COOPEP'S STORIES TO FLASH ON FILM

The "Leather-Stocking Tales" of J. Fenimore Cooper met with such a hearty reception from the public that he extended them over no less than five volumes, every one of which made a fortune for the publisher. The most popular of these stories, "Deerslayer," forms the basis for a magnificent photo-play that has been staged by the Vitaphone company and which will be presented here on Monday July 14, at the Grand theater.

"The Deerslayer" tells a fascinating story of the unrequited love of a trapper's daughter for a mighty hunter, of an Indian and his bride and of the heroic self-sacrifice of a girl for those she loves. The scene is laid on Lake Ontario, not far from Utica, N. Y., amid what was an almost trackless forest, abundantly populated with wild animals and birds. The time of the story is in the pre-revolutionary days, when the colony of New York was under the control of a British Governor.

Indians at that time roamed far and wide, and when on the warpath constituted a serious menace to any small body of white men. Deerslayer had been brought up by a tribe of Delaware and was therefore well versed in Indian forest lore and woodcraft. How he used his knowledge and by his personality saved a whole family from massacre is well told in this, one of the finest two-part productions that has been seen on the moving-picture screen for some time.

JENNINGS LODGE.
 The United States Civil Service Commission announces that on Saturday, July 26th, 1913, that an examination will be held at Oregon City, as a result of which it is expected to make certification to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of fourth class postmaster at Jennings Lodge, and other vacancies as they may occur at that office, unless it shall be decided in the interests of the service to fill the vacancy by reinstatement. The compensation of the postmaster at this office is $220.00 for the last fiscal year.

Age limit, 21 years and over on the date of the examination, with the exception that in a state where women are declared by statute to be of full age for all purposes at 18 years, women 18 years of age on that date of the examination will be admitted. Applicants must reside within the territory supplied by the post office for which the examination is announced.

GLAD TIDINGS.
 Neighbor Shack visited our merchant, J. H. Beldon, of Marquam and purchased a bag rake and a mower.

Mr. Rue purchased a durable and well appearing surrey of firm in Silverton.

Edgar Shaver and Henry Barth each bought a late improved hack, or hack and carriage combined.

Miss Mona Garrett, of Glad Tidings, and Lou Hubbard, liverman of Mullins, were married in Vancouver, Wash., Wednesday, June 25, returning to the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Garrett, on Saturday, June 28, where the bride will remain for the coming two months giving Mr. Hubbard ample time to finish his house in course of erection in Molalla, where they will then move, begin housekeeping, and be at home to their many friends.

An auto and buggy collision took place on the North Garrett hill not long since that makes one's hair rise when acquainted with the circumstances. Mr. Lucht, a German resident of this neighborhood was driving up the hill and was nearing the curve when without any warning an auto with several ruffians in it came tearing down the hill at the rate of at least 40 miles per hour, running into his buggy, upsetting it, throwing one horse over in a wire fence among rocks and logs. The young man was thrown at least 15 feet, striking with his back against an anchor post, injuring his spine and one hip—perhaps permanently. The driver of the auto never halted, but set his sails and flew the faster, passing through Marquam at the rate of 50 miles an hour, being strangers no one knows who they were.

Mr. Rue has purchased a surrey for the use of himself and family.

Mr. Lucht has a number of acres of hay laying in the swath that was cut some three weeks since, of course in a ruined condition.

Mr. Schnack butchered and took to Canby a load of spring lambs, being in prime condition he received a good price for them.

Mr. Wooster, of Corvallis, has been visiting with his brothers, George and John, of this place, for the past week. He will return home Saturday.

NOW SOLD IN AMERICA

In Less Than Five Years, Parisian Sage, the Splendid Hair Tonic, is Sold All Over America

There is a reason for the phenomenal sale of Parisian Sage in the United States during the past three years.

And the reason is plain to all: Parisian Sage does just what it is advertised to do.

Ask Huntley Bros. about it, they will tell you that they rigidly guarantee it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair or itching scalp, in two weeks of money back.

There is no reason whatever why any man or woman should fail to take advantage of the above generous offer.

But one thing that has made Parisian Sage so famous is its peculiar power to turn the harsh, unattractive hair that many women possess into luxuriant and radiant hair in a short time. Women of refinement the country over are using it and it never disappoints.

Sold by druggists everywhere and by Huntley Bros. for 50 cents a large bottle.
