Estacada and Eastern Clackamas ESTACADA. Miss Grace Browne went to Myrtle Point Sunday to visit friends and relatives. Mrs. E. F. Surface, a former resident of this place, but now of Florence, Ore., has been visiting old friends here for several days. Mr. J. W. Reed gave a dinner party in her honor Friday last. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duncomb, of Portland, arrived last Thursday to visit Mr. Duncomb's parents in Garfield township. Ed and N. Allen were delegates to Masonic grand lodge at Portland the latter part of last week. The building which E. W. Bartlett occupied as a law office, located across the street from the drug store and owned by Mrs. Evans, was moved Monday to a lot north of Mrs. Evans' residence and will be occupied by Bob Standish and family. Frank Demming of Portland was here last week visiting his sister, Mrs. U. S. Morgan. Dr. and Mrs. Adix entertained the duplicate whist club Friday evening. The guests partook of a sumptuous dinner at 7 o'clock and afterwards enjoyed several hours at cards. The doctor and wife are considered royal entertainers. A. E. Sparks and wife and Mrs. N. B. Ecker attended the Rose festival at Portland Saturday, staying for the electrical parade in the evening, which closed the week's festivities. Mrs. C. C. Salling was among the large number of visitors from this place to Portland Saturday. Miss Hatie Bellis accompanied her. There was a very good attendance at the Firemen's dance Saturday night in spite of the stormy weather. It is said that the music was exceptionally good. Mrs. A. Morrow and daughter, Gertrude, who were visiting in Missouri, returned home last Sunday. The residence of F. W. Bates at Garfield was the scene of a most pleasant family reunion last Sunday. The following relatives were in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bates, of Estacada; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Howell, of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Bates and two daughters of Barton and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bates. A splendid dinner and a most enjoyable time was had. M. H. Boyle returned Tuesday from his trip to Montana. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Pile, who went to Seaside Saturday from Portland, were joined by W. P. Cary and Miss Val Ecker Saturday and all enjoyed an over Sunday outing on the beach. The two latter returned home Monday evening. Miss Elizabeth Reid returned last week from the University of Washington where she completed the junior year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Holder received a telegram Wednesday conveying the sad news of the death by drowning of their only son, who resided at Nevis, Minn. He was boat-riding and the boat capsized throwing him into the water which he could not swim out of. On account of the long distance to the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Holder were unable to attend the funeral. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family. The Clackamas County Teachers' Training school secured F. B. Guthrie, of Estacada, to teach agriculture for three weeks. Mr. Guthrie left for Gladstone Monday. Neil Taylor has been appointed administrator for the M. H. Taylor, deceased, estate. Claud Devore is attorney. Prizes awarded for the best gardens at the school grounds were announced last Saturday, and are as follows: In class A (6th, 7th and 8th grades), first, William Oberstalter; second, Elmer Sutterfield; third, Helena Frazier; fourth, Nettie Woodie, Class B (4th and 5th grades) first, Joseph Woodie; second, Elmer Hannah; third, Albert Hannah; fourth, Fred Sutterfield. A series of protracted meetings are being held at the M. E. church under the directions of Rev. T. L. Jones. Quite an interest is shown. J. C. Jatey, representing the Oregon "Out to Win" Prohibition campaign, spoke at the Christian church last Sunday evening. The Civic Improvement Club have accepted an invitation from the Cary Mercantile Co. to hold their meetings on the balcony in the store. J. B. McCurdy and wife attended the Rose festival in Portland last Friday. Dr. Adix and family autographed to Portland Friday afternoon to take in the Rose festival and visit relatives. They returned Sunday. Miss Rachel Reed has been acting as substitute in the telephone office this week. Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Kruse, of Portland and Hood River, were in this section last week looking over Garfield land. The first law social of the season will be held on the town hall grounds Saturday evening. Strawberries, ice cream and cake will be served. A queen of the carnival will be elected for the Fourth of July. The candidates are Estacada, Misses Alva Adams, Gladys Carpenter and Ellen Hicks; Springfield, Miss Sadie Wilcox; Curryville, Miss Gussie Githens; Garfield, Miss Mable Tracy. There are three voting places in town. Bob Standish moved to his new home on Main Street Tuesday. Mrs. Bartlett and daughter, Helen, visited friends in Portland Friday. Miss Williams, of Vancouver, arrived in Estacada Tuesday to spend a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Frazier. Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Harrison, of Eureka, Cal., uncle and aunt of L. E. Bellis, Mrs. L. A. Helst and J. Schone, of Portland, sisters and Mr. and Mrs. Dealey, of Portland spent Sunday with L. E. Bellis. The most enthusiastic school meeting Estacada ever had was that of Monday night. The contest was over one of the directors and A. Demoy won over P. J. Harker by three votes. W. H. Holder was elected clerk over J. A. Somer by three votes. The present board now consists of L. E. Bellis, chairman; J. W. Reed, A. Demoy and W. H. Holder. Mrs. Bates is the retiring clerk and gave excellent satisfaction.

KELSO. Most of the farmers here will be getting away as soon as the weather settles. Jarger Bros. have their fine large dairy barn all completed. It is up to date in all respects and is a credit to the community as well as a convenience to them. Victor Johnson has also purchased a new auto. Many auto were purchased for this neighborhood this spring. A number of our residents attended the rose show in Portland last week. Mrs. Nelson, who has been visiting relatives in Washington, returned home last week. Jari Bros. sold a large logging team of horses to Nelson & Nickelson. Mrs. Rob. Jonrud was elected as director; Mr. Spooner re-elected clerk and Mr. Purcell and Miss Lamoreux have contracted for the following term of school. Gustav Nadel and Henrietta Goldensop are home from Portland for the summer. Mrs. Joel Jari has imported a third registered Jersey for her herd. The last one being a young male calf, "Jaris Arden Fox," a very fine individual with many prize winning ancestors. Sired by "Flying Fox," imported; first prize winner in a large ring of aged animals at Pan-American Exposition, 1907. The dam of this calf is out of forty pound cow, testing 6 per cent, by "King of Arden," also a winner of many prizes. Her dam being a daughter of "Champion Flying Fox" imported. "King of Arden" (or Egyptian) is sire of "Golden Mails Prince," one of the best Jersey sires of recent times. The calf is an inbred "Flying Fox" with an outcross to "King of Arden," and is probably one of the best individuals that has been brought into the State. Mrs. Jari purchased him from A. Ruland, of Lockport, Ill., at a large price and he came through in four days by express. Mrs. Jari has a small select herd of registered Jerseys that ought to make their mark. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Monroe, a son, Sunday, June 15th. Mother and child doing well. Miss Carrie Lamoreaux and her brother, of Oregon City, also Curtis Lamoreaux, a brother, who recently arrived from Pennsylvania, were visitors in Kelso last Sunday. At the annual school meeting held last Monday, P. C. Spooner was re-elected clerk to serve for one year and Mrs. Robert Jonrud director to serve for three years. The other members of the school board are O. Lindholm and T. B. Milan. The Neighborhood Club will hold its next meeting Sunday evening, June 22nd, at 8 o'clock. All are welcome.

Sandy is to have a big Fourth of July celebration. Will it also be a sane Fourth, without the noise and smoke of fireworks? If so it will surely draw a crowd, with its splendid band and beautiful picnic grounds. Let us help to further the idea of world peace by celebrating an up to date Fourth without the noise and smoke which reminds of battle. Your home town by reading your home paper.
