NOTED MINISTER FOR CHAUTAUQUA

DR. MATT S. HUGHES

In the program of great lectures, and the schedule of great lectures, to be heard and seen at the coming Chautauqua, probably no event is looked forward to with more genuine interest than the appearance of Dr. Matt S. Hughes, of Pasadena, Calif., who is booked for three lectures, July 11, 15 and 16. Dr. Hughes' subjects are to be: "The Penalties of Progress," "Abraham Lincoln" and "The Dimensions of Life."

Dr. Hughes is one of the leading platform men of the country. As pastor of the leading Methodist church in Kansas City, he established a great reputation for himself several years ago as a man of untiring energy and ceaseless activity in municipal betterment. At present he is pastor of the "First" church of Pasadena, Calif., and is widely known throughout the West. He possesses rare oratorical ability and at times during his impassioned lectures becomes intensely dramatic. Dr. Hughes' talks will undoubtedly be Chautauqua treats.

Dr. T. B. Ford of this city is an ardent admirer of Dr. Hughes, and speaks in glowing terms of the latter's power.

"I have heard him again and again," says Dr. Ford, "and he is one of the finest orators in the country. I have met Dr. Hughes on several occasions and respect and admire him as a man who has done wonderful things among Christian people."

Dr. Hughes is a fervid young Southerner, and his great lecture of the 15th on "Abraham Lincoln" is awaited with keen interest.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bowers, of Umatilla, have returned to their home after a short visit with friends in this city.

AINBERRY GETS NOT TRUE BILL

came to Oregon City as a witness in the preliminary hearing against the union men arrested at the same time he was first taken into custody at Oswego.

While sitting on the courthouse steps, awaiting being called to the stand, Ainsberry was again arrested by Sheriff Mass on a telegraphic warrant from Wyoming, charging him with burglary and penitentiary breaking. Governor West again refused to grant extradition papers, and once again inebriate corpus proceedings were brought to get Ainsberry out of jail.

Following the returning of a not true bill in his case by the grand jury, and the release of Ainsberry from his bonds, Wyoming and California officers were notified of the status of his case, and it is believed that both will seek his arrest as a fugitive. At the time of Governor West's visit to Oregon City during the socialist troubles at the mills here, the state executive said he would not refuse to grant extradition papers in Ainsberry's case from either Wyoming or California following the conclusion of the case then pending against him here.
