Estacada and Eastern Clackamas

ESTACADA.

The celebration of 1913 will long be remembered as one of the best and most successful celebrations Estacada has ever had, and the Ladies' Civic Improvement club is responsible. The weather was not as favorable as it might have been, but Old Sol showed his face occasionally throughout the day and everybody was happy.
The program started with a concert by the band in front of Hotel Estacada, at ten o'clock, followed by the parade, which would have done credit to towns much larger than Estacada. First in line was the band, then came an automobile with the present mayor, Dr. Aden and wife and ex-mayor McCurdy and wife. The next car contained the president of the Civic Club, Mrs. A. E. Sparks, the speaker of the day, Rev. Simpson and Rev. Browne and wife. Another auto conveyed the Civic club's officers. Then there were other cars, a large float with Miss Gussie Givens, the carnival queen and a number of little girls, a float containing just little tots, fire department with hook and ladder and carts, squad of lady and gentlemen horseback riders, representing Indians, and other nations, cowboys and girls, decorated buggies business houses' floats, consisting of the Estacada State Bank, McCurdy

Hdw. and Lumber Co., Palace Meat Market, etc.
The exercises at the park after the parade consisted of music, "Red, White and Blue" by the band and voices, prayer by Rev. Browne of the Methodist church, oration by Rev. Simpson, of Portland, and the singing of "America."
In the afternoon there was dancing in the pavilion, minor sports and the ball game. Dancing commenced at 2 o'clock, preceded by the grand march in which over a hundred couples participated. The dance continued until a late hour and was a most orderly and satisfactory part of the day's festivities.
The Brooklyn Greys, of Portland, and the local team furnished two ball games. In the morning game, Estacada won by a score of 2 to 1. The afternoon game was hotly contested in twelve innings, finally resulting in favor of the home team, the score being 2 and 3.
The prizes awarded to those taking part in the parade, were as follows: Most unique float, McCurdy Hardware Co.; best decorated automobile, Dr. Adix; best appearing lady rider, Miss Wagener; best decorated bicycle, Morley Browne; best rough rider, Paul Morrow; best comle float, Thos. Yocum; best decorated baby and bug gy, Mrs. Stubbs; most attractive little girl and doll buggy, Lillian Dales.

The new city council were sworn in Monday evening and Tuesday evening held their regular meeting, but not very much business was transacted. The council is now composed of the following: H. V. Adix, Mayor; C. W. Devore, recorder; Mrs. Jesse Barlett, treasurer; W. S. Pyle, R. Marchbank, O. E. Smith, W. E. Straight and J. A. Somer.
Mrs. Adaline Miller, of Vancouver, visited Estacada friends last week.
Next Sunday the firemen of Portland have an excursion to this place. They will bring a band and have plans for a display of their ability to extinguish a fire.
Among the out of town visitors here the Fourth were: Miss Bernice Williams, of Vancouver; Miss Harrott, Edgar Williams, Mr. Dillon, Mr. Roberts and Harry Williams of Portland, who were guests at the Frazier home.
Miss Alice Wells and friend Miss Woster of Boston and Dr. Wells were guests of Mrs. A. K. Morton last Friday.
A jolly picnic party composed of the Frazier family and their company and Mrs. Morton and her guests with "Bobbie" Morton, went to Garfield the day after the Fourth and had a grand time.
"Bobbie" Morton left today for the mountains to try ranging for a while. His brother Tom joined the rangers several weeks ago.
Ed Olds, of Oak Grove, was an Estacada visitor Saturday.

Some of the Estacada boys went to Gladstone Wednesday to assist the Logan boys in a game of ball.
Prof. B. Ford is at Gladstone this week attending chautauqua.
The tennis club were on hand Monday evening for their first practice.
The dancing school, which was conducted by Phil Standish at this place, closed a series of lessons last Saturday night.
Mrs. Carl Cary left on Sunday for Victoria, to visit relatives for a couple of weeks. Mr. Cary joined her Wednesday to be absent ten days.
Mrs. Tressie Hicks, one of Estacada's popular telephone girls, left for Raymond, Wash., Sunday for a few days' vacation.
The fat and lean men's ball game last Wednesday evening was a rather "drawn out" affair, as the score board showed 18 to 19, in favor of the leans, at the end of the fifth inning. There will be another game in the near future, if the "boys" get sufficiently recovered from the effects of the previous contest.
The game of ball advertised for Sunday afternoon was not pulled off on account of the Oregon City club failing to put in an appearance.
A permanent Rod and Gun Club has been organized at this place, starting out with a membership of 28. The officers are: J. R. McCurdy, president; W. A. Hyleman, secretary and Fred Jurg, treasurer.
Avery Kirchner visited in Portland Tuesday.

W. F. Cary transacted business in Portland Tuesday.
Nearly five hundred members of the K. of P. lodge and their families, from Portland, enjoyed a picnic in our beautiful park last Sunday. Notwithstanding a little shower, they all seemed to enjoy the day.
Mrs. Adix was hostess to the bridge club Tuesday afternoon.
J. I. Bunker returned Friday from a visit in Iowa and Missouri.
The $50 in gold, given away by the McCurdy Lumber and Hardware Co., was won by Frank P. Wilson of Logan.
Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hulman, June 26, a boy.
Atty. Devore was in Oregon City Monday.
Fred Bartholomew, brother of Mesdames E. E. and C. C. Saling visited here the first of the week.
B. R. Kimmel, who has been working at the carpenter trade at Cloverdale, spent the Fourth with his family.
E. D. Bartlett was in Oregon City on legal business Monday.
Dr. and Mrs. Haviland entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Cole and family of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Holding, of Spokane, last week.
KELSO.
The farmers here are working overtime to get their hay cut. The hay is very heavy and is not damaged. Joel Jarl is on the jury at Oregon

City and George Roberts of Dover is cutting hay in his place.
Mrs. Victoria Carlson and family visited with her parents, the Lindholm's on the Fourth.
David Jarl of California spent the Fourth in Portland and is expected here soon.
Some of our residents spent the Fourth at Estacada and Gresham and others at Sandy and Portland.
Walter Kiser had the misfortune to lose one of his large tie horses last week.
There is little or no spraying done here and the writer thinks Mr. Freytag will find all of the old orchards in the same condition as the one he condemned June 14, and ordered it cut down.
Robert Jonsrud and family spent Sunday in Portland.
EAGLE CREEK.
We are again enjoying fine weather.
Mrs. Viola Douglass and Miss Edith Chapman spent the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Howlett.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Douglass were Estacada visitors Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Reid and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Udell were the guests of H. S. Gibson Sunday.
Mrs. Viola Douglass spent a pleasant day with her daughter, Mrs. James DeShazer, Sunday.
