Gardens are all looking good in this vicinity, but a rain would improve them.

MACKSBURG.

Seed time being about over, other interests are claiming the attention of the ranchmen. Building is unusually active.

William Barth is removing a part of his house in preparation for the new one that he intends to have completed before fall.

Chas. Kraxberger is putting so large an addition to his home that it will practically be a new house, and Ira Morris is building a new house for himself.

School is over and the problem how to keep the children happily employed through vacation seems to be solved by the approaching juvenile fair. The children are busy with their fruit, vegetable and stock raising, and are also creating many articles of manual skill. Many splendidly-kept gardens, much admirable live stock and the work of many diligent hands may be seen as the result of the new impetus thus given to the rising generation of this place. Not one of us may forecast the outcome of this awakening of the love of nature in the hearts of the young. The longing for the best of so many country households is largely obviated by the work necessary to success in obtaining creditable production from the soil. This turning, in the morning of life, to that generous rewarder of toil, our Mother Earth, must exert an influence that can never be lost.

The Eby school gave a most pleasing order of exercises, followed by a basket social on Saturday night. The entertainment was well attended and was profitable as it was pleasant.

Abs people of South Macksburg will be sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood, who have won the esteem and good will of children and patrons alike in the year they have spent here.

GLAD TIDINGS.

The picnic given by the band boys of Molalla, held in McFadden's Grove on Saturday, May 31, was an enjoyable affair for all in attendance. With as attentive a man to look out for the general welfare of the people as Mr. McFadden, one could scarce go away dissatisfied. And such good men as Harold Engle, and Frank Adams, as marshalls of the day, one who would so misbehave as to be called down by them would surely be a bad one. The platform dance engaged in in the afternoon by the young people was enjoyed to a certain extent even by the older people, for it did not seem so very long since they too, were young, and like the young people of the present generation, danced and were merry.

Musicians: Mrs. Mary Ridings, Piano; Mr. T. O. Ridings, violin. The music was well rendered and was particularly interesting and appreciated by the writer, who at one time claimed those worthy people as neighbors.

A celebration will be held on the same grounds on July 4, and a large attendance is expected.

Manuel Hartman, of Wapinitia, Oregon, informs relatives in Marquam that his family have the small pox. He is a brother of Charlie and Harvey Hartman, of Silverton, Ore., and a brother of Miss Jane Hartman, of Scotts Mills, also an uncle of Mrs. Dr. Todd, of Molalla.

Mr. Rue is about done planting corn.

Frank Erickson will start the planting five acres of potatoes on John Wooster's place week after next.

The picnic to take place at Mt. Angel Saturday, June 7, will no doubt be well patronized. The one on the same date at Wolfers Springs like-wise.

Talk about gloomy winters, one almost forgets the like in the enjoyment of these beautiful summer days.

WARNING!

Since its introduction into the United States, the sales of Parisian Sage have been phenomenal. This success has led to many imitations. Look out for them, get the genuine. See that the girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.

Parisian Sage is the quickest acting and most efficient hair tonic in the world.

It is made to conform to Dr. Sangrebon's (of Paris) proven theory that dandruff, falling hair, baldness and scalp itch are caused by germs.

Parisian Sage kills these dandruff germs and removes all trace of dandruff in two weeks, or money back; it stops falling hair and itching scalp and prevents baldness.

And remember baldness is caused by dandruff germs, those little hard working, persistent devils that day and night do nothing but dig into the roots of the hair and destroy its vitality.

Parisian Sage is a daintily perfumed hair dressing; not sticky or greasy and any woman who desires luxuriant and bewitching hair can get it in two weeks by using Parisian Sage. 29 cents a large bottle at Huntley Bros., and druggists everywhere.
