Also it will help people to see what a shallow and fallacious line of argument is provided by most agitators of the soap-box variety, and will result in the defeat of their pur-

Agitation of their variety thrives on resistance. When there is no opposition offered, their propaganda usually falls flat. By permitting all who desire so to do to "talk their off," Oregon City's officials have probably arrived at the most satisfactory solution of threatening difficulties. And, incidentally, if a miracle should come to pass, and one of the soap-boxers should really have some new truths to enunciate that will make this world a better place. Oregon City will share the honor of delivering them. Orderly discussion of any subject, whether it is a matter of dispute or not, is pretty apt to winnow the wheat from the chaf. A golden opportunity is now presented for outside agitators to prove to themselves and their audiences their
