting with the school board, hoped to be able to ob-tain land suitable for an athletic field in the neighborhood of Greenpoint, and that negotiations for this property were under way.

L. P. Harrington, who is touring the state in the interests of an exhibit of school work at the state fair in Salem, also made a short talk.

TRACTION LINE TO BE PROPOSED

AND PERHAPS BEYOND IS PLAN OF BIG CONCERN

INGLINED RAILAW OVER BLUFF OPENING FEATURE OF BIG ROSE

COUNCIL WILL BE ASKED FOR TIME PATHE MOVING PICTURES PLANNED

Alternate Scheme to Public Elevator Main Events of Annual Festival to be to be Laid Before Officials. Accompanied by Big Cash Guarantee

When the matter of the elevator bids comes up before the city council celebration in connection with its Wednesday night, application will rose show next Saturday. Things will probably be made to the city fathers start at one o'clock, when the big for consideration or a bid submitted parade gets under way, and from then by one of the largest engineering on there will be nothing but feature firms in the west for an inclined rail- after feature. way up the face of the bluff at 8th street instead of he hydraulic elevator which the special elevator committee has decided upon as being the some of the other specialties that most feasible plan. argue that such a means of convey miles of the parade—anyway there ance can be built at several thousand will be over a mile of it. There will dollars less cost, that it will have a be close to a hundred decorated autogreater factor of safety than any ele- mobiles and other vehicles from nearcenter. According to the plans out-lined by a representative of the con-there will be "young cow boys" on cern, it is the aim of the applicants their ponies and other steeds.

to build an electric road up the face For all these things there will be of the bluff in such a way that it prizes offered, and the prizes will be may be continued as an ordinary well worth striving for. Practically streetcar line to the top of the hill if every auto owner in Oregon City has t is desired. Counterweights would entered for the parade, and touring over the steepest part of the line. Those favoring the scheme say that this would give immediate access to over to the fire department, and practice entire residence portion of the tically all the local apparatus will be city, by providing a transverse trac- in line, buried beneath roses and othtion line across the municipal terri-tory, and so would prove an Induce-be well worth seeing, and it is expectment to people employed in Portland to make their homes here. As it is ing crowd on hand, not at all unlikely that both the Port- Fellowing the big land parade there land, Eugene & Eastern and the Hill through Oregon City, it is pointed out transportation to the ideal home sites lying on top of the hill, and would directly before the city water front. make this city attractive to many people who otherwise would live in deal of work in the Northwest. Prowill submit complete plans and specifications. In order to establish their practically close the bridge for the afhabeas corpus proceedings, owes his ready on Wednesday night to deposit with the council a cash guarantee of faith to assure the city fathers that they will proceed with their proposition.

Tue council Wednesday night will provement in charge.

The response to The Enterprise's exceptional offer yesterday morn-ing was unexpected. All day long their spectacular worth. Contest Manager was kept busy answering telephone calls and personal inquiries regarding the contest. It seems as though everyone in town has heard about the offer.

It is safe to say that never beforin the history of newspapers in this county has any publication made such an exceptional offer. Just think of it! Seventy-five dollars in gold to the substance of the report made to given away free for merely spending

Many papers have offered like sums, no doubt, but there has always next Monday, when 280 local boosters been a lot of work attached to securwill voyage down the Willamette on ing votes or credits in the offer. Here two chartered steamers to aid in you don't have to go out of your way velcoming Rex Oregonus to the Rose or get out and talk all day long for Festival. Every reservation allowed new subscribers or anything of a like by United States steamboat inspect- nature. All you have to do is to ors has been taken, and 130 members spend your money. You know how

Don't forget that an early start in 50 will be cared for on the Ruth.

Through the courtesy of the Oregon likewise bear the fact in mind that Transportation company the vessels those cash checks at the stores must be called for or they will not be is at the foot of Ninth street. Govern- sued. Get them to this office within ment inspectors will be on hand to ten days of the purchase date and count the passengers, and only 280 you will receive one vote for every will be allowed to go on board. Tals number will include children, whether Bargain Page.

CLACKAMAS WINS TWO

Before a large crowd of rooters, the Clackamas baseball team won a double-header at Foster's park Sun loosely played game, and by trimion here, recountink the efforts of ming the husky Logan team 11 to 9 While the first game was slow and uninteresting, the second contest was full of thrills from start to finish while Clackamas batted Ray Douglas hard and ofter. The batteries Logan Douglas and Benson; Clackamas, Burdon and Mulkey.

SHOW CELEBRATION WILL BE WORTH SEEING

Shown All Over World By

Films of Famous Animated Weekly Oregon City is going to have some

The parade is going to be perhaps the greatest of all features, though have been planned may run it s The promotors of the railway will close second. There wil be miles and vator, and that it will do more to de- by towns. Then the local lodges will velop the city as a suburban home turn out in regalia and costume and be used in operating the car or cars cars, roadsters, auto trucks and other over the steepest part of the line. also be a section of the parade given tically all the local apparatus will be ed that there will be a record-break-will be a water parade, in which dec Lines in Oregon will at an early date orated motorboats from Portland and establish service from Portland other river cities and towns will take part. In this pageant there will also that such a line running up over the be fast racing craft, which later will bluff would provide a ready means of enter the thrilling speed tests that will be held over a measured course

These races, as well as the water parade, can be best seen from the varmore accessible towns along the lous docks, or from the shores on the west bank. As a matter of public The construction firm whose agents safety the county court will issue orwill make the proposition to the counders to the sheriff to patrol the suscil have an excellent stading in the pension bridge, and to permit no peowest, and have recently done a great ple thereon except those who actually want to cross on business errands gather on the suspension span, least, some accident should result! in fact, the orders of the county travel. F. A. Olmstead, chairman of the committee on water sports for the day received assurance Tuesday night from Manager Earl, of the Pathe Brothers agency at Seattle, that movogen bids on the elevator specifica-tions already decided upon by the to Oregon City Saturday to take picto Oregon City Saturday to take pictures of the big race Vamoose and the Wolf II., and also to take views of the other features of the rose show celebration. Messrs, Olmstead, Bert Roake and Charles Spencer, the special committee, are much gratified at the coming of the Pathe people, for they realize that this will mean that the main features of Oregon City's big day will be shown in the Pathe Weekly throughout the world. The fact that the Pathe film is willing to send sentatives here is also proof of the importance of the features, and of > Advertisements in The Enterprise brings results.

Fine New Pictures Today

The Grand

Remember!

TONIGHT at eight o'clock, we will give away absolutely free a nice Berry Set to some nice person enjoying the

> Don't Miss the Feature Friday

SOMETHING GOOD -

I have just received 2000 of the best 5c cigars ever offered to the public. The cigars came direct from Tampa, Floria, and sell for 5c straight—1 or a thousand. Try one while they last. Ask for

M. E. DUNN, Main St.

Next to Postoffice