

Carrying Out His Principles.

Mr. Grasseater—No meat for me. I never eat anything that costs the life of a living creature. This boiled potato will do.

Mr. Absitfed—Very well, but let me warn you that the production of that potato has cost the lives of thousands of potato bugs.

"THIS IS MY 70TH BIRTHDAY"

Viscount Melville.

Charles Saunders Dundas, sixth Viscount Melville in the British peerage, was born June 27, 1843. The first holder of the title had a high reputation during the administration of William Pitt, holding the office of treasurer of the navy. Another Viscount Melville, the third of the line, served with distinction as a general officer in Canada and also in India. The present Viscount succeeded to the title on the death of his brother in 1904. For many years, beginning with 1869, he was engaged in the British consular service, holding posts in the Canary Islands, Hamburg, Christiania and other places. Viscount Melville's family motto is "Good potui perfecti" (I have done what I could).

Congratulations to Miss Helen Keller, the famous deaf and blind scholar, 33 years old today. Bishop Earl Cranston, of the Methodist Episcopal church, 73 years old today.

The Superiority of Electric Toast to the charred, or brittle, or soggy kind made in the tedious old-fashioned way, is relatively the same as the superiority of grilled steak to fried steak.

For one-tenth of a cent a slice the General Electric Radiant Toaster makes Perfect Toast faster than you can eat it. It is Perfect Toast because the radiant heat forces the necessary chemical change in the bread. This insures delicious golden Toast that fairly melts in your mouth.

You can operate the General Electric Radiant Toaster on the finest damask table cloth. Its neat porcelain base and cheerful glowing coils add grace and charm to any table.

This little toaster is on display at our store in the Beaver Building on Main Street.
