WILD WEST FEATS CROWD THIS SHOW

Few people realize the feats of daring that are performed in making moving pictures, in which the actors make thrilling hair breadth escapes by field and flood, over beetling cliffs amid the mad water, or while daring life and limb ond outlaw horses or among the carnivora of the jungles. Selig's latest picture of life in the West, called "The Law and the Outlaw," records more deeds of daring than ever before witnessed in a motion picture play

It is reckoned that "bulldogging" a wild steer is about the most intrepid act that falls to the lot of a cowboy, but an even more dangerous experi-ence comes later in this play when, stunned by the brain-bruise from a bullet, the hunted outlaw falls out of his saddle and his foot catches in the stirrup and he is dragged over the ground until he manages to twist his booted foot free.

the stirrup has led to more deaths pany at the time of the strike riot at for horsemen than any other form of Oswego, visited Sheriff E. T. Mass equestrain danger. There is no de-lusion in "The Law and the Outlaw," er that Ainsberry used when he shot and it is the most realistic two-reel him down. On seeing the weapon will first be shown here today at the wicked-looking gun did not kill him.

OREGON CITY'S SONGBIRD WILL WARBLE AT OAKS

Mary Adele Case, the Oregon City "songbird," will be heard in a farewell recital at the Oaks Park Auditorum, Portland, next Friday evening at

This will be the amous controlto's final appearance in the west before she returns to New York to take up her operatic career and singing for playing machine records.

Miss Case is particularly anxious that as many as possible of her Oregon City friends attend this recital. Reserved seats of this recital are now on sale at Sherman Clay & com-pany, Morrison street, Portland, where they may be obtained by mail or in person.

Miss Case declares that a number of the songs that have made her famous in the Edison records will be suns by her at this recital. Special cars for this recital will leave Oregon City at seven-thirty and eight o'clock. Tickets for the recital will include admission to the Oaks.

MANY OREGON CITY FOLK ENJOYING CAMPING LIFE

Camping in the country has com to be quite a fad with Oregon City people, and the warm weather of the past week has sent several families out into the more or less wild country for vacation enjoyment. At Clear Creek park the families of Messrs, O. D. Eby, Singletary, George Howell and W. J. Wilson are enjoying life; while at Pillar Rock, Washington, on the Columbia there is a party consisting of Mrs. Charles Schram, Misses Anna and Stella Hosey, and Mrs. W. E. Burns and her two small boys. All report having the best of

HAS SOME QUERIES

Shikaro Takomoto, "Japanese pas enger," has written to the "Hon. S. Pacific company," earnestly asking why, "please, do engineer 9:30 evening p. m., freight train necessary blow whistle with so long lasting of sounds for calling back end brake-man if 5 short whistle call would wake his baby and back-end brakeman with same effect departure?" And Takomoto, too, has some suggestions regarding Pullman cars. His letter fol-

Dear Hon. S. Pacific: "I residing in these Suisun City and question, please, do engineer 9:30 evening p. m. freight train necessary blow whistle with so long lasting of sounds for calling back end brake-man if 5 short whistle call would wake my baby and back brakeman with same effect each departure? Many other trains at crossings raise same long night noises; cannot all lives be safe with less awakening of almost the dead?

VILLAGE JOKERS BLAMED FOR REPORT OF MARRIAGE

Village humorists are responsible for the announcement some days ago of the alleged marriage of Miss Ella Krummel, of Bolton and "Morris E. Marshand," of Eugene. Miss Krummel is away at the seashore on her vacation at present, but members of her family say that there has been no marriage, and add that there is no such person, to their knowledge, as "Morris Marshand." The "announcement" of the wedding was made soon after Miss Krummel's departure for her vacation

TRIAL DATE POSTPONED

Almonde Sallence and Jeanle du Pain, arrested in Tom Kay's raid in Milwaukle some days ago, appeared by counsel in Justice Sievers' court Tuesday and asked for an extension of time in which to answer the charges sworn out against them by Kay after they had been arrested. Justice Sievers reset their case for Thursday morning at ten.

COURT MARTIAL SECRET

BERLIN, July 29.-The government is taking every precaution to keep se-cret the details of the court-martial which convened today for the trial of the several officials of the Prussian war office, who are charged with accepting bribes from the Krupp company with putative treason. The charges resulted from an investigation of sensational allegation made by Herr Liebknecht, the socialist leader in the Reichstag, in a speech he made

MARKET EASY; EGGS ALONE STAY HIGH

Eggs continue to hold their price in the retail markets, and are still quoted at 30 cents a dozen, with buying at 27 and 28 cents. The scarcity of the past week has subsided somewhat. and poultrymen, as a result, are having less of a field for direct selling to consumers. Forecast of a further advance in price is made in some quar ters, it being said that receipts will grow less and less as summer ad Berries of all kinds are ranging

FACTS VS. NEAR FACTS

As regards most popular cars in Portland and State of Oregon

If you want to know which are the most popular automobiles in Oregon and the City of Portland i. e. Multnomah County, consult the following list, which shows the number of registrations up to May 31st of twenty leading makes. We have taken the time and pains to acurately compile these statistics issued by the Secretary of State at

You may be surprised to find that certain makes, which you judged from advertising, publicity and talk were exceedingly popular, are not so at all. The popular car is the car you find the best dealers throughout the country selling. They are the dealers who understand the cars they handle, who have parts in stock, service stations and competent help. The rest we leave to your better judgment,
