Dressing Up the Summer Tailormade Is your crash or linen suit too severely plain for afternoons? If you think so don't despair. There's an easy way of smartening it. All you need is a yard of linen with which to make a deep and wide chemisette which can be slipped on over any plain lingerie blouse that is collarless. The chemisette should be hand embroidered at each side of the row of crystal buttons fastening its scalloped edged fronts, and its neck should be finished with a wide turned over collar, also hand embroidered and scalloped edged. This collar, coming over that on the suit's jacket, will extend almost to the arm eyes and effectively goodish the upper portion of the costume.

Baking is Very Simple When Mrs. Briggs Shows You How at Frank Busch's Furniture Store

The baking lectures and demonstrations by Mrs. Nevada Briggs, at the Frank Busch Furniture store this week have been largely attended; in fact, the lectures are so far superior to anything of the kind ever seen in Oregon City that all who attend are very enthusiastic and are urging their friends to take advantage of the course. Mrs. Briggs has the distinction of being the most practical and economical lecturer-demonstrator doing this kind of work. The methods applied are so simple that every one is delighted to find out how easy it really is to be a successful pastry baker. Mrs. Briggs attributes her success to the perfect leavening power of K. C. Baking Powder and it is easy to see that it is a great improvement over the old-fashioned ones Every woman in Oregon City is invited to attend these lectures. There is no charge whatever, Comfortable seats have been 5 provided where you may see every detail of the baking and mixing. Samples are served to all, and, as many recipes are served with - BESTER sauces, etc., it is well to bring a. fork for sampling.

How To Get The Cook's Book

The Cook's Book used by Mrs. Briggs in her lectures contains over 80 of Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill's best recipes. It is illustrated to show how the finished baking looks and it is undoubtedly the most valuable , Cook's Book on patsries, pudding, breads, cakes, etc., ever given out by any mer facturer. This beautiful Cook's Book is given to any one who purchases a large can of K .C. Baking Powder from their grocer and brings the colored certificate found in the can to the lectures. Don't fail to secure a copy of this unusual Cook's Book.

C. S. An Ethical Power

Now, gentlement, just for a moment, I would speak to you, not as an educationalist, but as a preacher of manhood and a lover of his The question of the use of alchohol by the student when studying, has carried me back to the thought. The International Correspondence Schools are not simply educational, they are ethical; they not only make foremen and craftsmen and draftsmen, but they MEN-in capital letters. For you can never awaken any one to his commercial possibilities without stirring up all other possibilities-sopatriotic, philanthropic, intellectual, moral. The moment you succeed breaking up one area of inertia you set vibration moving through every part of the being and all kinds of dormant and stagnant powers are set into healthy motion. When a man's mind gets engrossed with an intellectual occupation and he finds that he has a grip upon the laws and forces of the universe, the saloon, the vulgar and degrading s...ow, the curb-stone loafing, and the hours of inane and ribald waste all seem to be unworthy of him and his self-respect clothes him in a protective armor which helps to keep his entire manhood inviolate. A great American preacher used to speak much about "the expulsive power of a new affection," and, having as your life work the duty of both supplying and developing this "new affection"-the love of the best, by which the unworthy and base will be expelled, perhaps unconsciously but surely, from many and many a man. Success to you in your work!
