Feeding Gettysburg's Reunited Army of Vets No Small Task at the Fiftieth Anniversary.

Photos by American Press Association. For the few remaining years left of life for most of the civil war veterans the fiftieth anniversary celebration of the battle of Gettysburg will never be forgotten. The advance guard of the united army of old soldiers who once opposed each other so bitterly found a small tented city ready for them on the field adjacent to the battleground when they arrived prior to July 1. Five thousand tents had been erected by the government, and the vets found every convenience awaiting them. The camp kitchens conducted by the regular army soldiers proved an interesting sight to most of the visitors. More than 40,000 mess kits were necessary, with an equal number of enameled plates, knives, forks, spoons, etc. An idea of what "kitchen row" looked like is obtained from the lower picture. A general view of part of the tented city is also shown.

MULINO. Several of the Mulinoites are enjoying a seige of the mumps. Grant Ashby finished up his work here and returned to his home at Shaw Tuesday. MACKSBURG. The swift alternations of sunshine and rain that have prevailed during the past month have kept the pasture in a state that has had a telling effect on the output of the dairy products. This coming at a time when the price of butter-fat is advanced forms a pleasing combination in the dairy interests of the farm. The unusual growth in the garden is most encouraging to those of the rising generation who are preparing for the Juvenile Fair. Accounts of the children's market in the cities furnish an added impetus to this work. Pleasant is the reflection that the benefit accruing from this youthful toil, by no means to cease with the ending of the fair, but must inevitably, last through life. The children are developing tastes and acquiring skill, that must be enduring. The appearance of the ranches, too, is greatly improved by the vigorous culture employed in this work. In many a place where hitherto weeds were allowed to grow, now, the eye meets long rows of thrifty plants growing in a soil where not a weed is to be seen. Beds of beautiful flowers are flourishing when, until now, only rank, uncut grass was in sight. Children are growing adept in other forms of usefulness than gardening and stock raising. Girls are learning housewifery and boys are acquiring mechanical art, making the long vacation a busy and happy time for parents and children alike. Ensign Gribble has bought the Roy Strong livery stable at Canby and is preparing to run it himself. Mr. Gribble is amply qualified for this business and is practically certain to give satisfaction to all who may choose to give him their patronage. The Walsh-Heppler saw mill is in active operation.

The 'stuff Successful Men Are Made of

The International Correspondence Schools are NOT closed in summer. All of our truly ambitious students those who think more about the increased salaries their studies will qualify them to earn, than of the imaginary discomforts of summer study—devote a part of each week to their studies all summer. A student who will only study in cold weather punishes himself. Why? Because he takes two or three times as long, in preparing himself to earn more money, as the student who studies from a half hour to an hour per day all the year round. We have enough letters on file to make several very large books, the general purport of which is: "Oh, if I had only taken up that Course when I first wrote you about it! I have just missed a fine position, at largely increased wages, because I wasn't prepared to fill it. I lacked just the special knowledge I could have had from the Course." The writers of these letters never have to be coaxed to study in summer NOW. They knew what delay costs. Why not profit by THEIR experience, instead of taking the same bitter medicine yourself? Persons that suffer most from the heat are those that have nothing else to occupy their thoughts. A man who is interested in his studies doesn't know how hot it is. He has no time to fret about the weather. He is looking ahead a few months to the time when he can demand advancement in position and salary, because his special education will have made his services of more value to his employer. It is no harder to read an Instruction Paper in summer than to read a newspaper. How many summer days are hot enough to prevent you from reading the daily news? The man who promises himself that he will enroll next fall is only trying to deceive his conscience. He may not know it, but he is weakening his will-power, and it is will-power—power to do what one knows he must do to succeed—that makes the man. A man of weak will—one who will study some day, but not now—will always be down in the world; always in "hard luck," frequently out of work, and when employed, it will always be at low wages. He knows that a knowledge of certain subjects will fit him to earn more; yet he stills his conscience by promising to start later. Such a man isn't truly ambitious. He is one of the kind that always does the hard, menial work, and draws small pay all his life. Are YOU one of that kind. Are YOU truly ambitious to earn more and make something of yourself? If you want study in summer you are NOT. If you prefer to fret about hot weather, rather than forget it by studying, you are NOT. The dangerous habit of "putting off" has ruined the lives of more promising young men than drunkenness. It is so easy to say "yes, it's what I need; I'll start tomorrow—next week—some other time." The difference between the man that makes a failure of life and the man that succeeds is simply this: The failure is going to begin "tomorrow;" the success begins today. The men who "get there" are those that study for self-improvement in summer, or whenever they have time. They don't let the weather keep them in inferior positions, at small wages. They don't make excuses to themselves when they ought to be up and doing. They don't work for wages barely enough to keep soul and body together either.

Russell Scramlin, who has been spending some time in Tacoma is at home again. Sol Strubbar and A. A. Baldwin started on an auto trip to Portland this morning. Mr. Nebo returned from Eastern Oregon last week. Rev. Wm. Kraxberger, of Oregon City, is spending his vacation with his family in the former residence of his brother, Ferdinand Kraxberger. Leonard Nebo has returned from a visit to Mohalla. Mrs. A. A. Baldwin returned from her visit to Hood River June 29. Wesley Eby lost a very valuable cow last week. Mrs. Seward is still staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bert Wallace, of Mulino. Chris Nofziger is preparing to build a new house to be ready for occupancy the coming fall. All the crops in Macksburg and vicinity are reported as being in exceptionally good condition with every prospect of an abundant yield when the harvest time arrives.

STAFFORD We still continue to have more than enough rain, but as it is said misery loves company we ought to rejoice that nearly all the world is in the same fix. Even way down to San Diego, Southern California, they have had a powerful rain, the first June rain for thirty-five years. The community was shocked on Thursday afternoon by the sudden death of August Gebhardt. No one knew he was sick, but he had returned home from across the Willamette on Friday, not feeling very well and even spoke of going back to work on Wednesday morning, but finally concluded he would not try it as it began to rain again, and came to the table at dinner time, but about 2 o'clock that night he began to vomit, and was in great distress almost continually until the end came about 4 P. M., on Thursday. Dr. Mount was called, but gave them no hope. The physicians held a post-mortem examination and found that he died from acute indigestion. He would have been 45 years old in October. He leaves a sorrowing widow and one son, and five sister and two brothers and a host of friends and neighbors to mourn his loss. The brothers and sisters live in Ontario, where he was born. A long procession followed him on Saturday afternoon to his last resting place in the Lutheran cemetery. Mr. Leeman, of Willamette, who was for a number of years pastor of the Lutheran church at Frog Pond, preached a sermon very comforting to the hearts of the mourning friends. Miss Helen Rabic entertained a young lady and gentleman from Seilwood last Sunday. Mrs. Lucas is the proud mother of a baby girl which came to the parsonage on Saturday morning last. The next one older is about ten or twelve years old. Mrs. G. Moser and Mr. Powell are quite ill. Mrs. Fredrick and Joe Nemic have been under the doctor's care but are better at the present writing. Mr. Weisenberg, who had 19 acres just beyond the cemetery, sold last week for a consideration of $6000, and moved to Portland. Mrs. Kate Turner, widow of Albert Turner, of Frog Pond, has decided to turn her farm into a dairy ranch with a herd of about 20 cows to begin with as she has a good reuter and will herd.

WILSONVILLE. Mrs. Marion Young spent the weekend in Portland. Mrs. France has been visiting relatives near Wilsonville for some time. Mrs. Wm. Turner, of Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Baker. Mae Baker spent Sunday at home. Dora Stacy is attending the Epworth League Institute, at Willamette University, in Salem this week. Mrs. Halley has returned from the summer school in Oregon City. Telephones are being placed in order all along the line, and the members of the route are contented once more. Mr. Chalupsky is improving his farm property very rapidly. Mr. and Mrs. Bethme gave gone up to the mountains to visit with relatives and enjoy the fresh air. Mr. and Mrs. Wall spent Saturday in Portland Mr. Wall tuned some pianos. Mr. and Mrs. Flynn have gone to Tillamook for a short trip. Mr. and Mrs. Norris Young and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thornton enjoyed a trip up the Columbia last Sunday. Mrs. McFaggart, from Andrias is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Batalia. The Girls' Sewing Club, of Corral Creek school, met with Mrs. Norman Say on Thursday last. Mrs. Reed Graham has recovered from her severe cold. Mr. Marion Young was re-elected to serve on the school board, and Wilsonville is fortunate in securing his services for "progression" in the watchword he uses. Chas. Wagner was re-elected clerk of the school board, which makes the number of times he has been re-elected count near to the twenties, and he has served all the years, with satisfaction to everyone in the district. Ed Baker was re-elected to fill the vacancy in Corral Creek school for trustee and Mr. Allison Baker was re-elected clerk of the school board. Quite a number of residents of our Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Githens. Miss Echo Githens, who has been attending the teacher's training school self move the first of August to Oregon City, where she has bought a home near the McLoughlin building. Cows are in very good demand now. Mr. Gage having sold one for $75 last week.

GREENWOOD. Mr. Churchill and family have moved to Oregon City owing to Mrs. Churchill's poor health. Mr. and Mrs. Shively and two children are visiting Mrs. Hugh Jones, a sister of Mrs. Shively. They traveled in their automobile from DeWitt, Nebraska. They intend to buy a home in Oregon. Miss Ellen Hamilton visited her parents over Sunday. Miss Jane Hamilton has gone to Portland to stay with her aunt. Mrs. Eastman is laid up with an abscess on her foot which is very painful. Mr. Bancroft is having a barn built this week and Hugh Jones is having a large implement shed built. Roy Gergory and wife, from Portland, are visiting their parents for a few days. Mrs. Walter Mead has gone home after two weeks' visit with her parents. Mr. Lasey, of Portland, is spending a week with his daughter, Mrs. Hugh Jones. Mr. Stroup is out with his engine busy sawing fire-wood for the neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jones gave a party last Saturday evening, June 23. About 35 young people were invited. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing and games. The music was played by Hugh Jones and his brother, Earnest, after which refreshments were served. The young people pronounced it a fine time.

REDLAND. Little Alice Funk, who met with a serious accident by falling from a horse and breaking her arm at the elbow, is at the Oregon City hospital and is doing nicely. Mrs. Selma Morgan, of Central, Wash., is visiting her brother, Gus Fischer. Mrs. Cassin Lawrence who has been in Oregon City for some time for medical treatment, is able to be home again. Eunice Courtright is visiting in Woodburn with her school mate, Miss Reed Muir.

WHAT SAVED HER LIFE Mrs. Martin Tells About a Painful Experience that Might Have Ended Seriously. Rivesville, W. Va.—Mrs. Dora Martin, in a letter from Rivesville, writes: "For three years, I suffered with womanly troubles, and had pains in my back and side. I was nervous and could not sleep at night. The doctor could not help me. He said I would have to be operated on before I could get better. I thought I would try using Cardui. Now, I am entirely well. I am sure Cardui saved my life. I will never be without Cardui in my home. I recommend it to my friends." For fifty years, Cardui has been relieving pain and distress caused by womanly trouble. It will surely help you. It goes to the spot—reaches the trouble—relieves the symptoms, and drives away the cause. If you suffer from any symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. Your druggist sells and recommends it. SAGE TEA BEAUTIFULLY DARKENS THE HAIR WHEN FADED AND GRAY Mixed With Sulphur Makes Hair Soft, Lustrous and Cures Dandruff. The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays skilled chemists do this better than ourselves. By asking at any drug store for the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy"—you will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Some druggists make their own, which is usually too sticky, so insist upon getting "Wyeth's," which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair. A well-known downtown druggist says his customers insist on Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because, they say, it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. Do this at night and by morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant. HUNTLEY BROS., Druggists
