LIVED ON RAW EGGS

Mr. Richard's Experience With Different Diets. Peaches and Buttermilk for Three Years.

Cecilton, Md.—Mr. George Richards, of this place, during the past 12 years, has probably tried more different diets than the average person would ever use in a lifetime.
What he has to say about his experiments, must therefore be highly interesting to anyone suffering from indigestion or stomach troubles of any kind.
He says: "For more than 12 years, I suffered with stomach troubles, and paid hundreds of dollars for doctor bills and medicines. I was also operated on for piles.
I lived on dried peaches and buttermilk for nearly three years. The only thing that would not give me pain was raw eggs. I was a physical wreck. I could not sleep, and was as near crazy as a man could well be.
I must say that after taking two 25-cent packages of Theford's Black-Draught, it did me more good than all I ever spent for other medicines.
I have been working daily on the farm ever since, and I am as hard as iron. This purely vegetable remedy has been in successful use for more than 70 years. Try it. But be sure that it's Theford's."

George W. Guthrie Selected As Ambassador to Japan

BECAUSE of the trouble over the California anti-alien land bill, involving the relations between Japan and the United States, especial significance attached to the appointment of George W. Guthrie of Pittsburgh to be ambassador to the mikado's kingdom. The former mayor of the Smoky City was offered the important post by the president with the particular object of selecting a man who would help maintain the friendly relations between the two countries in the face of practically any difficulty. Mr. Guthrie is well equipped for the mission. He is a lawyer of high repute in his home city, where he has practiced since 1869. He has taken a leading part in municipal reform work in Pittsburgh.

MISS BARRY GUEST OF MANY FRIENDS

Miss Bertha Barry, who will soon become the bride of Arthur McAnulty, was the honor guest at two delightful functions the latter part of the week, when she was entertained at a linen shower Saturday and at a dinner party Sunday. The first of the pre-nuptial events was given by her cousins, the Misses Baker, of Gladstone, and was at Miss Barry's home at 14th and Madison streets, this city. The presents from the guests were hidden in various parts of the house, and Miss Barry had the pleasure of finding them. Games were also played in which the guests took part, and in these the first prize was won by Miss Lou Draper, while the consolation went to Miss Francis Draper. Music was also a feature of the evening.
Among those present were: Mrs. J. L. Barry, Mrs. J. W. McAnulty, Mrs. S. J. Hastings, Mrs. L. A. Barry, Mrs. Charles V. Barry, Mrs. Lloyd Bernier, Miss Lou Draper, Miss Emma Quinn, Miss Florence Draper, Miss Hattie Mosier, Miss Frances Draper, Miss Charlotte Quinn, Miss Erna Draper, Miss Ida Bidwell, Miss Nancy Lindquist, Miss Bertha Barry and the Misses Harriet, Julia and Charlotte Baker.

The dinner party was given at the home of Miss Barry's brother, L. A. Barry. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and cut flowers, while the centerpiece at the table was a large bouquet of Bride's roses. Mrs. Barry was assisted in serving by Mrs. W. E. Burns, and only immediate relatives of Miss Barry and Mr. McAnulty were present. They were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAnulty, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barry, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. V. Barry, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bernier, Mrs. W. E. Burns, Leslie and Edward Burns, Fred W. Baker, who will be best man at the wedding, Miss Frances Draper, who will be bridesmaid, Arthur McAnulty and Miss Bertha Barry, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Barry, Misses Blanche and Catherine Barry.
After the dinner a number of the party enjoyed an automobile trip to Portland.

COMMUNITY HOME PLANS DISCUSSED

A joint meeting of four of the local church brotherhoods and members of the church federation was held Monday evening to consider preliminary plans for the establishment here of a "neighborhood house" or a Young Men's Christian association. The matter was gone into from all viewpoints, and there seemed to be considerable difference of opinion as to which form of organization would be the best. It was perhaps the opinion of the majority that a "community house" would prove of greater value here.

A committee was appointed to go further into the matter and to report at a later conference which will be called in the near future. This committee consists of the Rev. T. B. Ford, John W. Loder, E. L. Pope, L. Adams, C. Schubei and C. L. Dye.
These gentlemen will inquire into the work required for the establishment of some sort of a local nucleus to which it will be hoped to attract young men and boys, and will also go into the matter of costs and necessary expenses. Following their report the brotherhoods will probably unite in working for the establishment of a generally helpful institution.

ELKS WILL HONOR NATION'S EMBLEM

Annual flag day exercises of the local lodge of Elks will be held next Saturday, at eight o'clock in the evening, when public services will be held in the Elks' home on Water street. At that time the full and impressive ritualistic services will be put on, and the beautiful ceremony will be enhanced by the presence of Meads Post, G. A. R., the famous veteran drum corps, and a chorus.
This celebration of flag day each year is one of the most beautiful of all Elks' customs, and is well worth attending. A deep patriotism is taught by the ritual, and the impressive ceremony is one of the finest pieces of lodge-work ever originated. Room will be provided in the main hall of the Elks' building for all who desire to attend, and if former years are regarded as a criterion, there will be a large audience on hand.

Maine Town 200 Years Old.
BERWICK, Me., June 9.—Berwick today began a celebration of its two hundredth anniversary and the festivities will continue through the greater part of the week. The settlement of the town whose ancient name was Newchwahannock was begun in 1627 but it was not until June 9, 1713, that the town was incorporated.

STRAWBERRIES NOW AT 5 CENTS A BOX

Strawberries reached five cents a box Monday, both in Portland and Oregon City, as well as in other markets. The fruit is in the best of shape, the price being brought down by heavy supply and fear that rains, which are threatening, will spoil the fruit now ripe. Growers are selling generally at $1 a crate of 24 boxes, which does not leave a heavy profit for those handling the berries. Some high-grade berries are bringing $1.25, but it is not believed that this price will maintain for long.
Eggs are again off in price, running from 17 to 18½ cents a dozen in wholesale markets. Poultrymen who sell direct to consumers are getting 20 cents, which is also the prevailing price in stores.
Asparagus continues in good demand, and is bringing from 65 cents to a dollar per dozen bunches.
String beans are ranging from 10 to 12½ cents a pound. Much of the supply is substandard.
Lettuce is plentiful but not over-good in quality.
Other market goods are about the same as last week, cloudy weather having had an influence to steady prices that were threatening to break.
