WILLAMETTE.

Harry Berdine and wife had a daughter born to them, Friday evening, June 6.

Mrs. M. R. Marsh and daughter, Miss Edith, arrived Saturday noon from Oklahoma, to visit her daughter, Mrs. S. A. Cobb. They think that Oregon roses and strawberries are the best ever.

Mrs. J. B. Garnier had the misfortune Saturday to break the bone in a thumb.

Mrs. W. G. Beagle and little baby are visiting her mother, Mrs. Kate Bevens.

Miss Bessie Ream has gone to Astoria for a month.

Mrs. N. Waldron's Sunday School class of boys in their teens, and Mrs. Ream's class of girls of same age went on a picnic in the launch "Telephone" to Rock Island. Some of the mothers also went. A fine time is reported.

Mrs. Baker has returned from a week's visit in the country. Our public school closed Friday with an exhibit of the year's work in all the grades in the assembly room. It certainly was worth seeing, and it reflects much credit on the several teachers. There was a fine exhibit of needle work from second graders

GLAD FINDINGS

The house of Syd Cordius, now under course of construction, when completed, will be modern, up to date, and commodious. His well-tiled farm and general indication of thrift, were not brought about by chance. A poor boy forced to go out in the world and make his own way, at the age of 15 years; the many trials and temptations, met with on every side, by a boy of that age, and that he chose the path of duty, sobriety, temperance and economy, and with clean morals, believing in and living a Christian life, we look on him as one of our best citizens. A kind and obliging neighbor and a man to whom great credit should be given for what he has accomplished.

Mrs. Boldon and mother, who recently went back to Cleveland, Ohio, to attend the burial services of brother and son, will return home the latter part of the week. Geo. Wooster will take 28 fat hogs to market in a few days. Thom Drake has made a start delivering strawberries. Farr of Oregon City, brought out a band of sheep, which he will pasture on the Madison place. Allen, who returned for things he had left on the place found a plow, log chain and some other tools missing. Geo. Newsome is busy these warm days splitting and rickling stove wood. The humid atmosphere causes perspiration to a marked degree, but the appetite it creates, and the restful sleep produced by said exercise well repays him for time and labor expended.

LOGAN.

Some want rain, some want shine, old Satan himself can't please all of us all the time.

While the rain done a great deal of good, benefiting gardens and late grain, it did not benefit the early cut hay. Mr. H. W. Hageman has about thirty acres of clover hay out.

The Logan boys came home from Damascus smiling Sunday. The score was 14 to 9 in Logan's favor. Next Sunday, W. R. Healey's team, the Weapons of Portland, will play the Logan boys at Logan.

Saturday, May 31, was Mr. H. S. Anderson's birthday and a very pleasant surprise was planned and successfully carried out by Mrs. Anderson and the other ladies of the household, who presented him with a handsome oak office chair. In the evening a number of neighbors filed in to offer congratulations and spend the evening. The time quickly passed with games and music, the finale being delicious refreshments, ice cream, cake, etc. Those present were Mrs. H. W. Hageman, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hutchins, Miss Ethel Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hutchins, J. A. Byers, Misses Mabel and Olive Byers, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kirchem, Misses Winnie and Ruth Brown, Thomas Brown, Mrs. Nash and Mrs. Fleet of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Anderson and Misses Grace and William Anderson.

Saturday last, was the regular monthly meeting of Harding Grange. Two dozen members and four visitors

MULINO.

School closed here last Friday and a creditable exhibit was made by the pupils in both school and domestic work. The school was divided in two parts, one side choosing white roses as their emblem with Miss Edith Manning as leader, and the other side red roses, with Miss Hazel Erickson leader. The side that obtained the most blue ribbons was to be the winner. The white roses won 25 blue ribbons and the red 17. The children did some splendid work on the new side for as the affair was something new for this place it created quite an interest. The exhibit outside of the school work consisted of cooking, plain sewing, fancy work, some carpenter work and one boy brought a cat with six white kittens, which was the most interesting thing for the little folks. The judges were, Prof. Gary, Rev. Piper, Mrs. Howes and Mrs. Hult.

Prof. T. J. Gary, wife and children were visitors at our school Friday. Nola Berdine is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Berdine of this burg.

Mrs. Goucher, who has been visiting relatives in Washington, returned home last week. Phillip Hult has rented a couple of rooms in the Henry Seltzer house and will make this their home for the summer.

Born, on May 29th, to the wife of Clarence Mallatt, a son.

Miss Rogers, of Willamette is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Graves.

Mrs. Clarence Lee and baby, from Oregon City, was visiting her parents Mr. P. Sager and family last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindborg, of Redland, were visitors at Grange Saturday. The latter favored the audience with two vocal selections, she being an artist in that line and a graduate in music. She is on the program for July 4. F. W. Foster is reported on the sick list with heart trouble. His many friends hope for him a speedy recovery.
