TEACHERS WAIT CAMPING TIMES

day night tents were at a premium. A few of the school ma'ams even took time by the forelock and camped out for the night before the opening.

These campers tied ropes across in front of their tents, so that possible marauders would be ensnared, but nothing happened to disturb the peace of the evening, the early part of which was spent loafing about the campfires.

The early part of Tuesday will be spent in organization, but by noon-time it is expected that all preliminary work will have been completed, and that the first session of the summer school will be held in the afternoon.

By noon the program for the meeting will be in readiness, and teachers can then plan just how much of each of the several special lines of study they wish to take up.

The course in social hygiene, which is to be one of the most popular sections of the work of the summer school, has been mapped out, and six lectures will be delivered, each by some well known educator, and each with a speaker as follows:

Saturday, June 21: "The Need for Sex Education, its Nature and Causes, Dr. Sisson, now of Reed Institute and formerly of the University of Washington.

Wednesday, June 25: "The Basic Facts of Sex Health and Disease," Dr. Williamson.

Saturday, June 28: "The Pedagogy of Sex," Dr. Foster.

SCHUEBEL LIBEL SUIT DISMISSED On the day before the primary election last year the Enterprise published an offensive political advertisement in its issue of June 17, 1912, charging Mr. Schuebel, not only with purely selfish motives in being a candidate for the legislature, but also charging him with being corrupt and corruptible. The editor of The Enterprise has known Mr. Schuebel for many years and never believed any of the charges were true. Mr. Schuebel's integrity and public spirit are unquestioned among those who know him, and his useful and consistent conduct while in the legislature fully justify that confidence.

Publication of the advertisement was one of the unfortunate accidents that sometimes happen in newspaper offices, and the editor desires to disown all responsibility for it. The only redeeming feature of the accident is that no one believed the charges and the publication did not injure Mr. Schuebel in the election that followed. It affords the Enterprise great pleasure to publish this statement in justice to Mr. Schuebel.

Mr. Schuebel has dismissed the libel suit he brought against The Enterprise because of the advertisement.

CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm. Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer. I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die. At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains. Cardui worked like a charm."

There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women—Cardui—for it has been in successful use for more than 50 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease. Please try it, for your troubles. N. B.—Write to Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 4-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request. For sale by, the Jones Drug Co.

Heart to Heart Talks By JAMES A. EDGERTON

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN. Many good people seem to be alarmed because there are a number of new cults in the world. Why, bless these dear, timid souls, there have always been new cults. Some of them have succeeded and have become the accepted doctrines of the race. Others have disappeared.

But there was never much really to be feared from any of them. Today we are in a state of transition. A new generation is coming to the front and is insisting on re-examining everything—religion, politics, business, industry, labor, therapeutics and even our systems of finance and taxation.

The young men of our age are not content to take the word of the past. They want to know for themselves. The so called new cults are merely efforts to improve conditions. Personally I believe in some of them, and in others I do not believe, but I am not afraid of any of them.

If they are not good they will not last. Meantime they will make people think. Truth is not so pious that it need fear one fad or a thousand. It outlives all fads. For if the fads have any substantial reason for being they succeed and cease to be fads, and if they have not they disappear and cease to be anything at all.

For centuries a lot of good people have said that man never could fly, but man is flying. Now a number of other good people are disturbed because so many aviators are killed. Well, that is sad and deplorable, but through this tragic experience we are learning how to improve the aeroplane so that danger is decreased. In time it may become as safe to ride in the air as on the earth or the sea.

Others are troubled because of food cults, healing cults, suffragist cults, the labor movement, the new woman movement, shifting standards as to matrimony, socialism and what not. There is nothing to be afraid of in all these things. Most of them profess to seek better ways and better days. They provoke discussion. Eventually we will sift out the chaff from the wheat, and whatever contribution of good any of these cults has to offer will be accepted.

"Try all things; hold fast that which is good." There is no more reason to be afraid of a new cult than of a new baby. For the times change and men and ideas change with them, but the cardinal virtues and the virtues live on forever.

Too Precious. "Did you punish our son for throwing a lump of coal at Willie Smiggles?" asked the careful mother. "I did," replied the busy father. "don't care so much for the Smiggles, but I can't have anybody in this family throwing coal around like that." Washington Star.
