TATHEN class day comes around in June at Princeton university the old grads return to the campus and cut up high Jinks. Each class attempts to outdo the others in the bizarre or the spectacular. Two of the features at this year's celebration are here shown. At the top the members of the class of 1908 are "slaughtering" each other in deadly gladiatorial combat. Nero is out-Neroed. At the bottom is the locomotive of the class of 1910, designed to sweep everything from its path. It appeared lifelike enough to do so, as you can see for yourself.

DINING ON SHIPBOARD.

Different Now From What It Was When Dickens Visited Us.

When Dickens came over to America some seventy odd years ago there was one large table in the dining room for the passengers. The first officer sat at T. B. Ford, pastor, residence 792 the head, carving the turkey with all the grace he could command between lurches of the good ship, trusting to Providence that the gravy would not R. slop over. The passengers sent their plates along the line and waited for their helpings,

> Today the dining room of a large ship looks like the dining room of a fine hotel. It is just as exquisitely ap pointed and has every good thing to eat that can be found on land. In fact, one of the new ships has a res taurant named after a famous one in New York, and the two keep in touch by wireless so that the menus, day by ; preaching at 11 a. day, are the same. Think of having your dinner arranged by wireless your macaroni by Marconi!

The dining room is divided up into a number of small tables, so that you can have your own party, with only half a dozen of you, with your own waiter, Instead of sitting at a long table and passing your plate, as Dickens

The development of the wonders of cold storage has done more than any other one thing to make life on the ocean wave one long round of joy. Cold storage gives you the best in the world to eat and every day of the year A world traveler was telling me the other day that he had eaten grape fruit every morning all around the world. The ship on which he salled put in a large amount of ice cream made in New York, and 110 days later, when he arrived in San Francisco, he was still eating New York ice cream .-Harold Christie in Leslie's.
