ADRIAN SCHOONOVER IS NOT V. PERRINE

After seeing Virgil Perrine, the robber of the Milwaukie bank, A. C. Schoonover, a brother of Adrian Schoonover, who is wanted in Mosier for alleged participation with the P. O. Whitey gang in a safe-blowing job, declared positively that young Perrine was no relative of his.

"I never saw this lad before," said Schoonover, "though there is a resemblance between the two boys." Adrian Schoonover is 19, so is Perrine. Both boys have the same facial characteristics, but differ in details, particularly about the lips and ears. Schoonover says he last saw his brother some four months ago, but adds that Adrian was known to be in Portland on July 2, a few days before the Milwaukie robbery. Perrine, after seeing Adrian Schoonover's picture, declared that he had never met him in his travels with members of the P. O. Whitey gang.

"I don't believe Adrian was concerned in the Mosier affair any more than he was in the Milwaukie robbery," said A. C. Schoonover, after a talk with Sheriff E. T. Mass. "I think the Schoonover they want at The Dalles must be still a third party. The only time that I know of my brother being in trouble was some years ago at Central, when he was arrested for fighting with Manitoba Frenchy."

Manitoba Frenchy is Ed Gagner, a member of the P. O. Whitey gang. Though young Schoonover trailed with them, his brother does not believe he has been with them lately. Schoonover's father is town marshal of Cornelius, Oregon.

AUTOMOBILE CLUB IS PLANNING RUN

Members of the Clackamas County Automobile club will participate in a social run to Wilhoit Springs Sunday, leaving from in front of the Commercial club at nine in the morning. The run will be so timed so that members will arrive at Wilhoit about one, when a fine chicken dinner will be served at 75 cents per plate. Return will be in the late afternoon.

The club has held several similar social runs, and all have been extremely successful. It is expected that there will be a big turnout for the trip, and that practically all the members will have their cars in line. As the trip is purely for the fun of the thing, speeding will be tabooed, and no efforts will be made to establish a record for covering the distance.

"RED LIGHTS" HIT BY TWO ARRESTS?

"Susan Doe" and Jennie Roe," two Portland women, were arrested Tuesday night by Chief Shaw of the local police force upon the charge of keeping a house of ill fame. Both women gave bail for their appearance in City Recorder Stipp's court next Friday to answer to the complaint.

The women came to Oregon City some weeks ago, and rented quarters in the building at 612 Main street, owned by W. F. Schooley. Reports in circulation upon the street earlier in the evening that there was to be a spectacular raid upon the Schooley premises attracted a morbid crowd, but the arrests were made without the knowledge of any of the spectators who gathered on nearby corners.

Gossip as to what had been going on in the place has been rife for some time, but owing to the secluded location of the quarters of the women, the police had considerable difficulty in getting evidence upon which to base their complaint. A close watch has been kept upon the Schooley place at night, however, and the police finally obtained sufficient information upon which to base a complaint.

ROYAL DIVORCE SUIT
MUNICH, July 15.—The court today began the hearing of evidence in the suit of the eighty-two-year-old Duke Ludwig of Bavaria, brother of the late Empress of Austria, who is seeking a divorce from his second wife, who before her marriage was a dancer.

It is now rumored that in the event of his obtaining a divorce the aged Duke will marry a youthful prima donna of the Munich opera house. Should he re-marry this will be his third morganatic alliance. The Duke's first wife was an actress named Mendel, who died in 1890. A few years later he married Antonie Von Bartolf, the dancer, from whom he is now seeking a divorce.

OREGON "AGGIES" AT CHAUTAUQUA

Wednesday is to be "Agricultural College Day" at Gladstone park, and it is expected that many graduates and students of the state institution at Corvallis will be on hand to participate in the program. Many of the alumni are planning to arrive at the Chautauqua grounds on the 10:30 a. m. car, so as to be on hand to hear the address of Dr. Wythecomb upon "Agriculture as a Factor in American Progress."

The Oregon Agricultural college has taken an important part in the Chautauqua program so far, many of its professors having been on hand to conduct lectures and classes in various lines of activity. These features of the program have been particularly popular, and have all been favored with a large attendance.

FIRE CHIEF ISSUES MOSSY ROOF WARNING

Fire Chief Long, who not only does his best to fight the red-tongued fire demon when he appears, but who also tries to keep him from visiting the city, is up in arms just at present against lazy property owners who have permitted moss to accumulate upon the roofs of their buildings, in violation of the city ordinances. Moss makes a most attractive place or sparks from chimneys to light, and when dry furnishes the best kind of timber for the birth of a blaze. Chief Long is preparing a list of property owners who are delinquent in this respect, and will ask prosecutions where such moss is not removed.
