MACKSBURG.
 Harvest days are hastening on and the grain seems likely to be ripe in good time. Wheat and oats are maturing fast and corn is beginning to tassel. The pasture, owing to the frequent rains, maintains the freshness of Spring. Dairy products are not only larger in quantity but are richer in quality, the cream yielding a higher percentage of butter-fat than is usual. Poultry, too, seems as if responding to the better prices and eggs are more abundant than they have been for years. Most of the small fruit is ripened and gone, the wild blackberry, however, still holds its own and furnishes the incentive for many a woodland picnic from which the parties return laden with the tempting fruit, far too much for present use. Thus adding materially to the winter store.
 A number of social gatherings have taken place in the past week. The friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Will Roth gave them a surprise at the home of Mrs. Roth's father, Mr. John Heppler, on Saturday evening. Music and dancing were the principal amusements and were enjoyed until a late hour. A tempting supper added to the pleasure of the evening, and all appeared to have a genuine good time. The music was furnished by the Messrs. Abe Heppler, Frank Hillton and Carl Boesche. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. Hilton, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boesche, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Heppler, Mr. and Mrs. Marsberger, Mr. and Mrs. Rothenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Geo.
