MAKING the REAL HOME

Some one has called the real home a "happy combination of conditions." It is just that. No one thing alone makes a home, but various elements happily combined. Naturally a factor in the combination is money. It is not so much the possession of money or the lack of it that counts as the way in which it is used. Generally speaking, men are the money getters, and women are the money spenders. This system puts a great responsibility on the women. The woman is in the final analysis, the home maker, and if her home is to be a real one she must spend the family income wisely, be it great or small. There is no surer way for her to make each dollar bring its full value of comfort and good cheer than by keeping herself informed as to what is in the market, where it is to be had, and at what price; by reading each day the advertisements in THE ENTERPRISE and other good newspapers.

SMALL FRUIT OUT IN BIG QUANTITY

Raspberries, currants and cherries are bidding for the popularity that the strawberry formerly possessed, and seem to be winning it. With the thimble-berries quoted at from $1.50 to $1 a crate on the open market, buying is general. The early berries seem to be in good form, and have an excellent flavor, the rains apparently not having spoiled them. Currants, though offered at from $1.50 per crate down, do not seem to be in much demand, possibly because of the fact that much of the fruit is still not thoroughly ripened. Cherries are being offered at all sorts of prices, from five cents a berry-box up to 10 cents a pound. Some good strawberries still remain at former prices. Efforts of Portland dealers to make a 26-cent egg market collapsed Friday, and former prices of 22 and 23 cents generally prevailed. With poultrymen selling their product at 18 and 19 cents, boosters find it hard to keep the market up to the two-bit mark. California peaches and plums are to be had for $1.25 per box for the former, and $1.75 for the latter. Early peaches are being offered at $2 for half boxes. Cantaloupe and watermelon are displayed for buyers whose tastes run that way, but are not moving rapidly. Green peas are in their prime, and are cheap at that. String beans are also being freely offered at low prices. Lettuce and tomatoes are also well down on the quotation list. Other vegetables are holding about the same as the early part of the week.

A GOOD INVESTMENT

There is no better investment than a fifty cent piece in a bottle of Meritol White Liniment. Muscular and rheumatic pains, swellings, lameness and soreness of the muscles are promptly relieved. Meritol White Liniment is especially recommended as a general pain killer of unusual merit. MISS BUCHANAN HONORED Through a typographical error Friday's Enterprise stated that Miss Myrtle Busch had been elected president of the high school Alumni association. MRS. M. E. HOLMAN CALLED BY DEATH

Councilman Holman has received the sad news of the death of his mother, Mrs. Martha E. Holman, who passed away after a brief illness at her home in McMinnville Friday evening. Mrs. Holman was one of the pioneers to come into the Oregon country, crossing the plains with her father, the Rev. Glenn O. Burnett, in 1847, and settling in Polk county. Mrs. Holman was 84 years old last December, and throughout her long life has been known as a woman of excellent and loving character, and since her marriage as an ideal wife and mother. She married Daniel S. Holman in Polk county in August, 1857. Mr. Holman lived until March 15, 1910, and was one of the progressive and leading citizens of the state, being identified in much of its development. Of the children born of this marriage, nine now survive the mother, they being William Dwight Holman, of McMinnville; Woodford P. Holman, of Oakland, Cal.; Glenn O. Holman, of Dallas; Mrs. Lucretia M. Watkins, of Mountain Home, Idaho; Mrs. Mary Ellen Turner, of McMinnville; Charles W. Holman, of San Francisco, Cal.; John E. Holman, of Compton, Cal.; Walter L. Holman, of this city, and Roswell B. Holman, of McMinnville. Two brothers also survive Mrs. Holman, Judge Albert C. Burnett, of the California superior court, who resides in Sacramento, and Peter H. Burnett, of McMinnville. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed, but will probably be held Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Holman's death was not unexpected, as when Councilman Holman visited her a week ago she was then not expected to recover from her illness, though she was apparently better the day he left to return to Oregon City.

"SWAT THE FLY" FILMS AT GRAND

"Swat the Fly" will be the title of a film shown at the Grand Theatre Saturday, and which will be the keynote of a "swat the fly" campaign in this city. To further the movement Manager Schramm will present each person attending the theatre a "swat ter," and after seeing the peril that lurks in the little insect, it is believed that there will be a general war declared upon the pests. The picture will show vividly the manner in which the germs and filth of the garbage can are tracked to the baby's cradle, as well as other dangers of the pest. The film will also show the manner in which the fly dirties and contaminates the wares of the push-cart peddler and the careless grocer and butcher; and will give details of the fly's life-habits and manner of living. Its display here is welcomed by those who are working for better conditions in Oregon City, and it is thought that it will give a new impetus to the civic betterment campaign now underway. This film is highly instructive and intensely interesting. It should make out only the people who are forced to live under such conditions rise up and demand better legislation, but should also make the people who do not even know that such conditions exist alive to the awful situation.

ST. PAUL BOOSTERS HOLD BIG MEETING

A general meeting, under the auspices of the St. Paul (Marion county) Commercial club was held Thursday evening in the grove, and a rousing time was had. St. Paul is the center of a superb farming and agricultural country, and is the heart of perhaps the finest hop district in the state. The meeting was presided over by Peter D'Arcy, of Salem, and among those who spoke were Judge Grant B. Dimick, of Oregon City, who urged that more attention be paid to stock and to community development; August Huckstein, of Salem; Mark Woodruff, publicity agent of the Portland Eugene & Eastern R. R.; and E. A. Crozier, a representative of the Hill Lines in Oregon. Mr. Crozier spoke of the development of the country along the Hill lines, and congratulated those present on the work they were doing for the advancement of the St. Paul country.

CHILD IS MAIMED BY PECULIAR FALL

Alice Funk, the ten-year old daughter of Louis Funk, of Redland, was brought to the Oregon City hospital Friday morning for surgical attendance following an accident sustained at her home while riding horseback. The little girl was mounted with her sister upon one of the farm horses, and in some way fell off, breaking her arm near the elbow. The fracture was such that the broken bone tore its way through the child's flesh, and was most difficult to reset. Physicians in charge of the case say that they believe the arm will heal satisfactorily, but fear that the member will be stiff for the balance of the patient's life. The little girl is a general favorite in the neighborhood, and much sympathy for her parents and family is expressed.

BANKRUPTCY HEARINGS

James Seeley, a grocer of this city, has filed a petition of voluntary bankruptcy and the matter has been referred to B. N. Hicks, referee in bankruptcy. Seeley places his liabilities at approximately $5,130, and his assets, consisting of fixtures, outstanding accounts, stock, etc., at $3,500. The first meeting of his creditors has been called for July 9. Most of his creditors are Portland wholesalers.

EVEN NOW LOCKE ROOTS FOR PIRATES.

Unable to stop rooting for the Pittsburgh baseball team, of which he was secretary even after becoming president of the Philadelphia club, William H. Locke is struggling constantly with an overwhelming desire to pull against his own team when it meets the opposing Pittsburgh organization. Locke for twenty odd years was an ardent fan in the Smoky City. At a recent game Locke and Billy Shettsline were seated together. In the seventh inning Honus Wagner came to bat and made a two base hit, which scored a runner and put Pittsburgh in the lead. "I guess that beats you, Shetts," remarked Locke gleefully. "Beats who?" inquired Shettsline. "Why, you Phillies, of course," replied the president of the Quakers. Shettsline gasped. "Why, I thought you were for the Phillies now." Then Locke came back to earth.

MEMBERS OF AUSTRALIAN TENNIS TEAM.

The Australian team during its practice here in this country it has taken a big load off their minds. The Australian team does not truly represent Australia's full strength, for the reason that two of that country's best players are missing. The Australian players here are Horace Rice, A. B. Jones, S. N. Donist and C. H. Hicks, manager of the team. These men are little known in this country. While they are said to be excellent players the four are not regarded as in the first rank at home. The American team is a strong one. Maurice E. McLoughlin of California, R. Norris Williams of Philadelphia and Harold H. Backett and Raymond D. Little of New York are four of the best racket wielders in the country. McLoughlin stands as No 1 on the ranking list and holds the national championship in both singles and doubles, as well as other important titles. Williams is a Harvard student. He was the sensation of the past season, ranking No 2 to McLoughlin. Backett's record as a doubles player has never been duplicated on the American courts. He was rated three times, with different partners, last season. He has held the national title and at times all the other important ones. Little was rated No 8 in singles last season. He has figured in other international cup matches.

The Mystery of Death. O death, how bitter is the thought of thee! How speedy thy approach! How stealthy thy steps! How uncertain thy hour! How universal thy sway! The powerful cannot escape thee; the wise know not how to avoid thee; the strong have no strength to oppose thee; the rich cannot bribe thee with their treasure. Thou art a hammer that always strikes, a sword that is never dull, a net into which all fall, a prison into which all must enter, a sea on which all must venture, a penalty which all must suffer, a tribute which all must pay. O death, death, implacable enemy to the human race, why didst thou enter into the world?—Luis de Granada.
